completion of this book.

INTRODUCTION TO WILSONS FROM NEW ENGLAND

Probably the first, and certainly the most prominent, individual with the Wilson name, to establish permanent residence in New England, was the Rev. John Wilson who came in the spring of 1630, with Gov. Winthrop in the ARBELLA, as the spiritual leader of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. For many years served as the founding pastor of the First Church in Boston.

Among the thousands who between 1630 and 1650 followed in the Puritan Great Migration we can identify at least thirty persons named Wilson. James Savage in his Genealogical Dictionary [1860] lists over two hundred and fifty individuals with this name who resided in New England prior to 1700, his compilation is far from complete. Some of these individuals did not marry, the families of others petered out within a few generations, but many left a posterity which flourished and multiplied.

The descendants of these original settlers were augmented by the influx of immigrants of Scotch ancestry who came from northern Ireland during the eighteenth century. Five shiploads in 1715 were the forerunners of a massive migration, it has been estimated that by the time of the Revolutionary war more than one-sixth of the population was of Scotch-Irish origin. An early petition by Scotch from Ireland, requesting land in New Hampshire on which to settle, shows over four percent of those signing were named Wilson, an indication of the prominence of this name among these of settlers.

The 1790 census of the New England states lists four hundred and forty families, comprised of over twenty-five hundred individuals, with the Wilson name. The largest concentration was in New Hampshire, where they accounted for one of every two hundred seventeen residents. Wilson has generally been listed among the ten surnames most frequently encountered in New England.

Using primary sources such as town vital records (VR), land records, gravestone inscriptions (GS), probate records, military records and census records we have, during the past thirty years, assembled a data base listing over forty thousand individuals named Wilson. Information from secondary sources such as published town histories, family genealogies and Bible records has also been used whenever it was found to be consistent with known facts, in many instances such secondary material is the only source available for later generations.

Wilsons From New England is conceived as a means to provide access to this data. This series of volumes, insofar as is possible, traces the male line from immigrant ancestors who settled in New England during colonial times to their descendants as listed in the 1850 census. Events which occurred subsequent to 1850 are included when they come readily to hand, however only a minimal amount of research has been devoted to later records, consequently but a small fraction of the individuals who were born after 1850 are reported herein. Some of the volumes, such as this, are devoted to the descendants of a single progenitor, while others list the descendants of several unrelated immigrants who initially settled in a common geographical area.

Our format is designed to permit computer print-outs of individual lines from those families whose genealogy has not yet been published.

Although we have striven for accuracy, our priority has been to establish family structure rather than provide absolute proof of all relationships. Thus, in the absence of indications to the contrary, we have assumed that an individual whose marriage is listed in the town records is the same one whose birth was recorded there some twenty-odd years earlier. Likewise we have assumed that minors listed in the census were children of the adults with whom they were living. In infrequent instances these assumptions are not valid.

Most people consulting this book will be searching for origins of an individual named Wilson or the descendants of someone who married a Wilson. To facilitate such searches we have limited the general index to those individuals having the Wilson name. Children of Wilson daughters can be readily located by referencing their husband's name. The space thus saved has been used to expand the indexes both for individuals having the Wilson name and for those individuals who married Wilsons. The Wilson index shows the year of birth, the principle place of residence, and when known, the year of death for each individual. Also included in this index are those females who acquired the name by marriage. The index to individuals who married Wilsons shows the date and place of the marriage whenever these facts are known.

Our numbering system has been designed to be user friendly. Each person born with the Wilson name has been assigned a distinctive identification consisting of two numbers separated by a hyphen. Brides assume their husband's identity. The prefix represents the number of the generation in this country to which that person belongs starting with the immigrant ancestor as the first generation. The suffix shows the individual's sequential location within the generation. The plus sign (+) is appended to designate those males who are carried to the next generation as head of a family group. A double asterisk () replaces the generation designation for individuals, thought to belong to a family, but listed in the appendix because their relationship has not been proven.

A letter is used to designate the volume of Wilsons From New England in which the individual's family is listed, thus all descendants of John Wilson of Woburn found in this volume are given the prefix "J". These designations for the various families are deeply embedded in our data bank and have no relationship to the sequence in which the volumes are published.

A compilation of this type is never completed, there are always elusive lines of descent which have been overlooked. Correspondence regarding corrections or additions for inclusion in possible supplements to this volume, or with material regarding other New England Wilson families, for use in future volumes, is always welcome.

INTRODUCTION TO VOLUME "J"

Volume "J" is the third volume to be published in this series. The reception accorded the previous volumes has been most gratifying.

The posterity of John Wilson, who died at Woburn, Massachusetts on 2 July 1687, comprises the largest family with the Wilson name to originate in New England. This family appears to be characterized by a somewhat nomadic and entrepreneurial nature. Rather than remain for several generations sharing minute farms carved from the family homestead, John's sons soon scattered, their children and grand-children are found as early settlers in all parts of the five state region. Later generations were among the first to take advantage of the opportunities of westward migration. This family trait of restlessness has continued, his descendants listed herein are dispersed in all fifty states.

There is no previously published record of this family. However, we have been fortunate in locating several compilations which provide extensive details regarding specific family lines, some of which are brought down to present times. We are greatly indebted to these sources.

Most of these manuscripts are based upon events which were known to the compiler, or upon information obtained by correspondence with family members. Unfortunately this type of material is difficult to confirm from presently available records. We have included most of this data exactly as it was found, in those instances where conflicting dates occur, notably in reference to events in the state of Maine, we have used the data from the source which appears to be the most reliable and knowledgeable regarding the items in question.

In addition we have obtained several articles which provide a goodly amount of background information regarding the origins and activities of this family. While some of the representations in this material may be open to question, on the whole they contain much information which will be of interest to the readers of this volume. Rather than intersperse fragments from these articles in the text they have been consolidated and reprinted in their entirety, together with our comments thereon, in the appendix.

Especially in earlier times there were frequent variations in the way this family name was spelled. Although some of these variations persist to the present we have concluded that their use serves to cloud, rather then to clarify, the overall picture and therefore have ignored variations have spelled the family surname as Wilson throughout our books. Possibly the final event leading to this conclusion was when, after carefully separating the residents of a town according to the number of L's in their name, we found brothers with different spellings on their gravestones and even a husband and wife with different spellings of the same surname on their common stone.

Composition for this volume was done with a clone of a AT personal computer using the Volkswriter IV word processing program and an Epson LQ850 printer with one-time film ribbons.

THE IMMIGRANT

According to family tradition, as recorded by his great-granddaughter in Grandmother Mighill's Story, which is given in the appendix, John Wilson came from England to the Massachusetts Bay Colony with his wife, Hannah James and their infant child. Although this fits well with known facts we have found nothing to verify this statement.

Nor have we found any clue to the origins of this family in England. As James Savage commented in his Genealogical Dictionary, with a name as common as John Wilson it is difficult to determine the identity of the individual. In this instance the only apparent possibility of establishing a connection between England and Massachusetts is through a record of the marriage of John Wilson and Hannah James. Unfortunately such a record has not been found.

We do know that he was not the son of Roger Wilson of the village of Scrooby, Nottinghamshire, a man who never existed. This ancestry was contrived in 1867 by S. C. Newman, "a prominent local historian" in an attempt to establish a MAYFLOWER connection for a wealthy client. Newman's original report, titled History of Some Descendants of Roger Wilson, which is given in the appendix, has been completely discredited. Ironically, this hoax was not necessary, if Newman had access to the sources which are now available he would find that his client had a legitimate line of descent from a MAYFLOWER passenger.

It appears that John and his family arrived in New England in 1652. Their son John, who is believed to be the infant who came from England with his parents, died 1 Feb. 1735 in his 84th year. This would place the family in England in February of 1652, thirteen months later they were in New England with sufficient assets to purchase a home.

Apparently John and his family landed at Salem, a port which in the seventeenth century rivaled Boston in importance. We find them there on the third day, twelfth month of the year 1652 (3 Mar. 1653) when John Wilson of Salem, mason, for sixteen pounds, purchased of Thomas Weeks of Salem, turner, two acres of land in Salem with the dwelling house thereon standing. (Essex Deeds, 1:16)

It is difficult to establish the approximate date of birth for John Wilson, Sr. The Woburn records list his death on 2 July 1687. Grandmother Mighill says he was in his fifty-second year when he died. This is difficult to accept, it would make him about fourteen years of age for his marriage, fifteen when his first child was born and sixteen when he purchased the house in Salem. Although early marriages were common in his family, all of his daughters married while they were teenagers, we are nevertheless inclined to the more conventional pattern and believe that John was probably born sometime during the latter part of the 1620's and was in his early twenties when he came to New England.

On 1 July 1657 John Wilson of Salem, mason, and Hannah Wilson his wife, for the consideration of eighteen pounds, sold their homestead to Thomas Root of Salem, weaver. Their deed is an unusual document in that it stipulates the purchaser was to have all fruit growing outside the garden and the Wilsons were to retain possession of the premises until the tenth of October, next ensuing. This delay was probably to give them the benefit of the crops they had planted in the garden, it may have also served to give them time to arrange their move to Woburn.

It is not until 26 February 1661 that we find proof of their residence in Woburn. On that date, according to the Book of Records of the Proprietors of Woburn, John Wilson of Woburn was granted four acres of meadowland in the nether end of Settle Meadow, next Cedar Swamp, provided he continued to live in town for five years. On 2 April 1668 John Wilson was listed as one of the fifty proprietors who were entitled to share in the distribution of the common lands of Woburn.

The Woburn town records list the birth of Samuel, son of John Wilson, on 29 Dec. 1658. The absence of continuity in listing births for his other children leads us to believe that this isolated entry was made several years after the event and therefore it can not be considered evidence of the family being in Woburn by that date.

At a Town Meeting held in Woburn on 27 Feb. 1666 John Wilson was elected as one of four to care for swine and fences, however the responsibilities of public office did not often come his way. Possibly his participation in town affairs was inhibited by the remote location of his farm, in the southwesterly part of what was then North Woburn, now Bedford, adjacent to the Billerica line.

Further, the Wilsons were alienated from the majority of the inhabitants by their identification with the Baptist faith. In June 1675 John Johnson, John Wilson, Sr. and his wife, Henry Somers and his wife, John Wilson, Jr., Caleb Farley and Hopestill Foster were fined for frequently absenting themselves from public worship on the Lord's day. Again, in December 1777, we read that George Polly, the wife of John Wilson, Sr., John Wilson, Jr., Timothy Brooks, Francis Wyman, Aaron Cleveland and Hopestill Foster were admonished and sentenced to pay costs of court for frequently absenting themselves from the public worship of God on the Lord's days. (Middlesex Court Records, 3:128, 205) Although these citations do not specifically state that the Wilsons were Baptists, the footnote on page 244 of the published Woburn Record of Marriages indicates that they were associated with those who joined the "Schismatical assembly of the Anabaptists." It is further noted that the son Francis, when he was living in Rehoboth, was repeatedly identified with his Baptist faith. (Massachusetts Archives 11:388, 113:596)

This administrator's bond, together with an inventory appraising the estate of John Wilson late of Woburn, deceased, at £253. are the only documents in file 1585, Suffolk Probate Court Records. Normally this estate would have been handled by the probate court for Middlesex County, however it came during the period covered by the decree of the tyrannical Sir Edmund Andros, the Royal Governor of all New England, requiring that any estate with a value of £50. or more must be handled by his court in Boston. In this way Andros was able to collect exorbitant fees and high taxes on estates from places as remote as Albany and Schenectady. (Winifred L. and Mary L. Holman, "Suffolk County Probates, 1686-1692" in The American Genealogist, 12 [Jan. 1936]:175)

John's widow Hannah married, as his third wife, Lt. THOMAS FULLER of Salem Village (now Danvers) who, in 1640 had been one of the subscribers to the town orders for Woburn. There is no record of this marriage which took place after the death of Fuller's second wife in May of 1688. Salem Village was the center of the witchcraft hysteria and the elderly Hannah, a stranger, after a short stay in town, prudently decided to forsake her husband, leave Salem Village and return to Woburn. Under the date of 21 June 1697 the Woburn Town Records note "Ye selectmen met and called James Proctor to account for entertaining Hannah Fuller, his mother-in-law, without leave of ye selectmen." Subsequently a bond for £80. was given by James Wilson, Sr. of Billerica, Samuel Wilson, Aaron Cleveland and James Proctor, all of Woburn, to free the town of any charge resulting from "Hannah Fuller, ye wife of Lt. Thomas Fuller of Salem Village, who is come to this Towne of Woburn to live with her children." There is no record of her death, she is not mentioned in the will of Lt. Thomas Fuller who died at Salem on 3 June 1698, ae. 80 years.

Children of John and Hannah (James) Wilson:

2-1+ i. JOHN, born about 1652 (calculated), probably in England, died at Bedford, MA 1 Feb. 1735 "in his 84th year."

2-2 ii. SARAH, born circa 1653, probably at Salem, died at Woburn (VR) 15 June 1686, just one week after the birth of her sixth child. Based upon the age of her husband one could make a strong case that Sarah, not John was the infant who accompanied her parents from England, thereby advancing the time of the family's arrival in New England by a year or two. Sarah has been placed here because Mrs. Mighill in one place refers to the infant who came from England as being a son and also because it helps fill the gap between the birth of John in 1652 and Dorcas in 1657. There is no record of her marriage to SAMUEL SNOW who was born at Woburn (VR) 28 May 1647, died there 28 Nov. 1717, son of Richard and Annis (-----) Snow. They had six (Snow) children recorded at Woburn; Samuel in 1670, Sarah 1672, Daniel 1674, Abigail 1677, Richard 1683 and Hannah born in 1686. (Myrtle M. Jillson, The Snow-Estes Ancestry, [1939] 1:49)

2-3 iii. Daughter, born circa 1655, killed by lightning.

2-4 iv. DORCAS, born 29 Jan. 1657, probably at Salem, died 29 Nov. 1714 at the home of her son Aaron in Cambridge where she is buried in the Old Burying Ground across from Christ Church in Harvard Square. She married at Woburn (VR) 26 Sept. 1675 AARON CLEVELAND who was born there 10 Jan. 1655, died there 14 Sept. 1716, son of Moses and Ann (Winn) Cleveland. They had ten (Cleveland) children born at Woburn; Dorcas in 1676, Hannah 1678, Aaron 1680, Hannah 1687, Moses 1690, Sarah 1692, Miriam 1694, Isabell 1697, Ann 1699 and Benjamin born 1701. Through their son Aaron, Jr. they were ancestors of President Grover Cleveland. (Edmund J. and Horace G. Cleaveland, The Genealogy of the Cleveland and Cleaveland Families [1899] p. 36)

2-5+ v. SAMUEL, born 29 Dec. 1658 (Woburn VR) died there 21 Nov. 1729.

2-6 vi. FRANCIS, born about 1660, possibly at Woburn, died at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 15 Aug. 1724, buried in Kikemuit Cemetery, Warren, RI. He married at Woburn (VR) 6 Mar. 1683 RUTH DUNTLIN who died at Rehoboth (VR) 18 Dec. 1700. Francis inherited the family homestead and resided there until 18 July 1696 when Francis Wilson of Woburn, husbandman, and Ruth his wife, sold eighteen acres of land in Woburn, "part of it being the homestead of Francis Wilson that was his father's and contains a dwelling house, barn and out houses, orchard and garden and adjoins in part the land of Samuel Wilson." (Middlesex Deeds, 10:514) On 8 Aug. 1696 Francis Wilson of Woburn, planter, purchased twenty acres of land in Rehoboth at a place called Rocky River. (Bristol Deeds, 3:206) Subsequent to this date Francis had many real estate transactions, both in Middlesex county and in Rehoboth. He left an estate valued at well over £1000. including £5.10.0 due for his services in the House of Representatives. He left no children, we quote abstracts from his will which is dated 25 June 1723. (Bristol Probate Court Records, 4:351)

"To Jonathan Wilson (my cousin) who now dwelleth with me, who is the son of my brother Benjamin Wilson, to said Jonathan Wilson I give all my estate, both real and personal, viz: my housing and land, servants and cattle that I be possessed of in my own right at the time of my decease except only the bed whereon I lodge and my negro girl called Pegg which bed and all the furniture thereto I give to my cousin Margaret Whitaker because it was her aunt's bed. And I do likewise constitute and ordain and appoint my said cousin, Jonathan Wilson, to be my sole and only executor.

"I give to the church in Swanzey called Elder Wheatten's church, to which I belong, the sum of five pounds.

"I give to my cousin Margaret Whitaker my negro girl called Rose and the sum of thirty pounds besides the bed above said.

"I give to my cousin Francis Wilson, the son of my brother John Wilson of Billerica, the sum of ten pounds, money.

"I give to my cousin Samuel Wilson, the son of my brother Samuel Wilson of Woburn, the sum of ten pounds, money.

"I give to my cousin Francis Wilson, son of my brother James Wilson of Killingly in Connecticut, the sum of ten pounds, money.

"I give to my cousin John Wilson, son of my brother James Wilson of Killingly, the sum of ten pounds, money.

"I give to my cousin Francis Wilson, son of my brother Benjamin Wilson of Rehoboth, the sum of ten pounds, money.

"I give to my cousin Ruth, the wife of John Franklin of Swanzey, the sum of ten pounds, money and one cow.

"Which legacies are to be raised out of my estate and paid by my executor to the several persons above named."

We have not established the identity of Margaret Whitaker who was apparently a relative of his wife. In 1720 Francis Wilson, acting in the capacity of administrator on the estate of Nathaniel Whitaker, late of Rehoboth, deceased, sold a parcel of land in Rehoboth. (Bristol County Deeds, 13:377)

2-7+ vii. JAMES, born circa 1663, died at Killingly, CT after March 1750.

2-8 viii. ABIGAIL, born at Woburn (VR) 8 Aug. 1666, died at Chelmsford, MA (VR) 27 Nov. 1747. She married first, at Woburn (VR) 25 Feb. 1683/4 JOSEPH HILDRETH who was born at Chelmsford 16 Apr. 1658, died there 28 Jan. 1706, son of Richard Hildreth and his second wife Elizabeth (Hinchman). They had twelve (Hildreth) children, all but the last birth recorded at Chelmsford; Hannah in 1684, Joseph and Richard, twins in 1686, Abigail 1688, Abigail again in 1691, and again in 1693, Elizabeth 1694, Joseph 1695, John 1698, Ephraim 1700, Elizabeth 1703 and lastly Benjamin. Abigail married second, about 1708, as his third wife JONATHAN BARRETT who was born at Chelmsford circa 1658, died 28 Mar. 1743, son of Lt. John and Sarah (-----) Barrett. They had John Barrett, born 1709. (NEH&G Register, 42 [July 1888]:259)

2-9 ix. ELIZABETH, born at Woburn (VR) 6 Aug. 1668, died at Chelmsford (VR) 4 Jan. 1743. She married at Chelmsford (Woburn VR) 12 Nov. 1685 ISAAC HILDRETH who was born there 20 July 1661, younger brother of Joseph who married her sister Abigail. They had five (Hildreth) children; Elizabeth 1687, Persis 1691, Joanna 1695, Isaac 1698 and Sarah born 1700. (Hildreth Family Association Reports, Vol. 2 [1922])

2-10+ x. BENJAMIN, born at Woburn (VR) 15 Oct. 1670, died at Ashford, CT 11 July 1750.

2-11 xi. HANNAH, born at Woburn (VR) 31 May 1672, died there 27 Feb. 1726. She married there (VR) on 19 Nov. 1689 JONATHAN PEIRCE who was born there 2 Feb. 1662/3, died there 17 June 1694, son of Robert and Mary (Knight) Peirce, a younger brother of Elizabeth who had married her brother Samuel. They had two (Peirce) children; Hannah and Jonathan, both died young. (Frederick C. Peirce, Posterity of John Pers of Watertown, Massachusetts [1880] p. 29) The will of Jonathan Peirce mentions his wife Hannah who was named to be executrix, his friend Edward Johnson, his brother Samuel Wilson his brother John Peirce and his only son, Jonathan Peirce. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 17505) The widow Hannah married second, probably early in 1695, as his second wife JAMES PROCTOR who was born at Chelmsford 8 Jan. 1658, died at Woburn (VR) 11 Jan. 1710, son of Robert and Jane (Hildreth) Proctor. By her second husband Hannah had seven (Proctor) children born at Woburn; James 1696, Jonathan 1698, Thomas and William, twins in 1700, John 1704, Hannah 1706 and Esther in 1709. (William L. Proctor, Genealogy of Descendants of Robert Proctor [1898] p. 27)

End of first generation.

SECOND GENERATION

J02-001 Lt. JOHN WILSON (John) born in England about 1652, came to New England with his parents when he was an infant. The Bedford, MA records note that Lt. John Wilson, husband of Rebecca, died 1 Feb. 1734/5 in his 84th year.

He married first, probably at Woburn about 1672 JOANNA CARTER who was born probably at Charlestown, Massachusetts, daughter of Joseph and Susannah (Chamberlain) Carter. In his will, dated 30 Dec. 1676 and probated 13 Apr. 1677 Joseph Carter mentioned his daughter, Joanna Wilson and bequeathed to his grandson John Wilson one half of a four acre lot in Woburn, to be the two acres next to his father's. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 4020) Joanna died between 1695 and 1698, we find no record of her death.

John married second, at Concord, MA (VR) on 10 Nov. 1698 SUSANNA (GOODENOW) (REDIOT) MILES who was born at Sudbury, MA on 20 Feb. 1643, daughter of Thomas and Jane (-----) Goodenow, widow of John Rediot of Marlborough and of John Miles of Concord. Again we find no record of her death.

His third marriage was in Rehoboth, MA (VR) 25 May 1713 to REBECCA (-----) (HUNT) (CARPENTER) WILSON widow of Ephraim Hunt of Rehoboth, widow of David Carpenter of Rehoboth and widow of Samuel (G02-010) Wilson of Newton. Rebecca survived her fourth husband and died at Rehoboth (VR) 14 Apr. 1749, her gravestone in the yard of the Newman Congregational Church, now in East Providence, RI but originally a part of Rehoboth, reads "In memory of Rebeckah Willson, widow and relict of Lieut. John Wilson died April 14, 1749 in the 85th year of her age." Her will, signed 4 Dec. 1747 and proven on 18 Sept. 1749 lists her children; Daniel Hunt, deceased; John Hunt; Hannah, wife of Dea. John Willmarth; Sarah, wife of Thomas Bowen; Rebecca Abell and David Carpenter. (Bristol Probate Court Records, Files 12:68 and 12:69) The birth of her third husband is recorded at Boston 10 June 1666, son of Nathaniel and Hannah (Crafts) Wilson.

John Wilson of Woburn had military service in the Narragansett Campaign during King Philip's War culminating in December of 1675 in the Great Swamp Fight which effectively destroyed the power of this adversary.

On 19 July 1682 John Wilson, Sr. and John Wilson, Jr. both of "Oburn", husbandmen, jointly purchased a parcel containing 137 acres of land situated in Billerica on the Woburn line originally granted by the town of Cambridge to Rev. Jonathan Mitchell. (Middlesex Deeds, 8:404, 406 and 11:176) Here, on Vine brook he built the dam and mill which long bore his name and here also he built his home. The mill was badly needed both to saw logs and to grind grain for the residents of that area, the town encouraged him by building a road to the mill. "21st day, 3rd month of 1683. At a Town Meeting on a training day, the town granted to John Wilson, Jr. privilege upon our Commons for ye future, to the proportion of a five-acre lot, he paying to ye towne's use twenty shillings in silver within six months. Also the towne did declare themselves willing to give one days work of each man in ye town, & of teams of those who have them, for the making of a sufficient way to John Wilson's corne mill." (Billerica Town Records) In 1685 he was granted thirty acres of land on the east side of Shawshin River, extending to the Woburn line, "for encouragement towards his corne mill." The remains of the mill pond and the mill dam can be seen today, literally in the shadow of a heavily travelled interstate highway.

It appears that John Wilson and Captain, later Major, James Convers of Woburn were exceptionally good friends. When John was engaged in his military service, James Convers was his captain, when he was involved with the General Court he acknowledged that his initial petition, submitted during the year in which Convers did not serve, lacked the sponsorship of a good friend.

Lt. John Wilson was actively engaged in the military campaign to repulse the French and Indians during their attack on the settlements in Maine. Henry A. Hazen, on page 127 of his History of Billerica, Massachusetts [1883] repeats an account from Mather's Magnalia; "A young man being in the woods near Cochecho (now Dover, NH) was fired at by some Indians. Lieut. Wilson immediately went out with eighteen men and finding the Indians, killed or wounded the whole party excepting one. This struck terror and kept them quiet the remainder of the winter, but on the tenth day of June (1692) an army of French and Indians made a furious attack on Storer's garrison at Wells where Capt. Convers commanded; who after a brave and resolute defense was so happy to drive them off with great loss."

We give John's petition to the General Court of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay in New England which is dated 12 Feb. 1700/1.

Feeling somewhat disappointed by the results of his first petition, for which he was awarded only £3.0.0, John Wilson under the date of 15 Oct. 1701 presented a second petition to the General Court.

The advantage of having friends at court is illustrated by this incident, in 1701 Maj. James Convers was again a representative from Woburn to the General Court. John's petition for reconsideration was successful and he received the sum of £7.0.0 in addition to the £3.0.0 previously awarded.

Lt. John Wilson is frequently mentioned in the Town Records of Billerica. He was Selectman for the term 1696-97 and again for 1703-04. In 1705 he was the town's representative to the General Court of the Colony. On 16 Nov. 1705 it was voted that "Capt. John Lane, Jonathan Bacon and John Wilson, the petitioners, that are freeholders and inhabitants of the said town of Billerica, be entitled to and have a proportionable share with others, the commoners, proprietors and inhabitants of said town, in all future divisions of all undivided and waste lands belonging to the town in proportion to the town charges for the space of seven years past." In 1728 John Wilson was one of the signers of the petition to the General Court which resulted in a part of Billerica being set-off as the new town of Bedford.

On 27 May 1718 John and Rebecca, his wife, conveyed to Francis Wilson of Billerica thirty acres of land in Billerica bounded north on the mill pond, north by the road to Lexington and south by their own land, also a parcel of six acres part of which was in consideration for the love and affection born unto his son Francis, being in part his portion of the father's estate. (Middlesex Deeds, 20:396)

On 23 Feb. 1729/30 John Wilson, yeoman, and Rebecca his wife conveyed to sons Francis and Samuel the whole of that farm where he then dwelt containing one mansion house, barn, wells and 100 acres of land in Bedford, bounded easterly by the Woburn line, together with another 40 acres in Bedford with all buildings, mills, orchards and fences thereon. (Middlesex Deeds, 65:343)

Children of Lt. John Wilson, all by his first wife, Joanna (Carter):

3-1+ i. JOHN, born at Woburn (VR) 3 Jan. 1673.

3-2 ii. HANNAH, born at Woburn (VR) 28 Dec. 1674, died there (VR) 5 May 1676.

3-3 iii. HANNAH, born at Woburn (VR) 11 Mar. 1677.

3-4 iv. SUSANNA, born at Woburn (VR) 11 Mar. 1679, she was the widow Simonds of Billerica in October of 1732 when listed in the probate of her third husband. She married first STEPHEN RICHARDSON who was born at Billerica 20 Feb. 1676 and died there 14 Jan. 1711/12, son of Stephen and Abigail (Wyman) Richardson. Stephen died intestate, administration on his estate was given on 22 Sept. 1712 to the widow Susanna Richardson and her father, Lt. John Wilson. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 19138) They had six (Richardson) children; Susanna 1700, Stephen 1702, Henry 1705, Ebenezer 1708, Amos 1710 and a posthumous child, Jonas born 1712. (Henry A. Hazen, History of Billerica, Massachusetts [1883] pp. 117 and 163) An unverified account says that Susanna next married her first cousin, DANIEL SNOW who was born at Woburn on 9 July 1674, died there 7 July 1717, son of Samuel and Sarah (Wilson J02-002) Snow, the second marriage for both. They had a daughter Susanna Snow born 18 May 1717. The next husband was DANIEL SIMONDS, born at Woburn 21 Feb. 1689/90, died 1732, son of Benjamin and Rebecca

(Tidd) Simonds, a brother of William Simonds who had married her sister Elizabeth. They had three (Simonds) children; Rebecca in 1719, Daniel 1722 and Joseph born 1724. (Rollo W. Simonds, History of the Simonds Family [1985] p. 36)

They had eight (Hildreth) children; James 1701, John 1703, Benjamin 1706, Thomas 1708, Samuel 1709, Ebenezer, Jonas 1716 and Dorcas born 1719. (Hildreth Family Association Reports, 2 [1921]:20)

3-6 vi. ELIZABETH, born at Billerica (VR) 20 Apr. 1683, died there (VR) 5 Sept. 1712. She married at Concord, MA (VR) 26 Dec. 1704 WILLIAM SIMONDS who was born at Woburn (VR) 14 Feb. 1678/79, son of Benjamin and Rebecca (Tidd) Simonds, a brother of the third husband of her sister Susanna. They had four (Simonds) children; Elizabeth 1705, William 1707, Rebecca 1710 and Joseph, born 11 July 1712, less than two months before his mother's death. (Hazen, op. cit., p. 163)

3-7 vii. RUTH, born at Billerica (VR) 25 Mar. 1685, died at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 7 Mar. 1728. She married at Rehoboth (VR) 6 May 1703 JOHN FRANKLIN, son of James and Elizabeth (Hammond) Franklin of Swansea, MA. They had nine (Franklin) children; Hopestill 1705, Ruth 1708, Joanna 1710, John 1712, Frances 1715, Joseph 1719, Joanna 1721, Abel 1725 and Elizabeth, born 5 Dec. 1727, three months prior to the death of her mother. (Hazen, op. cit. pp. 56 and 163)

3-8 viii. SARAH, born at Billerica (VR) 15 June 1687.

3-9+ ix. FRANCIS, born about 1690, died at Bedford in April of 1765.

3-10 x. EBENEZER, born at Billerica (VR) 5 Nov. 1693, lived only three days.

3-11+ xi. SAMUEL, born about 1695, died at Bedford early in 1747.

J02-005 Sgt. SAMUEL WILSON (John) born 29 Dec. 1658, believed to be fifth of the nine children of John and Hannah (James) Wilson, died at Woburn, MA (VR) 21 Nov. 1729.

He married at Woburn (VR) 24 Feb. 1681/2 ELIZABETH PEIRCE who was born there 6 Mar. 1658/9, daughter of Robert and Mary (Knight) Peirce and sister of Jonathan Peirce who married Samuel's sister Hannah. (Frederick C. Pierce, Posterity of John Pers of Watertown, Massachusetts [1880] p. 25)

Although his birth is recorded in Woburn those of his two next younger siblings are not, it is probable that Samuel was born before the family settled in Woburn and that his birth was recorded there at a later date. Samuel was the only son of John Wilson, Sr. to remain in Woburn, he inherited the homestead, for the next one hundred and fifty years his descendants were the only Wilsons known to have resided in Woburn.

His name does not often appear in the Woburn records. In 1697 when Samuel joined with other siblings to furnish surety for the support of their elderly mother he was termed "husbandman." In 1706 when he was elected a Selectman of Woburn his military title was used, however we find no record of his service.

His estate did not go through the probate court, on 19 June 1724 Samuel Wilson, by a deed endorsed by his wife Elizabeth to relinquish her dower rights, conveyed to his son Samuel Wilson, Jr. several pieces of land in Woburn including the homestead on which he then dwelt, it consisted of one mansion house and thirty acres of land. On 17 Dec. 1729 John Butler of Dunstable, Ebenezer Pierce of Woburn, Hugh Jones of Woburn and Samuel Johnson of Lunenburg, all in Massachusetts, sons-in-law to Samuel Wilson, late of Woburn, deceased, for the consideration of £6. each, quitclaimed to their brother-in-law Samuel Wilson, Jr. of Woburn all their right title and interest in the personal or movable estate of their late father-in-law. This conveyance, which provides our only clue to the descendants of Samuel Wilson, was endorsed by Mary, wife of Ebenezer Pierce and by Hannah, wife of Hugh Jones. One may question the legality of this document when the other two daughters had not signed to relinquish their inheritance. (Middlesex Deeds, 29:285 and 29:328)

Children of Sgt. Samuel and Elizabeth (Peirce) Wilson, all births are recorded at Woburn:

3-12 i. ELIZABETH, born 28 Jan. 1682/3. She married JOHN BUTLER who was born at Woburn (VR)

22 July 1677, died at Pelham, NH 1759, son of James and Mary (-----) Butler. They had eight (Butler) children recorded at Woburn and one at Dunstable, MA; Elizabeth 1704, John 1706, Samuel 1708, Sarah 1710, Joseph 1713, Phebe 1715, Mary 1716, Jacob 1718, Abigail 1720 and Sarah born 1724. (Caleb Butler, "Deacon John Butler and His Descendants" NEH&G Register, 2 [Oct.1848]:355) John had a brother James Butler who married Hannah (U03-012) Wilson, daughter of Jeremiah and Hannah (Beamon) Wilson.

3-13 ii. MARY, born 10 Apr. 1685. She married EBENEZER PIERCE born at Woburn (VR) 10 Dec. 1687 son of Thomas and Rachel (Bacon) Pierce. She is probably the widow Mary Pierce who died at Woburn (VR) 17 Jan. 1747. They had nine (Pierce) children recorded at Woburn; Mary 1708, Deborah 1709, Ebenezer 1711, Jonathan 1713, Ruth 1715, Elizabeth 1715 (twin), Joshua 1718, Rebecca 1720 and Nathan born 1723. The daughter Ruth married as her second husband Joseph Johnson, born 23 June 1708, son of Capt. Edward and Sarah (Walker) Johnson and thereby became sister-in-law to her aunt, Sarah, widow of Samuel (J03-017) Wilson. (Edward F. Johnson, Capt. Edward Johnson of Woburn, Massachusetts and Some of His Descendants [1905] p. 14)

3-14 iii. SAMUEL, born 2 Feb. 1687/8, died soon.

3-15 iv. HANNAH, born 24 Dec. 1688. She married HUGH JONES, Jr. who was baptized at Salem (VR) 8 June 1680, son of Hugh and his second wife, Mary (Foster) Jones. (Sidney Perley, History of Salem, Massachusetts [1926] 2:284) Hannah and Hugh had eight (Jones) children all recorded at Woburn; Abigail 1711, Hannah 1714, David 1716, Jonathan 1719, Nathan 1721, Nathaniel 1723, Mary 1725 and Hugh in 1727.

3-16 v. REBECCA, born 5 Mar. 1693, died (VR) 29 Nov. 1694.

3-17+ vi. SAMUEL, born 21 Nov. 1695, died at Burlington, MA 11 Oct. 1750.

3-18 vii. REBECCA, born 5 July 1698, died at Lunenburg, MA (VR) 29 Aug. 1731, ten days after the birth of her sixth child. She married SAMUEL JOHNSON who was born at Woburn (VR) 21 Feb. 1696, son of Capt. Edward and Sarah (Walker) Johnson. They had six (Johnson) children all recorded at Lunenburg; Rebecca 1719, Elizabeth 1721, Samuel 1723, Keziah 1725, Hannah 1727 and Nathan born 1731.

J02-007 JAMES WILSON (John) born probably at Woburn, Massachusetts circa 1663, seventh of the nine children of John and Hannah (James) Wilson. He is last noted in Killingly, CT in March of 1750.

He married first, at Woburn (VR) on 19 Jan. 1687 DEBORAH PIERCE who was born there 30 Oct. 1666, daughter of Ens. John and Deborah (Converse) Pierce. (Frederick B. Pierce, Posterity of Thomas Pierce of Charlestown and Woburn, Massachusetts [1882] p. 26) Deborah died, apparently from the effects of childbirth, on 14 Dec. 1703 at Lexington, MA (VR). In his will, signed 26 Apr. 1716 Ens. John Pierce left a legacy to the children of his deceased daughter, Deborah Wilson. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 17495)

James married second, at Andover, MA (VR) on 17 Apr. 1704 a widow, MARGARET (RUSS) PETERS who was born there 10 Apr. 1673 daughter of John and Deborah (Osgood) Russ and widow of William Peters who in 1696 had been killed by Indians leaving her a widow with a ten months old son. Margaret was last noted in 1738 when she was living in Killingly. See Grandmother Mighill's Story in the appendix for an account of the Indian raid in which William Peters was killed and how James Wilson engaged Mrs. Peters as a housekeeper and after a few months they decided upon a more permanent relationship.

The name of James Wilson appears on the list of proprietors of Rehoboth, MA in 1689 but it is unlikely that he ever joined his two brothers and a sister who resided in that town. He was termed "of Woburn" on 16 Jan. 1692 when he exchanged land with his brother-in-law, Isaac Hildreth, giving fifty acres with dwelling house, orchard and barn in Woburn in exchange for sixty acres in Cambridge at a place called World's end or Tophet swamp. Middlesex Deeds, 10:277)

He was taxed in Cambridge Farms in 1693 for the purchase of ministerial land. It was not until 6 Feb. 1699 that he and his wife Deborah joined the Lexington church, during the following fifteen years he had children baptized there at frequent intervals. (Charles Hudson, History of Lexington, Massachusetts [1913 Rev.] 2:760) At the town meeting in Cambridge "orderly convened 9th March 1701/2" James Wilson and Benjamin Muzzey were chosen to be fence viewers "at ye farmes." Later that year he was appointed by the selectmen as one of the two residents of Cambridge to join with Billerica and perambulate the bounds between the two towns.

In July of 1715 James Wilson, husbandman, of Lexington, purchased a farm of over two hundred acres situated in that part of Killingly, Connecticut which later became the town of Thompson. He paid £100. in cash and gave the seller a mortgage for the £200. balance due on the selling price. The following month he purchased another one hundred acres in the same area, this time paying the £160. purchase price in cash. (Killingly Deeds, Vol. 1) These were considerable sums in those times, they are indicative of an affluent family.

On 1 Feb. 1725/6 James Wilson of Killingly, yeoman, conveyed forty acres of first division land in Killingly, the consideration being the love, goodwill and affection he bore to his son John Wilson, husbandman. He added the stipulation that the gift was for his son's advancement and settlement in the world and together with what had already been advanced to that end was always to be understood as his full and whole part and portion of the father's estate.

On the same date, and for the identical consideration he conveyed to his son James Wilson, of Leicester, MA, yeoman, forty acres of land in the eastern half of the town of Leicester, known as the home lot, which had been granted to him by the proprietors of Leicester, also another parcel consisting of 107 acres, making a total of 147 acres. A note to this deed, recorded in Killingly, mentions that a like instrument of conveyance was formerly made to the premises and is said to be lost and is therefore now renewed. (Killingly Deeds, Vol. 2)

By three similar deeds, all dated 6 Mar. 1737/8, the day his youngest son was married, James conveyed land in Killingly to his three other sons, Ebenezer received fifty acres, Jonathan received seventy acres and Thomas received thirty-one acres. James and Margaret Wilson, together with their unmarried daughter Hannah, on 15 Oct. 1738 were dismissed from the First Parish (Putnam) Church and were recommended to the new Second Church which was closer to their home. Finally, on 2 Mar. 1749/50 James Wilson sold his rights in the common and undivided land of the town of Killingly, this is the last record of him we have found.

In 1785 the Second Parish of Killingly was set off as the new town of Thompson, thus for several generations we find the records of this family maintained in the towns of Killingly and Thompson and in the Putnam and the Thompson Churches. There is an area in Thompson known as Wilsonville, we find no connection between this name and the descendants of James Wilson, it was named after a unrelated family, also named Wilson, which at a much later time was active in the establishment of textile mills in this area.

Children of James Wilson by his first wife, Deborah (Pierce):

3-19 i. Daughter, died at Woburn (VR) in 1688.

3-20 ii. DEBORAH, born at Woburn (VR) 27 Feb. 1690, baptized at Cambridge Farms in August of 1699. She married at Andover, MA (VR) 10 Apr. 1710 HEZEKIAH RUSS. They had seven (Russ) children; Deborah 1710, Margaret 1714, Abigail 1718, John 1720, Hezekiah 1723, Jonathan 1726 and Meriam in 1732.

3-21 iii. ABIGAIL, born in Woburn (VR) 8 Feb. 1692, baptized at Cambridge Farms in August of 1699, died at Putnam 30 Aug. 1730. She married at Killingly in the First Parish (Putnam) Church 9 Nov. 1720 Capt. JACOB CUMMINGS who was born at Woburn on 3 Jan. 1693, son of Abraham and Sarah (Wright) Cummings. They had five (Cummings) children; Abigail 1722, Sarah 1723, James 1726, Martha 1727 and Mary born 1729. (B. F. Cummings, Cummings Memorial [190-] p. 25)

3-22+ iv. JAMES, born at Cambridge Farms circa 1694, baptized there in August of 1699.

3-23 v. Child, died at Cambridge Farms (VR) in 1696.

3-24+ vi. EBENEZER, born at Cambridge Farms circa 1699, baptized there 15 Oct. 1699, died at Woodstock, CT (VR) 27 Oct. 1785.

3-25+ vii. JOHN, born at Cambridge Farms about 1702, baptized there 17 Sept. 1704, died at Coventry, CT 28 July 1773 ae. 71 years.

3-26 viii. Child, died at Cambridge Farms (VR) 9 Dec. 1703, just five days before its mother.

Children of James Wilson by his second wife, Margaret (Russ) Peters, probably all born at Cambridge Farms where they were baptized, birth dates are recorded at Killingly:

3-27 ix. WILLIAM, born 18 Jan. 1704/5, baptized 27 May 1705, died at Killingly (VR) on 18 Mar. 1729.

3-28 x. MARGARET, born 21 Nov. 1706, baptized 24 Nov.

1706. She married in the First Parish (Putnam) Church, Killingly, on 13 Mar. 1725 JOHN LEE who was born at Watertown, MA about 1701, died at Vernon, VT in 1784, son of Samuel and Mary (-----) Lee. They had thirteen (Lee) children; Samuel 1726, Margaret 1728, Phebe 1730, John 1732, Job 1734, Simeon 1735, Jonathan 1737, James 1739, Jesse 1741, Hannah 1743, Benjamin 1746, Wilson and Sybil. (Orrin P. Allen, The Lee Family [1893] p. 4)

3-29 xi. HANNAH, born 12 July 1708, baptized 20 July 1708. She apparently did not marry, On 7 Apr. 1728 Hannah, daughter of James Wilson, joined the First Parish Church in Killingly. On 15 Sept. 1738 Hannah, with her parents James and Margaret Wilson, was dismissed to the Second Parish Church.

3-30+ xii. THOMAS, born 5 Mar. 1709/10, baptized 14 May 1710, died at Killingly on 5 Mar. 1776.

3-31 xiii. PHEBE, born 18 Jan. 1713, baptized 29 May 1713, died at Killingly (VR) 6 Aug. 1730.

3-32+ xiv. JONATHAN, born 29 Aug. 1714, baptized 31 Oct. 1714, died at Killingly in May of 1753.

J02-010 BENJAMIN WILSON (John) born at Woburn, MA (VR) 15 Oct. 1670, tenth of the eleven children of John and Hannah (James) Wilson. He died at Ashford, CT (VR) 11 July 1750 ae. 79 years, buried in Old Ashford Cemetery (GS) 30 July 1750 (sic!).

There is no record of his marriage to ELIZABETH ----- who survived her husband by over fifteen years and died at Ashford (VR) 11 Jan. 1766.

Some sources say that she was ELIZABETH RUSSELL, born at Woburn 19 Feb. 1672/3, daughter of John and Sarah (Champney) Russell. However, both John Russell Bartlett in Descendants of John Russell of Boston [1879] and Samuel Sewell in History of Woburn, Massachusetts [1868] state that she was the Elizabeth Pierce who died at Woburn 5 Jan. 1743 "in the 71st year of her age, her maiden name being Eliza Russell." In 1866, Ebenezer J. Ormsbee, quoting family records in Report to the Wilson Association, U. S. A., page 27, a frequently inaccurate source, stated that Benjamin married a FULLER. An extensive search in the various Fuller genealogies failed to uncover a suitable candidate for this marriage, it is conceivable that she was born in England and no record exists of her early residence in New England.

Benjamin and his brother Francis were among those who served under Capt. Samuel Gallup on the 1690 expedition to Canada. This detachment was a part of the overland expedition which travelled to Quebec via Albany and thereby escaped the disaster which overtook the forces under Sir William Phipps which sailed up the St. Lawrence River. (NEH&G Register, 13 [Apr. 1859]:133)

Benjamin did not prosper in his native town. The town meeting, held in Woburn 1 March 1696/7 voted: "Considering that Benja. Wilson, having mett with considerable losses, and is very poore, altho he is found very diligent in his place, shall goe rate free for this year, to all rates and taxes whatsoever." Despite this encouragement from his neighbors he left Woburn shortly thereafter as evidenced by a deed signed 30 Mar. 1697 whereby Benjamin Wilson "of Oburn" purchased forty acres of upland and swamp located on the east side of Palmer River in Rehoboth. (Bristol Deeds, 9:29)

In 1710 Benjamin added to his land in Rehoboth by purchasing the adjoining thirteen acres. In 1718 he joined with his neighbors and signed as number six on a list of those who bound themselves to an agreement that provided should the town vote £50. towards the expense of a meeting house in the Palmer River area the subscribers would clear the town of all further expense in relation to their enterprise.

On 5 Apr. 1733 Benjamin Wilson "of Rehoboth, yeoman, now residing in Ashford, Connecticut, for the consideration of the love, good will and affection he held to his son-in-law, Edward Carpenter and to his daughter Elizabeth, his wife," conveyed to them sixteen acres of land on the east side of the Palmer River in Rehoboth. (Bristol Deeds, 37:71)

As previously mentioned, Ebenezer J. Ormsbee of Brandon, Vermont, a son of Polly (J06-428) Wilson, who later became Governor of the State of Vermont, wrote; "Benjamin Wilson (the first) was born in England. [sic!] After emigrating to America he married a Fuller and had two sons and seven daughters. The daughters married:--Ruth a Jacob; Rebecca a Whiting; Elizabeth a Carpenter; Bethiah a Willmott; one a Cobb; one a Hallet and one a Franklin. The boys were Benjamin and Samuel....N. B.--Benjamin, the elder, had two brothers, one of whom was named Jonathan and was a lawyer."

It is difficult to verify this material, some of which is provably incorrect. The statement that Benjamin was born in England is discussed in detail in The Wilson Inheritance found in the appendix. There were five, not two sons. Ormsbee seems to have his generations mixed, the son

Jonathan is said to be a brother, the marriage to a Franklin appears to apply to Benjamin's sister Ruth while the marriage to a Fuller may refer to the second marriage of his mother Hannah. We can find no record of marriages to Hallet and Cobb.

Children of Benjamin and Elizabeth (-----) Wilson, the first two births recorded at Woburn, the others at Rehoboth:

3-33 i. JOHN, born 9 Jan. 1694, died at Rehoboth (VR) 27 Jan. 1706/7.

3-34+ ii. BENJAMIN, born 21 Nov. 1695.

3-35+ iii. JONATHAN, born 8 Dec. 1698, died at Newport, RI 2 Sept. 1729.

3-36 iv. REBECCA, born 20 Jan. 1701, died at Ashford (GS) 17 Mar. 1776 ae. 75 years. Her marriage intention, to JOSEPH WHITON, as his second wife, was recorded at Rehoboth on 9 Apr. 1720. He was born at Hingham, MA 23 Mar. 1686/7, died at Ashford 8 May 1777, son of James and Abigail (Rickard) Whiton. This man showed a high regard for Rebecca who was fourteen years his junior. A stipulation in his will, which was the opposite of provisions in many wills made at that time, provided that should the widow Rebecca remarry she was to receive the benefit of £100. in addition to her regular share of his estate. They had seven (Whiton) children, some of whom subsequently spelled the name WHITING; Joseph 1722, Rebecca 1726, Elizabeth 1729, Huldah 1733, James 1736, Wilson 1740 and Alice born 1742. (Augustus F. Whiton, The Whiton Family in America [1932] p. 29)

They had six (Carpenter) children; Benjamin 172, Edward 1727, Lucinda 1737, Comfort 1739, Caleb 1742 and Beloved born 1744. (Amos B. Carpenter, The Rehoboth Branch of the Car- penter Family [1898] p. 74) Benjamin, the oldest son, had a distinguished career, his gravestone in Guilford, VT is inscribed: "Hon. Benjamin Carpenter, Esq., born in Rehoboth, Mass. A.D. 1726, a magistrate in Rhode Island A.D. 1764, removed to this town A.D. 1770, was a field officer in the Revolutionary War, a founder of the first constitution and government of Vermont, a councilor of censors A.D. 1783, a member of the council and Lieutenant Governor of the state in A.D. 1779, left this world and 146 persons of lineal posterity March 29, 1804 aged 78 years, 10 months and 12 days."

On 6 Jan. 1739 Benjamin and Elizabeth Wilson conveyed to Joseph Jacob of Hingham forty-two acres of land in Rehoboth with buildings thereon standing, adjoining land of his son Benjamin Wilson and land of his daughter Elizabeth Carpenter. (Bristol Deeds, 26:288) Ruth and her husband apparently settled on this land, their fourth child was recorded in Rehoboth. Children (Jacob), the first three born at Hingham; Ruth 1733, Mary 1734/5, Ruth 1736/7 and Lydia born in 1739.

3-42 x. BETHIAH, born 4 Dec. 1711, died at Dighton, MA in October of 1776. She married at Rehoboth (VR) on 5 May 1731 JOHN BEVERLY who was born at Ipswich, MA, son of Lenox and Mary (Farrow) Beverly. He died at Rehoboth 2 Sept. 1731, four months after his marriage. Bethiah married second at Rehoboth (VR) 18 Apr. 1733 DANIEL WILMARTH who was born there 5 Nov. 1709, son of Nathaniel and Mary (Perry) Wilmarth. They had four (Wilmarth) children; Nathaniel 1734, David 1735, Mary 1738 and Daniel born 1750. Her will, dated 13 Sept. 1776 mentions only her sons David and Daniel. (Bristol Probate Court Records, 24:279)

They resided at Rehoboth and Portsmouth in Rhode Island, the Oblong in New York and finally in Shaftsbury where he was one of the founders. Ernest B. Cole, on page 50 of The Descendants of James Cole of Plymouth, Massachusetts [1908] says that Ebenezer was a Tory at the start of the Revolutionary War and his son David accepted a commission as Captain in the British army. This resulted in Ebenezer Cole being requested to leave the town he had helped to found. Under the pressure of his peers he soon changed his sentiment, by the end of the war three of his sons, including David, had actively served in the Shaftsbury company of militia. They had five (Cole) children; Freegift 1743, Parker 1746, David 1749, Benjamin 1750, and finally Priscilla born 1754.

End of second generation.

THIRD GENERATION

J03-001 JOHN WILSON (John, John) born at Woburn, MA (VR) 3 Jan. 1672/3, eldest of the eleven children of Lt. John and Joanna (Carter) Wilson. As an infant John accompanied his parents to Billerica, MA, where he apparently spent the remainder of his lifetime.

He married in Billerica (VR) 27 Nov. 1694 ELIZABETH FOSTER who was born there 7 Oct. 1673, daughter of Dea. Joseph and Alice (Gorton) Foster. (Frederick C. Pierce, Foster Genealogy [1899] p. 500)

Generally known as John Wilson, Jr. he had frequent land transactions in Billerica. Aside from these and the records of his children's births we find surprisingly little information on this man. His father passed over the eldest son and deeded the family mills to his younger sons Francis and Samuel, possibly John had already received a comfortable inheritance. His maternal grandfather, Joseph Carter, in his will dated 30 Dec. 1676 bequeathed one-half of a four acre lot in Woburn to his grandson, John Wilson. Of greater value was the bequest from his father-in-law Dea. Joseph Foster whose will dated 26 July 1721 gave "to my daughter, Elizabeth Wilson, the homestead that I had of Dr. John Kittridge where Thomas Foster now lives, and I do further give unto her my Nuttings meadow with all the land that I have upon Bear Hill on the west side of the country road." He added, "What I give to my daughter Wilson shall be wholly at her disposal during her life and she shall have the liberty of disposing of it for the comfort of her life." (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 4020 and 8227)

J03-009 FRANCIS WILSON (John, John) born about 1690, probably in that part of Billerica, MA which in 1729 was set-off as the new town of Bedford, ninth of the eleven children of John and Joanna (Carter) Wilson. He died at Bedford, probably early in April of 1765.

Aside from the listing of the births of their children the vital records contain no mention of either Francis or of his wife PATIENCE ----- who apparently died before him, she is not mentioned in his probate.

His uncle, Francis (J02-006) Wilson in 1723 listed in his will; "I give to my cousin Francis Wilson, son of my brother John Wilson of Billerica in said province, the sum of ten pounds, money." (Bristol Probate Court Records Vol.

4) On 23 Feb. 1729/30 his father and step-mother deeded to Francis and his brother Samuel each a one-half interest in the homestead and in the family mills in Bedford. (Middlesex Deeds, 65:543)

Francis died intestate, his probate dated 16 Apr. 1765 terms him weaver, of Bedford and gives administration on the estate to his daughter, Sarah Hartwell, widow of Bedford, with surety posted by Hugh Maxwell, gentleman of Bedford and by James Cooper, saddler of Cambridge. Francis owned four acres by the road to Woburn, twelve acres of river and swamp meadow, fifty-five acres of woodland south of the mill pond and one-half of the grist mill and one-half of the sawmill. The division of his estate on 2 Oct. 1767 gave the real estate to Joanna Wilson and Rebecca Wilson, children of the deceased, cash to his daughters Sarah and Mary and to the widow of his deceased son James. This settlement was accepted by Mary Appleton, Betty Fiske and Hugh Maxwell, guardian to James Wilson, son of the deceased son James. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25134)

Children of Francis and Patience (-----) Wilson, the first four births recorded at Billerica:

4-14 i. SARAH, born 20 Feb. 1712, died at the home of her son William in Charlemont, MA on 12 July 1795. She married at Bedford (VR) 13 June 1734 DANIEL HARTWELL born probably at Concord, MA 20 Mar. 1709, died at Charlemont 2 July 1745, son of William and Ruth (Webber) Hartwell. Daniel and Sarah had six (Hartwell) children; Daniel 1735, Sarah 1736, Solomon 1739, Francis 1741, William 1743 and Elizabeth (posthumous) born 20 Oct. 1745. (John F. Hartwell, The Hartwells of America [1958] 2:4)

4-15+ ii. FRANCIS, born 2 Apr. 1714.

4-16 iii. JAMES, born 3 May 1716, died at Billerica (VR) 10 June 1718.

4-17+ iv. JAMES, born 8 June 1718, died at Bedford 24 June 1753.

4-18 v. ELIZABETH (Betty), born circa 1726, died at Lexington, MA (VR) 14 Dec. 1770. She married at Boston (VR) 27 July 1748, as his second wife, her brother-in-law, Dr. ROBERT FISKE, Jr. who was born at Lexington 12 Jan. 1721/2, died there about 1765, son of Dr. Robert and Mary (Stimpson) Fiske, a brother of Lydia Fiske who married her brother

James. They had five (Fiske) children; David, Robert, Betty, Ruth and John. (Frederick C. Peirce, Fisk and Fiske Families [1896] p. 163)

4-19 vi. MARY, born circa 1727. Her marriage intention to JOSHUA APPLETON was recorded at Newport, RI on 8 Nov. 1748.

4-20 vii. JOANNA, born circa 1730, living, unmarried in 1767.

4-21 viii. REBECCA, born at Woburn, MA (VR) 7 May 1733, died at Bedford 27 Mar. 1789 ae. 55 years, 10 months and 19 days. She inherited a one-fourth interest in the mills at Bedford, for many years she was closely associated with William Maxwell who gradually acquired the remaining three-fourths. However, in 1777 reputedly to help finance the Revolutionary War, she sold her share to Oliver Bacon, thus ending family involvement in an enterprise which had been started by her grandfather. (Middlesex Deeds, 84:66) Under various owners the mills remained in operation for many years, Abram E. Brown, on page 40 of his History of Bedford, Massachusetts notes that the paper mill on this site burned about 1850.

J03-011 SAMUEL WILSON (John, John) born about 1695, probably in that part of Billerica, MA which in 1729 was set-off as a portion of the new town of Bedford, youngest of the eleven children of John and Joanna (Carter) Wilson. There is no record of his birth, his marriage or his death, his probate file indicates that he died at Bedford in the spring of 1747.

From the birth records of the children and the probate of Samuel we learn that he married SARAH ----- who survived him and died at Woburn in October, 1775.

On 23 Feb. 1729/30 his father and step-mother deeded to Samuel and his brother Francis each a one-half interest in the homestead and in the family mills located in Bedford. (Middlesex Deeds, 65:543) This property was located very close to the town line, the records of Samuel's family, such as they are, are scattered between Woburn, Billerica and later Bedford.

Samuel died intestate, administration on his estate was given to Joseph Wilson, husbandman, of Bedford on 1 June 1747 with surety posted by Ebenezer Johnson and William Johnson. The heirs were listed as Sarah Wilson, widow;

Joseph Wilson, eldest son; Sarah, wife of Benjamin Simonds, daughter; and Ebenezer Wilson, Timothy Wilson, Jonathan Wilson and Abigail Wilson, children. On 19 June 1749 guardianship for Abigail Wilson, a minor in her 19th year, daughter of Samuel Wilson, late of Bedford, deceased, was given to Oliver Farmer of Billerica with surety posted by Joseph Johnson of Woburn. Three days later guardianship was given to Joseph Johnson for her brother, Jonathan Wilson, a minor in his 16th year, surety by Oliver Farmer. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 25180, 81 and 82)

In the settlement of the estate Sarah received her widow's third of her husband's half interest in the mills. She sold them in 1768 to John Eaton. (Middlesex Deeds, 72:360)

On 8 Mar. 1776 Timothy Wilson of Bedford was given administration on the estate of Sarah Wilson, widow, late of Woburn, deceased, intestate. He provided surety by David Winn, cooper of Woburn and James Wilson, joiner of Bedford. The inventory of her estate showed notes due to Joseph Wilson and notes due from Jonathan Wilson and Timothy Wilson. A matter of speculation is a voucher signed by Jonathan Wilson "for what I did for the widow Sarah Wilson, to five years house rent and for fire wood for four of them, vitals and drink at £3. a year, also £11. for nursing and burying the widow." Who was this Jonathan Wilson, her son Jonathan had been killed six months before the widow's death, her grandsons with the name Jonathan Wilson were both in their teens. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25193)

Children of Samuel and Sarah (-----) Wilson:

4-22 i. SAMUEL, born at Billerica (VR) 30 Sept. 1718, died at Bedford (VR) 21 June 1740.

4-23+ ii. JOSEPH, born at Billerica (VR) 22 June 1721, died at Bedford in 1763.

4-24 iii. SARAH, born at Billerica (VR) 2 Nov. 1723, died at Woburn (VR) 25 Feb. 1746. She married at Bedford (VR) 11 June 1744 BENJAMIN SIMONDS who was born at Woburn 1 June 1724, son of Benjamin and Abigail (Wood) Simonds. They had a daughter, Rebecca Simonds born at Woburn 17 May 1745.

4-25+ iv. EBENEZER, born at Billerica (VR) 16 Jan. 1725/6, died at Bedford 9 Mar. 1751.

4-26+ v. TIMOTHY, born at Bedford (VR) 4 Sept. 1728, died at Woburn 13 Mar. 1785.

4-27 vi. ABIGAIL, born at Bedford (VR) 12 Mar. 1731. She married at Woburn (VR) 29 Oct. 1754 WILLIAM PRENTICE of Sutton, MA.

4-28+ vii. JONATHAN, born about 1733, killed fighting the British at Lexington on 19 Apr. 1775.

J03-017 SAMUEL WILSON (Samuel, John) born at Woburn, MA 21 Nov. 1695, sixth of the seven children and only son to survive infancy of Samuel and Elizabeth (Peirce) Wilson. He died in that part of Woburn which in 1797 was set-off as the new town of Burlington (VR) on 11 Oct. 1750 (GS).

He married at Woburn (VR) 29 Oct. 1719 SARAH SIMONDS who was born at Woburn (VR) 13 Dec. 1694, daughter of James and Susanna (Blodgett) Simonds. Sarah married second, at Woburn (VR) on 19 Feb. 1755, as his third wife, Dea. EDWARD JOHNSON who was born there 4 May 1689, died 5 Oct. 1774, son of Capt. Edward and Sarah (Walker) Johnson. This second marriage cemented relationships within this family, two of Edward Johnson's children had previously married children of Sarah. Sarah (Simonds) (Wilson) Johnson died 12 Mar. 1775. (Herbert B. Johnson, One Line of Descent from Capt. Edward Johnson of Woburn [1898] p. 6)

On 17 Dec. 1729 Hugh Jones of Woburn conveyed to his brother-in-law, Samuel Wilson land in that section of Woburn which shortly thereafter became the new town of Wilmington. There is nothing to show that Samuel ever resided in that town. He is easily confused with his cousin, Samuel (J03-011) who was of the same age, resided in the same area and also married a woman named Sarah. Further, both had a close relationship with the Johnson family.

Samuel Wilson died intestate, his probate dated 25 Nov. 1750 gives administration to Sarah Wilson, widow, with surety by James Haywood and James Proctor. Heirs were listed as daughter Sarah, daughter Susanna, daughter Ruth and youngest daughter, Rebecca. Settlement of the estate was not completed until 7 May 1777 when distribution was made to Archelaus and Supply Wilson, two grandsons of the deceased, the eldest grandchild, Samuel Wilson, being non-compas. This settlement was approved by Azel Johnson and his wife Rebecca, Jonathan Johnson and his wife Sarah, James Haywood and his wife Susanna and by Ruth Proctor. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25185-6)

Children of Samuel and Sarah (Simonds) Wilson, all births recorded at Woburn:

4-30 ii. SARAH, born 13 July 1722, died at Burlington, MA 20 Oct. 1805 ae. 83 years. She married at Woburn, intention filed 12 Sept. 1748 JONATHAN JOHNSON who was born there (VR) 13 June 1720, died there (VR) 30 Nov. 1793 ae. 73 years, 5 months, son of her soon to be step-father, Dea. Edward Johnson and his first wife Rebecca (Reed). They had six (Johnson) children born at Woburn; Jonathan 1751, Jotham 1753, Sarah 1756, Sarah 1759, Lucy 1761 and Ichabod born in 1764. (Edward F. Johnson, Capt. Edward Johnson of Woburn, Massachusetts and Some of His Descendants [1905] p. 24)

4-31 iii. SUSANNA, born 28 Mar. 1725, died at Brownfield, ME 27 Aug. 1816 ae. 94 years. She married at Boston, MA (VR) 9 Oct. 1741 JAMES HAYWARD who was born at Woburn 24 Aug. 1718, died at Brownfield 20 Dec. 1803, son of James and Elizabeth (Wallis) Hayward. This name was spelled HAYWARD in Massachusetts but is spelled HOWARD in Maine. (Rebecca A. Swett, Swett-Allen and Allied Lines [1978] p. 81) They had eight (Hayward) children recorded at Woburn; Susanna 1742, James 1744, Samuel 1747, Sarah 1750, Lemuel 1752, Benjamin 1755, Wilson 1756 and Joseph born in 1758. Samuel Hayward is said to have participated in the Boston Tea Party in 1773, there is no indication as to whether this is what caused the family to change their name and move to Maine.

4-32 iv. RUTH, born 26 Mar. 1729. She filed her intention to marry JONATHAN PROCTOR at Woburn on 20 Feb. 1747. He was born there 22 Apr. 1724, died at Boston 1 May 1791 ae. 68 years, son of James and Judith (Nichols) Proctor. They are reported to have had a daughter Betsey Proctor who was born 31 Oct. 1764, married Amos Taylor of Burlington, MA and lived over 100 years!

4-33 v. REBECCA, born 15 Mar. 1732, died at Woburn (VR) 31 Oct. 1734. She is said to have been the first person buried in the First Precinct (Burlington) Burying Ground.

4-34 vi. REBECCA, born 27 July 1734, baptized 26 Dec. 1736 in the First Precinct (Burlington) Church. She married at Woburn (VR) 13 Oct. 1757 AZEL JOHNSON who was born there (VR) 9 July 1732, son of Benjamin Johnson and his first wife, Mary (Walker). His sister Judith Johnson married David (J05-004) Wilson. They had eight (Johnson) children recorded at Woburn and Chesterfield, NH; Rebecca 1758, Benjamin 1760, Azel 1762, Amy 1763?, Joel 1769, Jonas 1772, Sarah 1774, and Nathan born 1776. (Edward F. Johnson, op. cit., p. 24)

J03-022 Dea. JAMES WILSON (James, John) born circa 1694, probably at Cambridge Farms (now Lexington), MA where he and his two sisters were baptized in August of 1699, fourth child and first son of James and Deborah (Pierce) Wilson. He lived to be about 90 years of age, the last record of him we have found is 21 Sept. 1784 when he deeded land in Stockbridge, MA to "my daughter, Abigail Hartwell, widow." (Berkshire Deeds, 17:444)

He married at Killingly, CT in the First Parish (Putnam) Church on 27 Nov. 1718 MEHITABLE LEAVENS who was born at Woodstock, CT on 3 Feb. 1696, daughter of John and Hannah (Wood) Leavens. (Philo F. Leavens, The Leavens Name [1903] p. 21) We find no record of Mehitable's death, her name last appears in 1754 when she endorsed a deed to release her dower rights in land in Spencer.

"James Wilson, Jr. was one of the first, if not the first settler in Leicester, he was there as early as 1714 when he settled on lot No. 10, thirty acres on the Charlton road about one-half mile from the meeting house. However in the spring of 1719 both James and his wife were active in the Putnam church where Mehitable, wife of James was admitted to membership in April. In May James, Jr. renewed his covenant and on the same day their first son was baptized. Other sons were baptized there in 1723, 1727, 1730 and 1731, it is interesting to speculate why there is no record of baptisms for his daughters." (Emery Washburn, History of Leicester, Massachusetts [1860] p. 409) The reason for their activity in the Putnam church was the absence of a minister in Leicester. On 13 Jan. 1720/1 James Wilson was listed as one of the residents who had agreed to supplement the salary of a minister if he would settle in Leicester. He was selectman there in 1730 and was Deacon in Rev. Mr. Fiske's Church.

On 7 Dec. 1744 James Wilson of Leicester, gentleman, for the consideration of parental love and affection deeded to his eldest son, James Wilson of Leicester, husbandman, 27 acres of land in the westerly part of Leicester, one corner being just below the sawmill dam. On the same date he deeded, for the same consideration, to his son Joseph Wilson of Leicester, husbandman, 60 acres bounded on the east by the dividing line between the east and west precinct of Leicester and bounded west by the grantor's own land. This deed establishes that Dea. James Wilson's land was in the west precinct of Leicester, the part which in 1775 was incorporated as the new town of Spencer. The fact that he resided on this land is shown by a conveyance dated 31 Jan. 1754 whereby James Wilson of Spencer district, gentlemen, sold to Ephraim Brown of Weston, MA two pieces of land in Spencer district, one being 42 acres with dwelling house and barn bounded northerly by the land given to his son James and easterly by land he sold to his son-in-law Joshua Whitney, the second being 14 acres bounded easterly on land given to his son Joseph. This last deed covers the sale of his homestead in Spencer, it is the last conveyance bearing his name, his wife Mehitable signed by her mark to relinquish her dower rights. (Worcester Deeds, 21:204, 34:324 and 57:244)

He was termed "gentleman of Leicester" in a deed dated 28 Sept. 1757 covering the purchase of land in Stockbridge, he apparently settled in the Berkshires shortly thereafter, he was a member of the Stockbridge church in 1758. He had many land transactions in that area some of the deeds covering purchases directly from the Indians. The name of the wife Mehitable does not appear in Berkshire county.

He married first, possibly at Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ, sometime after 1718 ELIZABETH -----. One unverified account gives her family name as ROSS. Elizabeth died at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 10 July 1731, probably from complications in the birth of her son Nathaniel.

Benjamin married second, at Rehoboth probably on 15 Dec. 1731, possibly 15 Dec. 1732, ELIZABETH (SPRAGUE) DOYLE who was born at Hingham, MA 15 Aug. 1704, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Fearing) Sprague and widow of Bartholomew Doyle of Hingham. Benjamin was an infant when his parents removed from Woburn to Rehoboth. The first record of him there is a conveyance dated 19 Apr. 1717 whereby Benjamin Wilson, Sr. of Rehoboth, yeoman, "for love and tender affection and for sixty pounds towards his portion" sold to his eldest

By his deed of 9 Mar. 1726/7 Benjamin Wilson of Rehoboth, "for love and goodwill I do bear unto my beloved son, Benjamin Wilson of Woodbridge, NJ, carpenter," conveyed one-half of his land and housing in Rehoboth. Five days later Benjamin Wilson of Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ accepted his father's deed and in return quitclaimed any further inheritance. Junior was back in Rehoboth in September 1730 when he and his father completed a series of transactions whereby, in return for a lifetime lease on the east end of the house "being the old end," Benjamin Jr. received title to much of his father's land. He was in Attleborough in December 1735, was residing in Rehoboth in November 1739 but was back in Attleborough in June of 1742. The last record we have found of him is on 9 Nov. 1772 when Benjamin and Elizabeth his wife sold to Jonathan Wilson "my farm whereon I now dwell with buildings thereon standing." He is variously called carpenter and housewright, his trade apparently accounts for his several changes of residence. (Bristol Deeds; 16:321; 17:280, 282; 19:433, 435, 559; 25:301; 31:233 and 57:108)

It must be noted that the dates, given on page 263 of Volume 2 of the Rehoboth Town Records, for Benjamin's second marriage and for the birth of his son Nathaniel are incorrect as to the year in which they occurred. They were added into the record and certified by James Blanding who was first elected Town Clerk of Rehoboth at the town meeting held in March of 1812, almost a century after the events he recorded. The Town Clerk was a nephew of Lucy Blanding who married Benjamin's son Jonathan Wilson. We believe that it was Jonathan who instigated these delayed entries, the phrase that Benjamin was "from England" is highly significant. For an explanation of his motives, see The Wilson Fortune in the appendix.

In 1866 Ebenezer J. Ormsbee, son of Benjamin's great-granddaughter Mary (J06-428), listed the family records as they were known to him. "Benjamin married a Roff, in New Jersey:-- his sons by his first wife: Joseph, Moses and Francis,-- Benjamin married for his second wife, widow Elizabeth Darril, whose maiden name was Sprague; by whom he had seven sons and one daughter--the sons of Benjamin, by his second wife, were Nathaniel, John, Lucas, Ami, Benjamin, Jonathan and Ezekiel. (H. O. Smith, Report to the Wilson Association, U. S. A. p. 21) There is absolutely nothing in Rehoboth to verify the existence of the three sons which Ormsbee's record credits to the first wife.

Children of Benjamin Wilson by his first wife, Elizabeth (Ross?):

4-81 i. SARAH, born at Rehoboth (VR) 23 Feb. 1729/30. When her mother died Sarah apparently went to live with her grandparents and accompanied them when they moved to Ashford, CT. The records there show Sarah Wilson married 18 Mar. 1746/47 JAMES COMINS of Willington, CT who was born at Oxford, MA (VR) on 6 Mar. 1726, son of James and Sarah (Jennings) Comins. They had the births of seven (Comins) children recorded at Willington; Francis 1747, Priscilla 1749/50, James 1751/2, Isabel 1755, "Katherrion" 1757, Alexander 1760 and Jerusha born 1762. Soon after the birth of their youngest child the family removed to Putney, Vermont where Sarah was joined by three of her half-brothers, Lucas, Benjamin and Ezekiel as well as her half-sister, Chloe Turner. After the Revolutionary war Comins moved to Pittstown, Rensselaer Co., NY where they were listed in the 1790 census, by 1794 they were in Fairfield, Herkimer Co., NY, last noted there when they sold land 2 Apr. 1802.

4-82+ ii. NATHANIEL, born at Rehoboth probably on 10 June 1731, a month before his mother's death, died at West Stockbridge, MA (GS) 21 Apr. 1821, in his 89th year. Although Ormsbee and other sources list Nathaniel as a son of the second wife all evidence indicates that he was a son of the first Elizabeth. If his gravestone is correct he as born between 22 Apr. 1731 and 20 Apr. 1732, within nine months of the death of the first wife, too soon to be the result of the second marriage. More important, if Nathaniel was the child of the second Elizabeth she conscientiously recorded with the town clerk the birth of each of her other children while ignoring the birth of her first-born Wilson child, a most unlikely scenario.

Children of Benjamin Wilson by his second wife, Elizabeth (Sprague)(Doyle), all births recorded at Rehoboth:

4-83+ iii. JOHN, born 29 Oct. 1733, died at Rehoboth in October 1826.

4-84+ iv. LUCAS, born 10 Aug. 1735, died at Putney, VT in 1818.

4-85+ v. AMMI, born 26 Apr. 1737, died at Windsor, VT in August 1812.

4-86+ vi. BENJAMIN, born 11 Apr. 1739.

4-87+ vii. JONATHAN, born 7 Apr. 1741, died at Shoreham, VT 9 Apr. 1830.

4-88+ viii. EZEKIEL, born 11 May 1744, died at Putney, VT 6 June 1830.

4-89 ix. CHLOE, born 23 June 1746. She married at Rehoboth (VR) on 23 May 1771 THOMAS TURNER, Jr. who was born there (VR) 2 Dec. 1747, son of Thomas and Hannah (Wheaton) Turner, a brother of Sarah Turner who married Chloe's brother Ezekiel. His paternal grandmother, Sarah Howard, and his aunt, Jemima (J04-082) Wilson are both listed as descendants of James Chilton, a MAYFLOWER passenger. (Mayflower Ancestral Index [1981] Nos. 18,236 and 35,973) They removed to Putney where Thomas is listed in the 1791 census heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years, one male under 16 years and two females. The last record of them is a conveyance dated 6 Apr. 1801 whereby Thomas Turner sold to Asa Fuller of Rehoboth the eastern half of lot No. 6 in the twelfth range in Putney. The deed was endorsed by Chloe Turner and was witnessed by Lucas Wilson. (Putney Deeds, 4:17)

J03-035 JONATHAN WILSON (Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 8 Dec. 1698, third of the twelve children of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Fuller?) Wilson. He 2 Sept. 1729, ae. 30 years, buried in Common Burial Ground, Newport, RI.

He married, intention filed at Rehoboth 20 Mar. 1723/24, a widow HANNAH (HAILE) CARR, born at Swansea, MA 8 May 1690, daughter of Richard and Mary (Bullock) Haile and widow of Robert Carr who died at Swansea in 1722. She married third, intention recorded at Rehoboth (VR) 3 Oct. 1730, as his second wife, Capt. SAMUEL LITTLE of Bristol. Her fourth marriage, in 1739 was to JONAS BYLES while her fifth, at Swansea on 21 Feb. 1744/5, was to JOHN WHEATON. (Otis P. Wright, History of Swansea, Massachusetts [1917] p. 165) Hannah's final marriage, which is not listed by Wright, is proven by Bristol County Probate Court Records, 11:136, which refers to Hannah Wheaton, late widow and administrix on the estate of Mr. Samuel Little, late of Swansea, deceased.

Francis Wilson of Rehoboth signed his will 25 June 1723 leaving a bequest to "my cousin (sic!) Jonathan Wilson who now dwelleth with me, who is the son of my brother Benjamin Wilson and to his heirs and assignees forever, I give all my estate, both real and personal, viz: my housing and land, servants and cattle that I be possessed of in my own right at the time of my decease...(excepting several specific bequests)...and I do likewise constitute and ordain and appoint my said cousin, Jonathan Wilson, to be by sole and only executor of this my last will and testament." This was a handsome estate, valued at almost £1500. which included several negro slaves. (Bristol County Probate Court Records, Vol. 4) The Bristol County Deeds indicate that Jonathan removed from Rehoboth to Newport about 1725.

Jonathan Wilson, of Newport, yeoman, signed his will there on 9 Dec. 1726, it was proven 18 Sept. 1729. His wife, Hannah Wilson, later Hannah Little, was named to be executor, his daughter Sarah was to receive a legacy of £1000. when she reached the age of 18 years and smaller legacies were left to his wife's children, Mary Carr, Robert Carr, Hannah Carr and Caleb Carr. If testator were to die without a son the remainder of his estate was to go to the oldest son of his brother Benjamin with bequests for any surviving brothers and sisters. (Bristol County Probate Court Records, 6:198, 6:325 and 9:134) On 26 Sept. 1730 Hannah Wilson, widow and executrix of Jonathan Wilson, late of Newport, deceased, petitioned the General Court of Massachusetts requesting authority to sell his real estate located in that province stating that the deceased left a son born since the making of his will. The request was approved with the stipulation that the distribution was to be £503, a double share to the only son, £251.10.0 for the daughters share and £251.10.0 for the widows share, the other £40 for the legacies to the deceased's children-in-law, said amounts were to be pro-rated in the event they did not equal the appraisal. (Acts and Resolves of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, 11:503) It appears that the sums mentioned applied only to the portion of the estate located in Massachusetts and did not include the assets in Rhode Island.

Children of Jonathan and Hannah (Haile)(Carr) Wilson:

4-90 i. SARAH, born probably at Rehoboth about 1725. She married at Swansea (VR) 13 Aug. 1754, as his second wife, TIMOTHY O'BRIEN. She died sometime before June 1765 when her husband remarried.

4-91+ ii. JONATHAN, born at Rehoboth (VR) 22 Jan. 1729, a posthumous child.

He married first at Billerica (VR) on 26 Nov. 1722 JEMIMA SHED who was born there 18 Jan. 1698/9, youngest of the ten children of Ens. John and Sarah (Chamberlain) Shed. This marriage record calls him "John Wilson, tertius," his grandfather, Lt. John (J02-001) Wilson was still living. (Frank E. Shed, Daniel Shed Genealogy, [1921] p. 53) Jemima died at Billerica (VR) 14 Sept. 1740.

John married second at Billerica (VR) in June of 1742 a widow, MARY (SHED) CHAMBERLAIN, a cousin of his first wife, born at Billerica 22 June 1697, daughter of Nathan and Mary (French) Shed and widow of Abraham Chamberlain who died at Billerica prior to Christmas day 1739. To prove this relationship George W. Chamberlain, on page 119 of the 1911 issue of Reports of the Chamberlain Association of America cites a conveyance whereby Abraham Chamberlain and his wife Mary, on 11 Apr. 1732 transferred land in Billerica to his father-in-law Nathan Shed. (Middlesex Land Records, 37:645) Mary (Shed)(Chamberlain) Wilson died at Billerica on 31 Mar. 1747.

John was a bricklayer by trade who resided for his entire lifetime in Billerica. He is probably the man of this name who served in Col. Tyng's company during the campaign of 1724.

He married, probably at Groton, MA about 1732, SARAH ----- who died at Shirley on 30 Dec. 1762, six weeks after she had transferred her church membership from Groton.

Joseph was residing in Billerica when his maternal grandfather, Dea. Joseph Foster, made his will. He bequeathed to his grandson Joseph Wilson "my young hors...my gun that he trains with...and my lot at the great swampe...also an ox and a syth and sickel and a cow, the last one that is left, and I give him my new bridle and my old saddle if he sees good to accept it." (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 8227)

Joseph Wilson was one of the earliest settlers in that part of Groton which in 1753 was to become Shirley. As early as 1729 he held the deed to a ten acre right in the northern part of the town, just west of the great Holden grant. He was in Shirley as early as 1731 and by 1734 had built a dwelling house on his lot. Obadiah Sawtelle, whose son had married Joseph's sister Joanna, owned the adjoining lot. Joseph and his wife Sarah were received into full communion with the church at Groton 3 May 1733. On 1 Mar. 1747 he was one of those who signed the petition to the General Court which resulted in the establishment of Shirley as a separate town. She married first at Billerica (VR) 28 Aug. 1788 ISAAC SPRAKE who was born there (VR) 10 Nov. 1762, died 31 Mar. 1799 son of Samuel and Judith (Pollard) Sprake. They had six (Sprake) children; Mary (Polly) 1789, Isaac 1791, Rhoda 1792, Isaac 1794, Silence 1796 and Solomon born 1797. Rhoda married second, intention recorded at Carlisle 30 May 1801, as his second wife, ABIJAH HODGMAN who died there (GS) 5 June 1825.

5-42+ x. SETH, born 13 Aug. 1768, died at Charlestown, MA in 1814.

J04-012 BENJAMIN WILSON (John, John, John) born at Billerica, MA (VR) 18 Sept. 1715, twelfth of the thirteen children of John and Elizabeth (Foster) Wilson. The Townsend records note that "Benjamin, husband to Bathsheba Wilson, aged about 60, deceased June 4, 1774."

He married first at Groton, MA (VR) 28 Sept. 1738 RUTH BUSH who was born there 31 Oct. 1719, a twin daughter of John and Ruth (Nutting) Bush. Ruth died at Groton (VR) 4 Nov. 1744, just nine days after the birth of her fourth child.

Benjamin's second marriage, also at Groton (VR) was on 26 Nov. 1747 to SARAH WHITNEY daughter of Cornelius and Sarah (Shepard) Whitney, born at Groton (VR) 8 June 1731/2. (Frederick C. Pierce, The Descendants of John Whitney [1895] p. 36) Sarah was fifteen years and five months of age when she became the step-mother of a girl who was almost nine years old. Soon after this marriage Benjamin and Sarah removed from Groton to Townsend where Sarah died (VR) 17 May 1771.

We have a copy of a letter written by Benjamin Wilson at Townsend on 15 June 1771 addressed to Messers Oliver & Ephraim Wilson at Sabesticook in the Eastward from which we quote in part;

> "Your mother fell into a weak condition some time ago & continued languishing & decaying near three Months and then departed this life on the 17th Day of May and left us to mourn her absence & now you will mourn with us & will pity your little Brothers & Sisters who need a Mother more than you."

For his third wife Benjamin married at Townsend (VR) 20 Aug. 1772 a widow, BATHSHEBA (MOORE) (WOODS) PETTS who was born at Oxford, MA 10 Feb. 1731/2, daughter of Collins and Bathsheba (Woods) Moore, widow of Ephraim Woods and widow of John Petts. (Joy F. Peach, NEXUS, Vol. 5 [Feb.-Mar. 1988]:15) Part of this relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 14 Sept. 1773 whereby Benjamin Wilson of Townsend, and Bathsheba his wife, along with other heirs, quitclaimed all interest in two pieces of land in Oxford, a part of the real estate of their father, Collins Moore of Oxford, deceased, and all the one-third set-off to his widow, their mother Bathsheba Moore, deceased. (Worcester Deeds, 73:28) Bathsheba survived her third husband, no record of her death has been found.

Descendants of Benjamin's son Oliver have written "Benjamin Wilson of Townsend raised a large family of sons, Benjamin, Joseph, Ephraim, John and Oliver. After the Revolutionary war the last four emigrated to Maine, which was then a part of Massachusetts, while Benjamin remained in Townsend. Ephraim settled in Winslow, John in Anson, Oliver in Norridgewock, that part which later became the town of Starks. Joseph, who was a bachelor, was in the Battle of Bunker Hill."

Benjamin died intestate. His probate dated 5 July 1774 terms him "yeoman of Townsend" and gave administration to his son Benjamin Wilson with surety posted by Isaac Wallis and Jonathan Dix. It mentions the widow Bathsheba and notes that the estate owed money to Oliver Wilson and to Beulah Wilson. On 24 Apr. 1776 Andrew Seath of Townsend was appointed guardian for John Wilson, a minor over fourteen years of age, son of Benjamin Wilson late of Townsend, deceased, with surety posted by Elijah Wyman. On 24 Aug. 1785 Andrew Sparks was appointed guardian for Reuben Wilson, a minor in his fifteenth year, son of Benjamin Wilson, late of Townsend, deceased with surety by Isaac Wallis and Israel Hobart. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 25124, 25125 and 25126)

[All of our information regarding the descendants of this Benjamin Wilson, unless otherwise attributed, comes from the five volume manuscript compiled by the late Margaret Alice Wilson (J09-153) of Chicago which after her death was typed and deposited with the Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Although we have abstracted the pertinent facts regarding descendants with the Wilson name, those interested in this branch of the family should consult this source for the details, color, incidents, and data on allied families which lack of space has prevented us from using.]

J04-015 FRANCIS WILSON (Francis, John, John) born at Billerica, MA (VR) 2 Apr. 1714, second of the eight children of Francis and Patience (-----) Wilson. There is a man of this name whose death on 22 Apr. 1760, age 46 years, is noted on his gravestone at the Rombout Presbyterian Church, Brinkerhoff, Fishkill, Dutchess County, NY. No connection has been established but it is significant that Robert Fiske, a nephew of Francis, is reported to have married in Dutchess County.

We have found no record of either a marriage or a wife for this man.

Probable child of Francis Wilson:

5-57+ i. Probably FRANCIS, born in Billerica about 1741. He is reluctantly placed here based solely upon the fact that his marriage record calls him Francis Wilson, Jr.

J04-017 JAMES WILSON (Francis, John, John) born at Billerica, MA (VR) 8 June 1718, fourth of the eight children of Francis and Patience (-----) Wilson. He died at Bedford, MA (VR) 24 June 1753.

He married LYDIA FISKE who was born at Lexington, MA 23 June 1724, daughter of Dr. Robert and Mary (Stimpson) Fiske and sister of Robert Fiske who in 1748 married James' younger sister Elizabeth. Lydia survived her husband and was living in 1767 when her father-in-law mentioned in his will the widow of his deceased son James. There is no record of either her marriage or her death. (Frederick C. Pierce, Fisk and Fiske Families [1896] p. 97)

On 17 Jan. 1743 Francis Wilson of Bedford, for love and affection, deeded to his son James Wilson of Bedford his homestead house with thirty acres of land, bounded westerly by land of Samuel Wilson. This deed was witnessed by William Maxwell and by David Wilson. (Middlesex Deeds, 51:298)

James signed his will at Bedford 20 June 1753, just four days before his death, it was witnessed by Joseph Wilson, Jonathan Wilson and Nathaniel Farmer. It was proven 20 Aug. 1753, the widow Lydia was appointed executrix and Benjamin Kidder and Joseph Wilson provided security. The widow received the real estate in Woburn, the daughters Lydia, Ruth, Mary and Martha received specific bequests and the son James received the real estate near the Woburn line in Bedford. None of these children were of legal age. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 25134 and 25140)

Children of James and Lydia (Fiske) Wilson, all births recorded at Bedford:

5-58 i. LYDIA, born 22 Apr. 1744.

5-59 ii. RUTH, born 6 Oct. 1745. She married at Chester, NH (VR) 30 Oct. 1776 CYRUS BALDWIN who was born at Woburn 5 Nov. 1740, drowned at Dunstable, NH 5 Nov. 1790, son of James and Ruth (Richardson) Baldwin. "He settled in Boston as a merchant until the Revolution when he removed and lived only a few years thereafter, no children. (Charles C. Baldwin, Baldwin Genealogy [1881] p. 620)

5-61 iv. MARTHA (Patty), born 30 Aug. 1750.

5-62+ v. JAMES, born 14 Dec. 1752, died at Bedford 30 Jan. 1826 ae. 73 yrs.

J04-023 JOSEPH WILSON (Samuel, John, John) born at Billerica, MA (VR) 22 June 1721, second of the seven children of Samuel and Sarah (-----) Wilson. He died at Bedford, MA in the spring of 1763.

He married at Bedford (VR) 18 June 1745 ELIZABETH PUTNAM who was born at Billerica (VR) 6 Sept. 1725, daughter of Seth and Ruth (Whipple) Putnam. There is no record of either a second marriage or the death of the widow, it is probable that she joined her siblings in No. 4 (now Charlestown), New Hampshire.

Joseph was termed husbandman, of Bedford in 1747 when he was administrator on the estate of his father and again in 1751 when he was administrator on his brother Ebenezer's estate. It appears that he died of wounds or illness contracted while on military service during the French and Indian War. At a town meeting held at Bedford in March of 1763 it was "VOTED, to abate Josiah Davis and Joseph Wilson of their town and highway taxes and to all others soldiers their highway rate." (Abram E. Brown, History of Bedford, Massachusetts [1891] p. 22)

He died intestate and insolvent. Administration on his estate was granted to the widow Elizabeth Wilson on 13 June 1763 with surety by Hugh Maxwell, gentleman and Jonathan Wilson, husbandman, both of Bedford. Joseph had owned two-thirds of a one-half interest in the grist and saw mills in Bedford, among his creditors were his brother Timothy Wilson and his uncle Francis Wilson. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25163)

Although proof is lacking it is thought that all three sons of Joseph and Elizabeth served in the Revolutionary army. In Volume 15 of New Hampshire State Papers, on pages 711 and 713 it is recorded that Jonathan Wilson, Joseph Wilson and Samuel Wilson had all served in Col. Joseph Cilley's regiment prior to 1 Jan. 1780. This service is in addition to that which we have identified for Jonathan and Joseph.

Children of Joseph and Elizabeth (Putnam) Wilson, all births but the sixth and the last are recorded at Bedford:

5-63 i. ELIZABETH, born 10 Jan. 1745/6.

5-64 ii. SARAH, born 22 Feb. 1746/7.

5-65 iii. RUTH, born 30 Aug. 1748, died at Bedford 3 Apr. 1793. We believe she is the Ruth Wilson who married as his first wife, JONAS GLEASON who was born at Woburn 6 Feb. 1747, died at Bedford 8 Feb. 1815, son of John and Dorothy (Godding) Gleason. He was an early proprietor of the Vine Brook mill. They had five (Gleason) children; Hannah 1775, Rhoda 1777, Jonas 1780, Simeon 1782 and Dorcas born 1786. (John B. White, Descendants of Thomas Gleason of Watertown, Massachusetts [1908] p. 136)

5-66 iv. SAMUEL, born 7 Oct. 1750. On 29 Jan. 1784 Samuel Wilson of Killingly, CT, husbandman, purchased of Benjamin Jones 68-1/2 acres of land adjoining the Governor's farm in Charlestown, NH. This deed was witnessed by his brother-in-law David Cross and by David Hubbard. The next day Samuel Wilson of Killingly, husbandman, purchased of David and Rhoda Cross of Charlestown 30 acres of land being lot No. 58 in the third division of land in Charlestown. This second deed was witnessed by Joseph and Annes Wilson of Charlestown, his brother and sister-in-law. (Cheshire Deeds, 8:163, 355) We find no record of him in Killingly and no further record of him in Charlestown, he is probably the Samuel Wilson listed in the 1800 census of the adjoining town of Unity heading a household comprised of one male 16-26 years of age, one male over 45 years, one female 16-26 years and one female over 45 years.

5-67 v. RHODA, born 28 Nov. 1753, died at Bedford (VR) 17 Dec. 1753.

Records, file 4050A) Jonathan Wilson of Charlestown had Revolutionary war service in 1777 in Col. Bellows regiment of Continental troops, also in March of 1788 when he enlisted in Capt. Isaac Farwell's company in Col. John Starks regiment at which time his age was given as 19 years. (sic!) (New Hampshire State Papers, 14:577, 593)

5-70 viii. RHODA, born 2 Jan. 1759. She was "of Acworth" on 3 Jan. 1778 when she married DAVID CROSS at the Rockingham, Vermont church, they were residing in Charlestown in 1784 when they sold land there.

5-71 ix. CATHERINE, born 3 Mar. 1761, in Bedford, Bay Province (Acworth, NH VR). She married at Springfield, VT (VR) 5 Apr. 1792 SIMEON STEVENS, Jr. born there (VR) 4 Feb. 1768, son of Simeon Stevens and his first wife, Isabella (Taylor). (Hubbard and Dartt, History of Springfield, Vermont [1895] p. 441)

J04-025 EBENEZER WILSON (Samuel, John, John) born (VR) 16 Jan. 1725/6 in that part of Billerica, MA which in 1729 became the new town of Bedford, fourth of the seven children of Samuel and Sarah (-----) Wilson. He died in Bedford (VR) 9 Mar. 1750/1.

He married at Billerica (VR) 4 Feb. 1747 AMITY RICHARDSON who was born there (VR) 8 Oct. 1729, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Ditson) Richardson. Amity married second, at Charlestown, MA (VR) 21 July 1755 EZEKIEL WALKER, son of Benjamin and Susanna (Baldwin) Walker.

Ebenezer died intestate, on 27 May 1751 his brother, Joseph Wilson, husbandman of Bedford, was given administration on his estate with surety by Jonathan Grimes and Amity Wilson, widow, both of Bedford. The probate mentions the widow Amity Wilson, also children of the deceased, not named. There was a debt due from the deceased's mother Wilson, appraisal was by Francis Wilson of Bedford. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25131)

Children of Ebenezer and Amity (Richardson) Wilson:

5-72 i. AMITY, born circa 1748, died at Bedford (VR) 29 Nov. 1753.

5-73 ii. SARAH, born circa 1750, died at Bedford (VR) 14 Dec. 1753.

J04-026 TIMOTHY WILSON (Samuel, John, John) born (VR) 4 Sept. 1728 in that part of Billerica which in 1729 became the new town of Bedford, MA, fifth of the seven children of Samuel and Sarah (-----) Wilson. He died (VR) 13 Mar. 1785, age 57 years in that section of Woburn, MA which in 1797 was established as the new town of Burlington.

He married at Woburn (VR) 11 Dec. 1760 REBECCA WYMAN who was born at Townsend, MA in 1738, daughter of Ebenezer and Rebecca (Johnson) Wyman and step-daughter of Timothy's cousin Dorcas (Wilson J04-010) Wyman. Rebecca survived her husband and died at Burlington (VR) 16 Feb. 1822 ae. 81 years. (sic!)

In 1776 Timothy was administrator on the estate of his mother. He had Revolutionary War service from Woburn, a minute-man in Capt. Joshua Walker's company at the Lexington Alarm 19 Apr. 1775 and in Capt. Timothy Winn's 3rd company of the Woburn training band 13 May 1775, served in the expedition to Rhode Island in 1778 and in the similar expedition in 1780.

Timothy died intestate, his probate termed him yeoman, of Woburn, on 13 Apr. 1785 administration was given to the widow Rebecca with surety by Samuel Nevens and David Winn. Listed therein was Timothy Wilson, only son, Ruth Wilson, youngest child, Rebecca, daughter, wife of Gideon Simonds and daughters Sarah Wilson and Betsey Wilson. On the same date guardianship was given to David Winn for Elizabeth and Ruth Wilson, minors under 14 years of age and for Timothy Wilson, aged 17 years, children of Timothy Wilson, late of Woburn, deceased. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 25197, 98 and 99)

The widow Rebecca is listed in the 1790 census of Woburn heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age and four females.

Children of Timothy and Rebecca (Wyman) Wilson, probably all born at Woburn:

5-74 i. REBECCA, born at Woburn (VR) 2 Mar. 1762, died at Burlington (VR) 22 May 1847. She married at Woburn (VR) 16 Oct. 1785 GIDEON SIMONDS who was born at Woburn (VR) 24 June 1757, died 12 June 1835, son of Caleb and Susanna (Converse) Simonds. They had two (Simonds) children born at Woburn; Rebecca 1786 and Asa 1794. (Robert S. and Rollo W. Simonds, History of the Simonds Family, [1984] p. 57)

5-75 ii. SARAH, born circa 1764. She possibly married DAVID WINN.

5-76 iii. TIMOTHY, born about 1768. On 20 Sept. 1810 the selectmen of Burlington petitioned the probate court to appoint a guardian for Timothy Wilson of Burlington, a spendthrift who drinks to excess. (Middlesex Probate Court Records), file 25200)

5-77 iv. ELIZABETH, born circa 1771.

5-78 v. RUTH, born circa 1773.

5-79 vi. Son, born in January 1776, died at Woburn (VR) 11 Oct. 1778 ae. 2 years and 10 months.

J04-028 Capt. JONATHAN WILSON (Samuel, John, John) born about 1733, probably in Bedford, MA, youngest of the seven children of Samuel and Sarah (-----) Wilson. He was killed fighting the British on the memorable 19 Apr. 1775, "in the forty-first year of his age." There is an impressive memorial to Capt. Jonathan Wilson erected upon the common in Bedford. It is inscribed: "He had bravely led his men through the memorable scenes of the early hours of the day, had been foremost in the chase across the Great Fields to intercept the enemy, and fell dead in the severe battle of the afternoon."

He married at Bedford (VR) on 8 Oct. 1761 ELIZABETH (STEARNS) BACON who was born in Billerica, MA 3 Apr. 1722, daughter of Samuel and Rachel (Crosby) Stearns and widow of John Bacon who died at Bedford in 1760. (James Bond, Genealogies of Early Settlers of Watertown, Massachusetts, [1860] p. 459) By her first husband Elizabeth had nine children only four of whom John, Reuben, Abijah and Thompson were living at the time of her second marriage. Elizabeth (Stearns)(Bacon) Wilson died at Bedford (VR) 18 Apr. 1790, having had her husband and her sons Reuben and Abijah Stearns killed during the Revolutionary War. Elizabeth died intestate, her son John Bacon of Bedford was given administration on her estate on 30 May 1790, surety was posted by John Webber and Thompson Bacon. She was comfortably fixed, the estate was valued at £717.7.10 which included 102 acres of land. Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25133.

On 1 Feb. 1759 Jonathan Wilson, laborer, of Bedford purchased from his brother Joseph a parcel of 66 acres of land in Bedford together with another parcel of 5 acres with a barn standing thereon. Jonathan is termed laborer, of Uxbridge on 25 Feb. 1760 when he sold this parcel. (Middlesex Deeds 55:579 and 59:10) We find no record of his residence in Uxbridge, he did not long remain there, he was back in Bedford for his wedding in 1761.

The only proof we have found regarding the parentage of this man is his father's probate which in June 1749 mentions his son, Jonathan Wilson, a minor in his sixteenth year. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25182) It has been incorrectly assumed that Capt. Wilson had an earlier marriage to a daughter of Hugh Maxwell of Bedford. This arises from the diary of Thompson Maxwell, a son of Hugh, which tells of a teaming trip he made to Boston from Amherst, NH in April of 1775. On the return journey he mentions spending the night in Bedford with "my brother" Jonathan Wilson who was captain of the local company of minute-men. That was the night they received the alarm spread by Paul Revere and John Dawes, the next day Captain Wilson was killed. Thompson Maxwell had married Sybil Wyman, daughter of Rachel (Crosby)(Stearns) Wyman who was a half-sister to Jonathan Wilson's only wife.

Upon the death of Capt. Wilson command of the Bedford company of minute-men fell to "his brother" Edward Stearns who, in 1755 had married Lucy Stearns, daughter of Rachel (Crosby)(Stearns) Wyman and was thus another half-sister of the wife of Capt. Jonathan Wilson.

Child of Capt. Jonathan and Elizabeth (Stearns)(Bacon) Wilson:

5-80+ i. JONATHAN, born probably at Bedford about 1763, died there 25 Sept. 1797.

J04-029 SAMUEL WILSON (Samuel, Samuel, John) born at Woburn, MA (VR) 22 July 1720, eldest of the six children of Samuel and Sarah (Simonds) Wilson. He died (VR) 21 June 1750, age 29 years and 11 months in that part of Woburn which in 1797 was set-off as the new town of Burlington.

He married at Woburn (VR) 5 June 1744 ABIGAIL JOHNSON who was born there (VR) 15 July 1723, daughter of Dea. Edward Johnson and his first wife, Rebecca (Reed), a sister of Jonathan Johnson who married Samuel's oldest sister. (Samuel Sewell, History of Woburn, Massachusetts [1868] p. 649) Abigail survived her first husband and married second, at Woburn (VR) 13 Nov. 1751, as his second wife, Col. SIMEON SPAULDING who was born at Chelmsford, MA 4 Aug. 1713, died there 7 Apr. 1785, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Colburn) Spaulding. By her second marriage Abigail had nine (Spaulding) children; Micah 1752, Jepthah 1754, Azariah 1757, Simeon 1759, Abigail (twin), Philip 1762, Rebecca 1764, Matthias, 1769 and Noah born 1771. (Samuel J. Spalding, Spalding Memorial [1872] p. 39) Abigail survived her second husband by over a quarter century and died at Chelmsford (VR) 20 June 1812, aged 88 years.

Samuel was residing in Bolton, MA on 26 Aug. 1746 when for £200. he purchased 27 acres of land, part in Bolton and part in Marlborough. He was living in Marlborough on 18 July 1746 when Samuel and Abigail sold this parcel for £450. (Worcester Deeds, 28:80 and 34:330) These transactions are easily attributed to Samuel (G03----) Wilson of Newton and his wife Abigail (Prentice) but their correct identity is established by another conveyance bearing the same date whereby Samuel Wilson of Woburn and Sarah his wife sold to his son Samuel Wilson, Jr. of Marlborough the west half of his house and several parcels of land in Woburn with the stipulation it was not to be sold during the lifetime of the grantors. (Middlesex Deeds, 49:237)

Samuel Wilson, Jr. died intestate, administration on his estate was given on 27 Aug. 1750 to the widow Abigail Wilson, later Abigail Spaulding, with surety by James Proctor and James Fowler. On 12 Nov. 1750 the widow was granted guardianship for her children Samuel, Archelaus and Supply Wilson. On 10 Dec. 1763 Archelaus Wilson, a minor over fourteen years of age chose his father-in-law, Simeon Spaulding of Chelmsford to be his guardian and on 25 Apr. 1764 his brother Supply did likewise. On 30 Mar. 1765 Samuel Wilson, a minor in his twenty-first year, chose his uncle Jonathan Johnson as guardian. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 25183 and 25184)

Children of Samuel and Abigail (Johnson) Wilson, all births recorded at Woburn:

5-81 i. SAMUEL, born 26 Mar. 1745. On 20 Mar. 1775 the selectmen of Woburn petitioned the probate court to appoint Lt. Joshua Walker guardian for Samuel Wilson of Woburn who was non-compas. He was the oldest male heir to the estate of his father, Samuel Wilson, late of Woburn, deceased and had been living with his grandmother, Sarah Johnson, recently deceased, who was once wife of Samuel Wilson, deceased and lately wife of Dea. Edward Johnson, deceased. (Middlesex Probate Court Records file 25189)

5-82+ ii. ARCHELAUS, born 17 Aug. 1746, died at Nelson, NH 28 June 1802.

5-83 iii. ABIGAIL, born 2 Nov. 1748, died at Woburn (VR) 6 Jan. 1750, ae. 15 months, buried in Burlington adjacent to her father and her grandfather.

5-84+ ii. SUPPLY, born 19 Jan. 1750, died at New Ipswich, NH 21 July 1835.

J04-035 Dea. JAMES WILSON (James, James, John) born circa 1719, probably in Killingly, CT first of thirteen children of James and Mehitable (Leavens) Wilson. He was baptized there in the First Parish (Putnam) Church on 10 May 1719.

He married at Leicester (VR) 15 Mar. 1748 LYDIA VINTON who was born at Braintree, MA 29 Mar. 1724, eldest daughter of Abiather and Lydia (Green) Vinton. (John A. Vinton, Vinton Memorial [1858] p. 61)

Shortly after James' birth his parents moved to Leicester. After his marriage James and his wife settled on lot No. 5, located about fifty rods south of Wire Village in that part of Leicester which on 2 Apr. 1753 was set-off as the district of Spencer. In 1744 he became the first deacon of Rev. Eaton's church in Leicester and served as selectman in that town from 1746 to 1748 and again in 1751. (Emory Washburn, History of Leicester, Massachusetts [1860] p. 406) At the first town meeting held in Spencer, on 14 May 1753 Dea. James Wilson was elected selectman. (James Draper, History of Spencer, Massachusetts p. 268)

On 24 Mar. 1765, in a conveyance cosigned by his wife Lydia, James Wilson of Spencer, husbandman, for £250. sold to James Proute of Spencer, husbandman, 75 acres of land in Spencer together with a saw mill, grist mill and other buildings erected thereon. They couple then removed to Onslow, near Truro, Colchester County, Nova Scotia. They did not long remain in Nova Scotia, on 3 April 1769 James Wilson of Onslow, yeoman, purchased three plots of land in Spencer, one of 50 acres, the second 18 acres and the third 1-1/2 acres with a house and barn thereon, located on the west side of the road leading to the mills formerly belonging to the grantee. (Worcester Deeds, 60:296, 297 and 299)

Again he did not long remain in his new residence. The records of the Congregational Church in Stockbridge, MA show that Dea. James Wilson was admitted to that church from the church in Spencer on 8 Sept. 1771.

Joseph Wilson was number twenty-six on a list of sixty-eight names. (James Draper, History of Spencer, Massachusetts [1860] pp. 54 and 260) The widow Grace is listed in the 1790 census of Spencer heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years and two females.

The will of Grace Wilson of Spencer, widow dated 24 June 1799 and proven 6 May 1826 is on file at the Worcester courthouse. On 9 Aug. 1756 Elijah Wilson of Spencer entered His Majesty's service as private under the command of Capt. Administration was granted on 6 Sept. 1785 to Mary Wilson, widow and Elnathan Curtis on the estate of Elijah Wilson, late of Stockbridge, deceased, intestate who left minor children, viz: Elisha, the eldest, Peter, Phebe, Mehitable and Mary. Surety was posted by Isaac Curtis and by William Brown. (Berkshire Probate Court Records, file 1280) The widow Mary Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Stockbridge heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and four females.

In 1787 a commission appointed by Congress to settle the dispute between the states of New York and Massachusetts regarding ownership of a large tract of land west of the Hudson river ruled that title to the land belonged to

Massachusetts and sovereignty belonged to New York. A tract lying between the Oswego creek and the Chenango river, known as the Boston Purchase, was sold by Massachusetts to a group of sixty men headed by Samuel Brown of Stockbridge. Among the first to settle on this land were the five sons of Abraham Brown and Elisha, Peter, Mary, Phebe and Mehitable Wilson who, with their mothers, established residence on the East branch of Oswego creek and called the place Brown's Settlement, the present town of Newark Valley. (Electa F. Jones, Stockbridge, Past and Present [1954] p. 203)

On 28 Dec. 1810 Mary Wilson, widow; Mary Wilson the second, single woman; Peter Wilson, yeoman; Mehitable Wilson, single woman; Phebe Wilson, single woman and Elisha Wilson, husbandman, sold land in Stockbridge including that set-off to Mary as her dower in the estate of Elijah Wilson, late of Stockbridge, deceased. All of the grantors were termed "of Stockbridge" even though they had long before that date established residence in Tioga county. (Berkshire Deeds, 38:836)

Children of Elijah and Mary (Curtis) Wilson, all births recorded at Stockbridge:

Mehitable's children, Mary W. Brown, Juliana Brown, John Brown, F. Henry Brown, Charles Brown and Frances Cornelia Brown, also Phebe Westfael, Eliza Releyea and Laura Wilson, children of her deceased brother Peter together with Elizabeth Wilson who was a grand-daughter of Peter. On 26 Aug. 1860 Francis Henry Brown, administrator, listed the heirs-at-law as: Charles F. Wilson, residence unknown; Jane Hover of Oberlain, OH; Phebe Westfael of Newark; Elizabeth Wilson (crossed out) and John, Mary W., Diana, Charles, Frances Cornelia and Francis Henry Brown. (Tioga Surrogates Court Records, A:188 and II:265)

J04-049 EBENEZER WILSON (Ebenezer, James, John) born at Killingly, CT (VR) 9 Mar. 1724, baptized in First Parish (Putnam) Church, Killingly 31 Aug. 1729, second child and eldest son of Ebenezer and Ann (-----) Wilson. He died (GS) 14 Oct. 1805, ae. 82 years, buried in Aspinwall Cemetery, in what is now Putnam.

He married at Killingly (VR) 25 May 1749 THANKFUL ATWELL of New London, CT born about 1723 daughter of Samuel and Mary (----) Atwell. (Charles B. Atwell, Genealogy of the Atwell Family of New London, Connecticut [1896]) Thankful died (GS) 30 Oct. 1801, ae. 78 years, buried alongside her husband and five of their children.

On 21 June 1755 Ebenezer Wilson, Jr. of Killingly, husbandman, for £282. purchased of William Jefferson 110 acres of land in Killingly and on 25 May 1769 he purchased from Gideon Draper of Oblong, Dutchess Co., NY the adjoining 27 acres. This land became the homestead and remained in the family until 1832 when Ebenezer's children sold it. At that time the land was described as being adjacent to the mill dam of Killingly Manufactory Company, across the Five Mile River. An interesting transaction recorded 14 Aug. 1797 was with William Pearse who, "for the consideration of twenty dollars, do give, grant, make over and forever confirm until Ebenezer Wilson and unto his heirs and assignees forever, all the right, title, interest and demand which I now have or ever had in and unto one certain pew which I the said Pearse built and the place where it stands I purchased of the said society for the purpose of erecting a pew as by the society records will fully appear and is adjoining to the east alley in the said meeting house and is the next pew before Eleazer Mighills pew. To have and to hold the said premises or pew unto him the said Ebenezer Wilson, his heirs and assignees against the lawful claims and demands of any person or persons whatsoever. (Killingly Land Records, Vol. 14)

Ebenezer Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Killingly heading a household comprised of four males, all over 16 years of age, and three females. He died intestate, administration on his estate was granted to his son Aaron on 18 Nov. 1805 with surety provided by Atwell Wilson, both being of Killingly. One of the bills presented to the estate was by Atwell for the cost of making a coffin for his father. (Pomfret District Probate Court Records, file 4517)

Ebenezer and Thankful (Atwell) Wilson, had eight children, probably all born at Killingly, they had no grandchildren:

5-104 i. MARY, born 2 Apr. 1750, died young.

He married at Thompson, CT (VR) 3 Feb. 1828 SARAH (J05-168) WILSON who was baptized there 2 Oct. 1785, daughter of John and Sarah (Hughes) Wilson. Sarah died at Thompson (GS) 12 Nov. 1860 ae. 75 years, buried with her husband and her parents. No children. John R. Wilson signed his will at Thompson 5 July 1738, it was proven 26 Nov. 1838. He mentioned therein his wife Sally, nominated to be executrix, and his brothers Aaron, Joseph and Samuel Wilson. John Ranney Wilson had Revolutionary War service from Woodstock in Capt. Manning's company of Col. Webb's regiment from 13 Apr. 1778 to 20 July 1779. (Revolutionary War Pension Application W2679)

5-109 vi. AARON, born 13 Apr. 1762, died (GS) 31 Mar. 1849, ae. 87 years, buried with his parents.

Aaron signed his will at Killingly 29 Jan. 1849, it was proven 5 April 1849. He made bequests to his brothers Joseph and Samuel A., his sister-in-law Sally, wife of Samuel A., and his cousins Jarvis Lawrence, Resolved Wilson, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Hassett, Benejah Matthews, William H. He was living in Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., NY in 1806 when he signed a deed, in Martinsburg, Lewis Co., NY 1838 when he was mentioned in the will of his brother John Ranney. He died at Martinsburg 7 Apr. 1849 leaving a widow, MARY H. (-----) WILSON, but "no children, father nor mother, brothers, sisters, nephews or nieces." His estate was apparently quite small, he left a bequest of $50.00 to Joseph Wilson Ervin, the remainder of his estate, which included all sums due from the estates of Sam Atwell Wilson, Aaron Wilson and Elizabeth Wilson, was to go to his wife Mary. On 4 June 1851 the executor, Hiram B. Phillips, filed an affidavit with the court stating he had offered the widow the sum of $5.00 but she had refused to take it or to sign a receipt. (Lewis Surrogates Court Records, file 52, will 93)

5-111 viii. SAMUEL ATWELL, (sometimes ATWELL) born 29 Mar. 1767, died at Putnam (GS) 12 Apr. 1849, buried with his parents. He married SARAH ----- who survived him. Samuel A. and his brother Aaron were closely associated. They had many joint business ventures and much of their real estate was jointly held. (Killingly District Probate Court Records, file 1911) Samuel and Sarah had no children.

J04-053 WILLIAM WILSON (Ebenezer, James, John) born at Killingly, CT (VR) 9 Nov. 1731, baptized there in First Parish (Putnam) Church 12 Mar. 1732, sixth of the eleven children of Ebenezer and Ann (----) Wilson.

He married at Woodstock (VR) 10 Jan. 1753 MARTHA RANNEY who was baptized in Middletown, CT on 30 Jan. 1733/4, daughter of John Ranney and his second wife Martha (Miller). She was a sister of John Ranney who married William's sister Sybil. Clarence W. Bowen and Donald L. Jacobus, History of Woodstock, Connecticut [1943] 8:513)

William and Martha owned the covenant at Chatham (now Portland) CT 21 Apr. 1754, their first child was baptized there the same day. William Wilson was an original proprietor of Pomfret being the first settler in the northwestern part of that town, arriving there from Woodstock, CT with his wife and three children on 30 May 1771. He located on lot no. 42, second division, but by 1780 had moved to lot No. 76, second division, located in the southwest corner of the town. He was noted as being at the proprietor's meeting in Pomfret on 18 June and again on 1 October of the same year at which time he was appointed to a committee to inspect and certify pitches. He was not especially active in town affairs, however in 1779 he was appointed road surveyor, in 1783 petit juror and in 1790 he had his tax abated. (Henry H. Vail, History of Pomfret, Vermont [1930] pp. 60 and 133)

The 1790 census of Pomfret lists him heading a household comprised of one male under 16 years of age, one male over 16 years and one female. By 1800 the census showed only one male and one female, both over 45 years of age, presumably William and his wife.

Children of William and Martha (Ranney) Wilson, all births but the last are recorded at Woodstock:

5-112 i. JOHN, born 9 Mar. 1754, died at Sullivan, Madison Co., NY in 1832. On 25 Apr. 1818 John Wilson of Sullivan, aged 63 years deposed; that he enlisted at Woodstock, CT and served under Capt. Manning in Col. Durkee's regiment as private from 1775 until 1779 when he was discharged; that he served in the Battles of Bunker Hill, White Plains, Brandywine and Monmouth; that he now relinquishes the pension he receives under the Act of 20 Apr. 1796. On 6 July 1820 John Wilson, aged 66 years, a resident of Sullivan deposed; that he was a sergeant in General Washington's Life Guard, that further information as to his service is contained in his declaration of 25 Apr. 1818; that he owns no real estate; that his family is broken and dispersed; that his occupation was farming but he is unable to follow it on account of his wound and the infirmity of age. A notation in his file states his name appears on a list of applicants for invalid pensions returned by the District Court for the District of Vermont submitted to the House of Representatives by the Secretary of War on 21 Feb. 1795 and printed in the American State Papers, Class 9, page 156.

This file contains many details of the activities of General Washington's Life Guard, anyone interested in this family should obtain a complete transcript. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications, file S44069)

John probably married and had children. The 1810 census of Sullivan lists him there heading a household comprised of one male 10-16 years of age, two males 16-26 years and one male over 45 years, also one female under 10 years and one female in the 26-45 year age bracket.

5-113 ii. LUCRETIA, born 27 Jan. 1756, baptized in First Congregational Church, Portland, CT in Feb. 1756. She is probably the Lucretia who married at Lebanon, NH (VR) 25 Oct. 1775 SIMON P. SLAPP.

5-114 iii. TIMOTHY, born 8 Jan. 1759, died at Woodstock (VR) 7 June 1759.

5-118 vii. JAMES, born 28 Oct. 1766. He is probably the James Wilson who married at Lebanon, NH

(VR) on 25 Nov. 1792 ELIZABETH (Betsey) HUNTINGTON. In 1800 James Wilson was listed in the census of Pomfret heading a household comprised of three males under 10 years, one male 26-45 years, one female under 10 years and one female 26-45 years of age.

5-119 viii. THOMAS, born 20 Apr. 1768.

5-120 ix. JONATHAN, born 11 July 1770.

5-121+ x. ISAAC, born at Hartford, VT 8 Jan. 1780 (calculated), possibly by a second wife, died there (VR) 13 Nov. 1862.

J04-054 JONATHAN WILSON (Ebenezer, James, John) born at Killingly, CT (VR) 28 Aug. 1733, baptized there in Second Parish (Thompson) Church 18 Nov. 1733, seventh of the eleven children of Ebenezer and Ann (-----) Wilson. He died at Woodstock, CT probably shortly before 1 May 1787.

He married at Killingly in the First Parish (Putnam) Church on 11 Dec. 1754 LOIS HOSMER, probably daughter of Menasseh and Mary (Carpenter) Hosmer. Lois survived her husband and died a widow at Woodstock on 18 Oct. 1795.

We have no record of his death or of a probate of his estate. His approximate date of death is based upon a guardianship, given to Daniel Lyon, Jr. of Woodstock on 1 May 1787 for Thomas Wilson, a minor aged about fifteen years, son of Jonathan Wilson, late of Woodstock, deceased. (Pomfret District Probate Court Records, file 4531)

Although the widow Lois was probably in Woodstock in 1790 she is not listed as head of a household in the census taken that year.

Children of Jonathan and Lois (Hosmer) Wilson, all births are recorded at Woodstock:

5-122 i. DOROTHY, born 18 Apr. 1755. She married at Woodstock (VR) 30 Jan. 1777 JAMES LEDOYT, Jr. who was born there in April 1752, son of James and Margaret (Titus) Ledoyt. They had eight (Ledoyt) children recorded at Woodstock; Roswell 1777, Jonathan 1781, Benjamin 1783, Polly 1786, James 1788, Hiram and Nathan 1791 and Hanna born in 1794.

J04-057 ISAAC WILSON (Ebenezer, James, John) born at Killingly, CT (VR) 6 Dec. 1739, baptized there in Second Parish (Thompson) Church 10 Feb. 1740, tenth of the eleven children of Ebenezer and Ann (-----) Wilson. He died at Hartford, VT about 1 Mar. 1813.

There is no record of his marriage, probably at Woodstock, to ABIGAIL ----- who was the mother of his children. She did not survive her husband.

Isaac and Abigail were in Woodstock in 1762 when the birth of their first child was recorded, they removed to Ashford, CT then returned to Woodstock before settling in Hartford. He was there for the 1790 census (in Vermont taken in 1791) heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and five females. The 1800 census shows him still there with three males under 10 years, one male 10-16 years of age also he and his wife, both over 45 years of age. It is doubtful that these young boys were his children.

Isaac signed his will at Hartford on 27 Feb. 1813, it was proven 3 Mar. 1813. It mentions his deceased wife, his deceased son Josiah, and his sons Elias, Zolvah and Parley. Also his daughters; Olive, widow of David Simonds of Woodstock; Olinda, wife of Roger Wright; Polly, wife of Ebenezer Carpenter; Roxy, wife of Asmond Strong and Charlotte, wife of Kelley Brinks. (Windsor Probate Court Records, 4:411)

Children of Isaac and Abigail (-----) Wilson:

5-132+ i. JOSIAH, born at Woodstock (VR) 1 Sept. 1762, died at Hartford 6 Apr. 1797.

He is buried in the Old Cemetery, Coventry, CT where his gravestone reads: "Capt. William Wilson died 1819 aged 90 years." There is a Revolutionary War marker on his grave.

He married at Coventry on 26 July 1749 (VR) SARAH RUST who was born there (VR) 4 June 1732, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Hockins) Rust. Sarah died 7 Oct. 1804, aged 72 years and is buried with her husband.

It has been said that his military title came during the Revolutionary War when he commanded a company in Col. Storr's regiment but we can find nothing in the Connecticut records to validate this statement.

He came to Coventry as a youth with his parents and probably spent the reminder of his days as a resident of that town. The 1790 census lists him there heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age and two females. He is probably the William Wilson who owned the Covenant and was admitted to membership in the Second Congregational Church, North Coventry, in 1801 and was listed there as a member, on 10 Mar. 1819, shortly before his death.

Children of Capt. William and Sarah (Rust) Wilson, first nine births are recorded at Coventry:

He married at Coventry (VR) on 10 Feb. 1757 ABIGAIL FELLOWS, daughter of Isaac and Abigail (Hutchins) Fellows of Tolland, CT. (Kendall P. Hayward, "Notes on Coventry, Connecticut Families," The American Genealogist, 28[October 1952]:246) After the death of her first husband Abigail removed with her children to Alstead, NH and in 1783 married ABSOLOM KINGSBURY who was born in Norwich, CT on 13 Feb. 1730, son of Capt. Francis Wilson, late of Coventry, died intestate. The distribution of his estate to the heirs is dated 4 Sept. 1770. Abigail Wilson, widow received the traditional widow's third, the remainder was divided among his children with Francis Wilson, the eldest son, receiving two-sevenths and Stephen Wilson, Anna Wilson, Abigail Wilson, Submit Wilson and Ruth Wilson each receiving a one-seventh share. (Windham District Probate Court Records, file 4217)

J04-064 Lt. JOSEPH WILSON (John, James, John) born at Coventry, CT (VR) 31 Mar. 1745, youngest of the six children of John and Dorothy (Barker) Wilson. He removed to Tyringham, MA where he died (VR) on 9 Aug. 1818.

He married, probably at Tyringham ELIZABETH (Betty) -----. The only record found of her is in the Tyringham Vital Records which show that Betty, wife of Lt. Joseph Wilson, died 25 Aug. 1812.

The records of the Bolton, Connecticut Congregational Church list the baptism of Joseph, son of John Wilson of Coventry on 5 Apr. 1741 which is almost four years before the date for his birth in the Coventry records. Either one of these records is wrong or there was an earlier Joseph who died young.

On 11 Apr. 1770 Joseph Wilson of Tolland, Province of Connecticut, purchased a tract of one hundred acres of land, known as lot no. 95 in Tyringham. In 1808 this land was sold to Oliver Wilson. (Berkshire Deeds, 8:169)

Joseph Wilson was commissioned on 6 May 1776 as Lieutenant in Capt. Ezekiel Herrick's company in Col. John Ashley's regiment of Berkshire County militia which on 8 July 1777 marched to reinforce the army of Maj. Gen. Schuyler which was opposing the advance of the British and Germans under Gen. Burgoyne. The records show he received pay for twenty days service. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:544)

The 1790 census of Tyringham lists Joseph Wilson heading a household comprised of three males over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and five females. It would appear that some of these females were daughters but we find no record of their births. Joseph represented the town of Tyringham in the Massachusetts Legislature.

Children of Lt. Joseph and Elizabeth (----) Wilson, as given on page 1178 of New England Families, Genealogical and Memorial [1913] William Cutler, editor:

J04-072 JOHN WILSON (Thomas, James, John) born at Killingly, CT (VR) 1 Feb. 1748/9, eighth of the nine children of Thomas and Abigail (Whittmore) Wilson. He died 13 Sept. 1834, age 85 years, 6 months and 2 days, in that part of Killingly which in 1785 was set-off as the new town of Thompson.

He married at Killingly, circa 1774 SARAH HUGHES who was born there (VR) 20 Nov. 1752, daughter of Jonas and Experience (Mercy) Hughes. Sarah died (VR) 4 Dec. 1828, ae. 76 years and 4 days, and is buried with her husband in West Thompson Cemetery.

John had Revolutionary War service from Killingly. On 17 July 1832 John Wilson of Thompson, aged 83 years, submitted an application for a pension. He claimed that in 1775 at the Alarm in Lexington he turned out and went as far as Dedham where he stayed at the house of the widow Ames [the Ames Tavern]. Further, at a later date he enlisted for three months in Capt. Joseph Elliott's company under Col. Durkee and served at Roxbury, at the Battle of Bunker Hill and various places around Boston. That in 1776 he enlisted and served five months aboard the privateer GREENWICH under Capt. Job Paine, sailing from Rhode Island and cruising near Newfoundland and later in the West Indies during which time they took three ships, the PHEONIX, the BELL and the POPE. That he later enlisted under Capt. Converse for service at Providence and still later under Capt. Paine of Woodstock for three months at Bristol, RI. He further deposed that he was born in Thompson in 1749 and that in all but his last service he was a drummer. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications, file S14847)

John Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Thompson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and five females. His will, dated 26 Apr. 1827 and proven 8 Oct. 1834 appointed Sally Wilson and John R. Wilson to be executors, they provided surety by Jonathan Nichols, all being of Killingly. He listed his wife Sally, who was to receive one third of his estate, his daughter Grata Green, his son John Wilson and his daughter Joanna Salisbury, each of whom received $1.00 [they apparently had previously received their portion] his son Jonas who received $850.00 and his daughter Sally, who with her husband John R. Wilson, were left the residue of his estate. (Thompson District Probate Court Records, file 1351)

Wilson received $800., to be paid to his guardian Mark Barrett, together with the bed and bedding in the chamber which he then occupied. (Killingly District Probate Court Records, file 1910)

J04-078 JONATHAN WILSON (Jonathan, James, John) born at Killingly, CT (VR) 25 Dec. 1747, baptized in the Second Parish (Thompson) Church 27 Dec. 1747, fifth child and only son of Jonathan and Rebecca (Russell) Wilson. He died 17 Apr. 1837, in the 90th year of his age, and is buried at Willington, CT.

He married first in the Second Parish Church 15 Nov. 1770 ANNA BOWEN who was born at Killingly 7 June 1746, daughter of Richard and Anna (-----) Bowen. Anna died (GS) 25 Feb. 1809 ae. 61 years, buried with her two infant sons in West Thompson Cemetery.

Jonathan Wilson of Killingly on 17 Jan. 1769 executed a deed whereby he sold to Jesse Brown of Killingly "my right, which is a two-sevenths part, in the buildings and land that belonged to Jonathan Wilson, late of Killingly, deceased, yet undivided, and is all my right in the buildings and land that fell to me by the death of my honored father, Jonathan Wilson, and also my mother's third who was formerly Rebecca Wilson, now Rebecca Cutler, the said farm lying and being in Killingly and in the south part of the parish of Thompson, containing by estimation fifty-four acres. (Killingly Land Records, Vol. 8)

Jonathan was "of Oxford" for his first marriage and was taxed in Oxford in 1771. His Revolutionary War service was from Thompson. Jonathan is listed in the 1790 census of Thompson heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age and six females. Jonathan and his wife were admitted to the Westford Congregational Church, Ashford on 31 Dec. 1820 by a letter from the church in Thompson. He was still in Ashford when he applied for his pension.

On 1 May 1834 Jonathan Wilson, aged 86 years, applied for a pension. James Chamberlain's company under Col. Livingston and went to Rhode Island; that he continued to live in Thompson for several years after the Revolution and then removed to Ashford where he now resides. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S17791)

There is little information in either the Killingly or the Thompson records regarding children of Jonathan and Anna (Bowen) Wilson, the listing here is based upon "Bible Records of Jonathan Wilson of Thompson, Connecticut" in NEH&G Register, 65 [Oct. 1911]:349:

5-169 i. MARY (Polly), born 8 Aug. 1773, died at Wrentham, MA 4 Aug. 1810. They had six (Clough) children; George Wilson 1795, Jonathan 1797, Laura 1799, Nancy 1802, Zina 1806 and David born 1809. (Eva A. They had eight (Starr) children; Son 1803, died same day, Amelia 1805, Catherine 1807, John

Wilson 1809, William Ely 1812, Sarah 1815, Darius 1817 and Laura Maria, born 1819. (Burgess P. Starr, History of the Starr Family [1879] p. 754)

She married 1 Jan. 1812 SOLOMON SIKES, widower of her sister Amelia, he died at Walworth 4 Oct. 1849. They had four (Sikes) children; Amelia 1814, George 1816, Charlotte Dwight 1819 and Eunice M. born 1823.

5-173 v. GEORGE, born 15 Sept. 1783, died at Thompson (GS) 19 Aug. 1786, ae. 2 years, 11 months and 4 days.

5-174 vi. GEORGE, born 22 Feb. 1786, died at Thompson (GS) 16 June 1787 ae. 3 months and 22 days.

J04-082 NATHANIEL WILSON (Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA, probably on 10 June 1731 (calculated), son of Benjamin Wilson by his first wife, Elizabeth (Ross?). The calculation for the birth of Nathaniel are predicated upon three assumptions. First that his age as given on his gravestone is correct, second that his half-brother Jonathan inspired the delayed entires in the Rehoboth town records and third, that Jonathan, like most people, had an accurate record of his brother's birthday. Nathaniel died at West Stockbridge, MA (VR) 21 Apr. 1821 "in the 89th year of his age" (GS).

He married first, at Rehoboth (VR) on 10 June 1756, on his twenty-fifth birthday, JEMIMA TURNER who was born there (VR) 19 Feb. 1739/40, daughter of Rev. David and Sarah (Howard) Turner and a descendant of James Chilton, a passenger on the MAYFLOWER. (Mayflower Index [1981] No. 35,973) On 9 July 1758 Nathaniel and Jemima joined with the Newman Congregational Church located in what is now East Providence, RI but was originally a part of Rehoboth. Jemima is said to have died at Canaan, Columbia Co., NY sometime after the birth of her eighth child in November 1775.

Nathaniel took a widow, MEHITABLE (-----) GILBERT as his second wife, she was the mother of his five youngest children. Conflicting accounts give her maiden name as ALLEN and CONE, we have been unable to verify either. Mehitable survived her second husband and died at West Stockbridge (VR)(GS) on 7 Jan. 1830 "in her 87th year" buried there with her husband in Center Cemetery.

Early deeds in Rehoboth refer to him as "mariner" but by 1763 when he sold his land there and removed to Berkshire County he was termed "yeoman" or "husbandman" indicating that he had forsaken his seafaring career and had settled into the more mundane life of a farmer. On 7 Nov. 1763 Nathaniel Wilson of Rehoboth purchased land in Mt. Ephraim, now Richmond. (Berkshire Deeds, 2:560) After this date his name frequently appears in the land records, initially "of Richmond" and after 1787 "of West Stockbridge". Published accounts of his origin in England and entry to this country via Canada are fictional. He is listed in the 1790 census of West Stockbridge heading a household comprised of four males under 16 years of age, three males over 16 years and three females.

Nathaniel's will, dated 7 Mar. 1815 and proven on 3 July 1821 mentions his wife Mehitable, his sons Fairing, Nathaniel, Gilbert, Jared, George and Rufus and his daughters Philinda Andrews, Sarah Knapp, Chloe Spencer, Huldah Hart and Jemima Burghardt. Also listed to receive bequests were the children of his deceased son Shubal, their names were not given. (Berkshire Probate Court Records, file 3934) It is difficult to reconcile this listing with the statement made by Gilbert in 1876 that he was the sole survivor of the twenty-one children of Nathaniel Wilson.

Children of Nathaniel Wilson by his first wife, Jemima (Turner) as given by Hartwell Osborn and published as "Wilson Records" in Old Northwest Genealogical Quarterly, 9[1906]:257:

5-175 i. HULDAH, born at Rehoboth (VR) 30 June 1757, baptized there in Newman Congregational Church 9 July 1758, died at Canandaigua, Ontario Co., NY 2 July 1830. She married first HEZEKIAH BOUGHTON who was born at Stamford, CT on 29 Dec. 1752 and died in 1793 near Flint Creek, a few miles west of Canandaigua, while on his way to settle with his family in new lands, son of Hezekiah and Abigail (Penoyer) Boughton. He is buried on Boughton Hill two miles south of Victor, Ontario Co., NY. They had eight (Boughton) children born at West Stockbridge; Althea, Harvey, William, Claudius Victor, Huldah, Sarah, Charlotte and George Hezekiah who was born in 1792. (James Boughton, Descendants of John Boughton [1890] p. 263) Huldah (Wilson) Boughton married second Dr. REUBEN

HART and was living in Bloomfield in 1806 when her husband, who became Judge of the Ontario County Surrogates Court, was named executor of the estate of her brother Shubal. He later committed suicide. They had a daughter, Caroline Hart who was active in the affairs of the Oneida Community. (Records of Victor Proprietors' Church, at Ontario County Archives)

The widow Arabella M. Wilson died at New Bedford, MA 14 Mar. 1884, buried with her husband (GS) ae. 77 years. (Ontario Times, 30 Mar. 1884) Arabella is said to have been a most gifted writer. George graduated at Union College in 1818 and was a teacher. The 1850 census of Canandaigua lists George Wilson, born in Massachusetts, age 50 years [sic!], a teacher with his wife Arabella, age 45 years, born in Vermont. J04-083 Sgt. JOHN WILSON (Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 29 Oct. 1733, third of the nine children of Benjamin Wilson, first by his second wife, Elizabeth (Sprague)(Doyle). He is reported to have died in October of 1826 ae. 93 years, the last of his family to reside in Rehoboth.

He married at Rehoboth (VR) 30 Aug. 1764 ABIGAIL PERRY, who was born there 3 June 1745, daughter of Capt. Eliakim Perry and his first wife, Sarah (Joy). (Bertram Adams, Descendants of John Perry of London [1955] p. 645) also (Helen B. J. Lee, The Joy Genealogy [1968] p. 67/79) We find no record of her death.

Although he is said to have always resided in Rehoboth such is not the case. On 3 July 1766 John Wilson of Cranston, Rhode Island, gentleman, with his wife Abigail for £6.6.0 quitclaimed to Ephraim Hunt of Rehoboth her interest in the dower right and title to land in Rehoboth "of our honored mother, Sarah Perry and our honored grandmother, Ruth Joy and her husband David Joy, late of Rehoboth, deceased." (Bristol Deeds, 51:364) They apparently did not long remain in Cranston, the Wilson name does not occur there in the 1774 census of Rhode Island.

During the French and Indian War John served under Gen. Putnam. His service as sergeant during the Revolution is given in Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:540) He marched to the alarm of 19 Apr. 1775 with Capt. Perry's company of Rehoboth Minute-men and later served under Capt. Perry in Col. Timothy Walker's regiment of Continental troops. He served at Dorchester, New York and White Plains during 1776, his name appears on a list dated 22 Sept. 1777 of men drafted to serve until 30 Oct. 1777 on a secret expedition. He was reputed to have been a large, powerful man with great strength and athletic ability. The 1790 census of Rehoboth lists him heading a household comprise of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 and two females.

Children of Sgt. John and Abigail (Perry) Wilson, all births recorded at Rehoboth:

5-188 i. MOLLY, born 2 Dec. 1764. Her intention to marry ABEL FRENCH was recorded at Reho-

They resided in Providence and Burrillville, RI then Oxford where he was president of the Oxford bank. They had eleven (Olney) children; Lucinda 1796, Cynthia 1797, Hannah 1799, Wilson 1802, Lucinda 1803, Simon L. 1805, Amy 1807, Elisha 1809, Moses 1814, Abigail 1817 and William B. born 1819. J04-084 Capt. LUCAS WILSON (Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 10 Aug. 1735, fourth of the nine children of Benjamin Wilson, the second by his second wife, Elizabeth (Sprague) (Doyle). He died at Putney, VT, during August or September 1818.

He married at Rehoboth (VR) 29 Mar. 1759 SARAH CORBIN who was baptized at Woodstock, CT 28 June 1741, daughter of Robert and Sarah (Bliss) Corbin. This relationship is validated by a deed dated 8 Feb. 1763 whereby Samuel Bliss, in consideration of love, goodwill and affection, conveyed to his grandson Lucas Wilson three parcels of land in Rehoboth on the east side of Palmer River, including the homestead in which the grantor then resided. Further, on 3 Mar. 1768 Lucas Wilson of Rehoboth and Sarah his wife quitclaimed all their interest in the dower rights of their honored mother, Sarah Linkoln, late widow of their honored father, Robert Corbin, late of Rehoboth, deceased. (Bristol County Deeds, 46:524 and 56:260)

The last mention of Lucas in Rehoboth was 6 Dec. 1774 when Lucas Wilson, of Rehoboth, gentleman, and Sarah his wife sold forty acres of land located on the easterly side of Palmer River. (Bristol County Deeds, 58:268)

This sale was apparently in preparation for the move from Rehoboth to Putney, Vermont where Lucas joined his brother Benjamin and his half-sister Sarah who had settled there a few years earlier. At a town meeting held in Putney on May 1775 he was appointed Supervisor of Highways, the following week he purchased four hundred acres of land on West Hill.

In the dispute between New York State and the committee which preceded the formation of the State of Vermont, Lucas, his brother Benjamin and his brother-in-law James Cummings were all active on the side of the "Yorkers." He was one of the two men from Putney on the Cumberland County, New York Committee of Public Safety which met at the courthouse in Westminster from the 11th to the 21st of June 1776. On 19 Oct. 1779 Lucas Wilson was commissioned by the New York legislature as captain of the Putney company in the Southern Regiment of Cumberland County militia. The jurisdiction of New York State in Putney evaporated shortly thereafter when Ethan Allen and the Green Mountain Boys appeared upon the scene. Lucas and thirty-five others were thrown into jail at Westminster and after a summary trial at which Allen personally appeared to see that "justice" was done they were heavily fined. (Benjamin B. Hall, History of Eastern Vermont [1858] pp. 257, 343, 777)

His political position during those turbulent years reflected the thinking of many of his neighbors and did not affect the attitude of the community towards Lucas. He was elected to the town offices of Selectman and Justice of the Peace and from 1781 to 1785 he represented Putney in the Vermont Legislature. He is listed in the 1791 census of Putney heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and five females. By 1800 the census listed the household of Lucas Wilson, Sr. as one male over 45 years, one male 16-26 years of age, one female over 45 years, two females 16-26 years and one female under 10 years old.

Lucas Wilson of Putney signed his will on 27 July 1818, shortly after the death of his son, it was probated 30 Sept. 1818. He mentioned therein his daughter Hannah Wilson, his daughter Chloe Cushing, and his daughter Sally Cudworth. In addition he left legacies to his grandchildren; Fanny Hodgeman, Rachel Jackson, Lucy Wilson, Sally Wilson Chloe Wilson and John Wilson. Also mentioned, with no relationship stated, was Rachel Blandin. His nephew, Abel Wilson of Putney, was named to be executor, surety was provided by Joseph Winslow. Distribution on 10 Aug. 1825, after payment of the legacies, was $127.61 to the heirs of Lucas Wilson, deceased, $63.81 to the heirs of Lydia Pratt, deceased, $63.81 to J. Cudworth and wife and $63.81 to Leavitt Cushing and wife. (Westminster District Probate Court Records, F:221)

Her intention to marry SAMUEL PRATT was recorded at Putney in June of 1778, he is probably the Samuel Pratt listed in the 1790 census of Westminster, VT heading a household comprised of three males over 16 years of age, two males under 16 and two females.

5-199 ii. JOHN, born 22 Mar. 1762.

J04-085 AMMI WILSON (Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 26 Apr. 1737, fifth of the nine children of Benjamin Wilson, the third by his second wife, Elizabeth (Sprague) (Doyle). He died at Windsor, VT during July or August of 1812.

He married at Rehoboth (VR) 8 Dec. 1763 ANNA MUNRO who was born there 20 Feb. 1743, daughter of Joseph and Anna (Goff) Munro. Anna died at Windsor, probably between 1791 and 1800.

Ammi Wilson had service from Rehoboth during 1755, 1756 and 1757 in the French and Indian War, his name appears last on the tax rolls in Rehoboth for the year 1765.

On 14 Apr. 1768 Ammi Wilson, of the town and county of Providence in the Province of Rhode Island, husbandman, purchased 50 acres of land in Killingly, CT. He resided in Killingly when he purchased several additional parcels of land and on 20 July 1774 when he executed a deed by which he disposed of all of his land in that town. (Killingly Land Records, Vols. 8, 9 and 10) Aside from these transactions we find no record of him in Killingly.

He appears to have next resided in Plainfield, NH where he was chosen Surveyor of Highways at a town meeting held 12 Mar. 1776. Ammi Wilson served as private in Col. Jonathan Chase's regiment of New Hampshire militia commanded by Maj. Francis Smith which marched from Cornish and towns adjacent thereto to reinforce the garrison at Ticonderoga on the alarms of 27th June and 4th July 1777, service for seven days. (New Hampshire State Papers, 15:40) He was in Plainfield as late as 25 Aug. 1785 when he was drafted Juryman at a town meeting on that date.

The 1791 census of Windsor lists him heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and five females. By 1800 the household included two males 10-16 years old, one male 16-26 years and one male over 45 years of age, also one female 10-16 years, one female 16-26 years, his wife had apparently died. According to his will Ammi resided in Windsor on the road to Reading, probably in the area which is now West Windsor.

Ammi Wilson signed his will at Windsor on 29 June 1812, it was proven on 15 Aug. 1812. He named his son Joseph to be executor, surety was posted by Jabez Delano. Bequests were made to his sons, Squire, Joseph, Hiram, Samuel and Amariah, and to his daughters, Anna Wilson, Sally, wife of Robert Blood, Betsey, wife of William Flood, and Polly Howland. Also mentioned were two namesake grandsons, Ammi Saunders, son of Amos Saunders and Ammi Wilson, son of Samuel and Eunice Wilson. (Windsor District Probate Court Records, 6:84)

The date and place of birth for each of the children of Ammi and Anna (Munro) Wilson is in their family register found in Vol. 1 of Windsor, Vermont Town Records, pp. 140 and 145:

J04-086 BENJAMIN WILSON (Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 11 Apr. 1739, sixth of the nine children of Benjamin Wilson, the fourth by his second wife, Elizabeth (Sprague) (Doyle). He is said to have died in Canada, "just over the line from Niagara Falls."

He married at Rehoboth (VR) in March of 1762, SARAH SABIN, who was born there (VR) 21 July 1740, daughter of Noah and Mary (Perrin) Sabin. Sarah Wilson, aged 63 years, died at Putney (VR) 12 Aug. 1803.

Benjamin Wilson had service from Rehoboth in 1758 and 1759 during the French and Indian War. The last record of him in that town was the birth of a child in February of 1767.

There is no record of when he settled on West Hill in Putney, near the Dummerston line. At the first town meeting in Putney, on 8 May 1770, Benjamin Wilson was voted to be Overseer of the Poor. He was listed there in the 1771 census of Cumberland County, New York, and was among those minute men in Capt. Abijah Moore's company of Cumberland County militia who responded to the alarm of 19 Apr. 1775 and marched to Cambridge for which he received credit for fourteen days service. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:559) Occasionally given the title "Lieutenant," we find no record of such service. Like his brother Lucas, Benjamin was an ardent advocate of the cause of the "Yorkers" during the turbulent events which led to establishment of the State of Vermont. In April of 1779 he was one of three men who refused to be drafted into the Vermont militia, or to pay the established fine or to provide a substitute. When one of his cows was confiscated to cover the fine, other "Yorkers" under Col. Patterson stole it and returned it to Wilson, whereupon Gov. Chittenden ordered Ethan Allen and his troops to proceed to Putney to assist the sheriff in maintaining order.

In a petition dated 23 May 1785 and addressed to the Vermont Legislature, a neighbor, Alexander Graham of Putney, in an effort to obtain title to some disputed land, stated; "the said Benjamin Wilson did in the course of the winter now last past leave his wife and family and run off with a prostitute to enjoy her -- in New York State." (State Papers of Vermont, Edward A. Hoyt, Editor, 8[1952]:120) At a town meeting in Putney on 4 May 1787, it had been voted: "that the selectmen immediately make search after and take into custody all the estate of Benjamin Wilson that can be found within their limits and dispose of it for the support of his family that is become chargable to this town. Likewise voted: that Esquire Sabin [her father] support the woman for three shillings per month for one year, also the selectmen put out the child to some suitable place as soon as may be." (Putney Records, 1:39) The last record of him in Putney is a deed signed by Benjamin Wilson of Chone, (sic!) in State of New York, dated 2 Feb. 1789, whereby for a consideration of £100. he quitclaimed all his land in Putney. (Putney Deeds, 2:145)

He married at Rehoboth (VR) 29 Nov. 1764, LUCY BLANDING, who was born there 8 Mar. 1746, daughter of William and Sarah (Chaffee) Blanding. Lucy died at Shoreham (VR) 20 Mar. 1832, ae. 87 years.

Jonathan is reported to have served from Rehoboth during the French and Indian War and also during the Revolution. After the Revolution he removed to Warwick, MA where the 1790 census lists him with a household comprised of three males over 16 years of age, five males under 16 years and five females. He removed from Warwick to Shoreham in 1821.

A review of the many marriages of his children with spouses having the family name of Rich indicates that in Shoreham the Wilson boys were frequent and welcome visitors to that area of the town which at that time was known as Richville. (NEH&G Register, 141 [April 1987]:152)

> [Much of the information regarding the descendants of this Jonathan Wilson, which is not hereinafter attributed elsewhere, comes from a manuscript at the NEHG Society titled "Genealogical Record of the Wilson Family" compiled prior to 1900 by a descendant, R. B. Burt, referenced hereinafter as "Burt"]

wife, Isabelle (Town) (Holton). Jacob had a sister Polly who married Sarah's brother William B. and another sister Lucy who married Sarah's brother Christopher. Jacob and Sarah had seven (Rich) children; Albert 1819, Lucy 1821, Caleb 1823, Olive 1825, Lucinda 1826, Eliza 1827, and Charles 1832. (MacIntire and Witherell, Genealogies of the Early Families of Shoreham, Vermont [1984] p. 185)

J04-088 EZEKIEL WILSON (Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 11 May 1744, eighth of the nine children of Benjamin Wilson, the sixth by his second wife, Elizabeth (Sprague) (Doyle). He died at Putney, VT, 6 June 1830, "age about eighty-five years."

He married at Rehoboth (VR) 2 Sept. 1770, SARAH TURNER, daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Wheaton) Turner, and sister of Thomas Turner who married Ezekiel's sister Chloe. Her paternal grandmother, Sarah Howard, and her aunt, Jemima (J04-082) Wilson, are listed as descendants of James Chilton, a passenger on the MAYFLOWER. (Mayflower Ancestral Index [1981] Nos. 18,236 and 35,973) She is probably the Sarah Wilson who died at Dummerston, VT 9 Apr. 1832, however the D.A.R. says that this was the death of a second wife, SARAH JOY.

Soon after his marriage Ezekiel joined his brothers in Putney where his name first appears on the tax list dated 9 May 1775. The following information regarding Ezekiel and his descendants comes from Hemenway's Vermont Historical Gazetteer, 2:5:210:

> "Capt. Ezekiel Wilson was the ancestor of the Wilson families that settled in Dummerston. He was one of the first settlers on Putney West Hill, but living very near the Dummerston line, was much associated with the affairs in the west part of this town [Dummerston] in early times. When the Baptist church was organized in West Dummerston, 1783, he was one of the original members. He was born in Rehoboth, Mass. and settled on Putney West Hill probably about 1780. [sic!] In early life he was a sailor on board of whaling vessels, mostly in northern seas. During the Revolutionary war, he enlisted in the expedition to Montreal and Quebec under General Montgomery in December 1775, and suffered extreme hardship from cold and hunger, being at one time without food for three days. He was a volunteer soldier in the battle of Bennington and fought with distinction. He joined in the raid under Ethan Allen against the "Yorkers" in Guilford. His title of captain came from the circumstance of his being chosen commander of the militia company in Putney. Captain Wilson was a man of strong mind and had a good faculty for settling neighborhood troubles without recourse to law. He died in 1830 and must have been 85 or more years of age."

Miss Hemenway was not a researcher. Although she set high standards, the validity of the material she published was dependent upon the accuracy of the data supplied by her sources. There is no way to tell where she obtained this information regarding Ezekiel, it sounds like something which had been sent by a descendant, we question its validity. If Ezekiel was active against the "Yorkers" he had violent arguments with his brothers Lucas and Benjamin and his brother-in-law James Comins who were all active on the opposing side of this conflict. He is occasionally given the title "Captain" in the Putney records, and the claimed Revolutionary War activity is entirely plausible, the D.A.R. has admitted members based upon this account, however, there is absolutely no record of such service, there is no record of his having served as captain and his name is not found on any of the payrolls submitted by the Putney militia, or by any other organization, for such war service.

Ezekiel Wilson is listed in the 1791 census of Putney heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, five males under 16 years and five females. In 1800 the household consisted of one male 10-16 years of age, two males 16-26 years and one male over 45 years also one female 16-26 years and one female over 45. In 1803 Ezekiel conveyed to his son Abel 163 acres of land in Putney and in return received a lifetime lease on same. This transaction was witnessed by his son Ferring Wilson and by Noah Sabin, Jr. (Putney Deeds, Vol. 4)

[Much of the information which follows, regarding the descendants of Ezekiel Wilson, unless otherwise attributed, comes from a manuscript whose origin is unknown, compiled over fifty years ago which lists names, places, and dates for the birth, marriage and death of over two thousand individuals whose families at one time resided in Dummerston, Vermont. Hereinafter referenced as "Dummerston Families" a copy has been deposited in the library of the Genealogical Society of Vermont.]

Children of Ezekiel and Sarah (Turner) Wilson, all but the first believed to have been born in Putney:

5-236+ i. FAIRING (frequently FERRING), born at Rehoboth (VR) 9 Feb. 1772, died at Dummerston 2 Sept. 1842.

5-237 ii. HANNAH, born 1773, died at Rome, Oneida Co., NY in 1856. She married at Dummerston (VR) 25 Aug. 1790, LUTHER BUTLER, who was born at Dummerston (then Fulham) circa 1767, died at Rome in 1827, son of John and Abigail (-----) Butler. They had two (Butler) children; Lydia and Ezekiel Wilson, who was born 1792. (Elizabeth Pearson White, "James Butler of Lancaster, Massachusetts," in National Genealogical Society Quarterly, 64[Sept. 1976]:172)

5-238+ iii. REUBEN, born 1774, died at Mansfield, Cattaraugus Co., NY 6 Feb. 1864.

5-239+ iv. ABEL, born 1775, died at Dummerston 15 Mar. 1854.

5-240+ v. JOSEPH, born 20 Apr. 1777, died at Dummerston 22 Feb. 1864.

5-241+ vi. ABRAM, born 1780, died 1866.

5-242 vii. ELIZABETH (Betsey), born 20 Nov. 1783, died 11 Aug. 1839. She married at Putney (VR) 15 Jan. 1804, BENJAMIN CAMPBELL, who was born there (VR) July 1781, son of James Campbell. Hemenway says she was the father of E. B. Campbell, Esq. of Brattleboro.

5-243 viii. SARAH (Sally), born circa 1785. "She married a minister named ----- SMITH and removed to Sherbrooke, P. Q., Canada." The Putney records list the intention of marriage for Sarah Wilson and ASHER SMITH of Townshend on 26 Jan. 1803.

5-244+ ix. WHEATON W., born 10 Aug. 1787, died at Dummerston 31 Jan. 1874.

5-245 x. CHLOE, born about 1790, died (GS) 8 Mar. 1870, ae. 80 yrs, buried with her husband in Maple Grove Cemetery, Putney. "She married Capt. JOHN TURNER and had a son Samuel Turner." John Turner died (GS) Aug. 23, 1863 ae. 83 yrs.

J04-091 JONATHAN WILSON (Jonathan, Benjamin, John) born at Newport, RI 22 Jan. 1729, a posthumous child and only son of Jonathan and Hannah (Haile) (Carr) Wilson.

His wife, the former HANNAH NICHOLS, died at Newport (GS) 13 Mar. 1801, ae. 74 years. She is buried there in Common Burial Ground with her father-in-law and three of her children.

The 1774 census of the Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations shows Jonathan Wilson residing in Middletown heading a household consisting of two males under 16 years of age, four males over 16 years and three females, all over 16 years. These numbers probably included the household of his son, Jonathan Wilson, Jr., who is not listed elsewhere. In Newport Historical Magazine, 1:243, is "a list of persons [residents of Middletown] who exhibited to us, the subscribers, accounts of their respective losses, which they had sustained by the depredations of the British Forces since the commencement of the present war, which losses were estimated in the amount as follows:--for Jonathan Wilson, £976.10.0." This list, compiled shortly after December 1781 contains one hundred fourteen names, the loss sustained by Jonathan Wilson was the ninth largest.

The 1782 census shows that Jonathan had removed to Newport where his household consisted of two males 16-22 years of age, one male 22-50 years and one male over 50 years, also one female under 16 years, one female 16-22 years and one female over 50 years of age. By 1790 the household was reduced to one male over 16 years and two females.

In 1787 Jonathan Wilson of Newport was named to be executor and residual legatee in the will of his half-sister, Mary (Carr) Lyndon. (Newport Probate Court Records, 2:131)

Children of Jonathan and Hannah (Nichols) Wilson:

5-246 i. NICHOLAS, born circa 1751. The Rhode Island records list him as having served during the Revolutionary War. It is probable that he died as a result of this service, on 6 Oct. 1783, Jonathan Wilson of Newport was given administration on the estate of his son, Nicholas Wilson, deceased. (Newport Probate Court Records, 1:112)

5-247 ii. SARAH, born 3 July 1753, died at Newport (GS) 26 Dec. 1831. She married at Newport 1 Jan. 1771, Col. WILLIAM TEW who was born 5 Apr. 1745 and died 31 Oct. 1808, a soldier in the Revolutionary War.

5-248+ iii. JONATHAN, born 14 Aug. 1755, died at Newport 1 June 1831.

5-249 iv. ROBERT, born circa 1758, died before his mother. Virginia Steele Wood, on page 94 of Robert Durfee's Journal and Recollections, ca. 1785-1810 [1990], quotes a power-of-attorney giving William Wilson authority to sell a parcel of 1000 acres of land in Glynn county, Georgia, which in 1765 had been originally granted to Robert Nichols, Comptroller and Collector of Duties at the port of Sunbury, Georgia. Upon Nichols' death in 1768 the tract passed to his sister, Elizabeth, wife of John Stuart. By the latter's will it was devised to Robert Wilson. Robert died intestate, next-of-kin were; his parents, Jonathan and Hannah Wilson; brothers, William, Caleb, and Josiah L. Wilson; and sister, Sarah (Wilson) Tew, all of Newport. It was these heirs who on 13 Sept. 1788 executed the power-of-attorney giving the brother William authority to sell the land in Georgia.

5-250 v. WILLIAM, born about 1762, died at Savannah, Chatham Co., GA 29 Mar. 1813, ae. 50 years. He was probably one of the three men of this name listed in the 1790 census of Newport. Mrs. Wood says, "He was in Liberty County, Georgia as early as 1791. In 1803 he was of Charleston, by 1805 he and his wife were keeping a public house at Gascoigne Bluff on St. Simons Island, by 1811 he was living in Savannah, a tailor. Heirs-at-law were his father, Jonathan Wilson, Sr.; sister Sarah Tew; Jonathan Wilson, Jr.; Caleb Wilson; and niece Mary Burdick, all of Newport." We find no clue regarding the origins of Mary Burdick nor of Ann Abigail (Wilson) Bridge who with her husband Joel Bridge was executor of this estate.

5-251 vi. JOSIAS LYNDON, born about 1763, died (GS) 10 Feb. 1788, ae. 25 years, buried with his mother and two youngest brothers. He was named for his uncle, Josias Lyndon, one of the founders of Brown University who, in 1768, was elected Governor of the Colony of Rhode Island. In 1787 his aunt, Mary Lyndon, left a bequest to her nephew, Josias Lyndon Wilson.

5-252 vii. HAILE, born 20 July 1766 (calculated), died (GS) 6 Aug. 1766, ae. 17 days, buried with his mother and two brothers.

5-253 viii. CALEB, born about 1767, died at New York City 22 Dec. 1827, ae. 60 years. (James N. Arnold, Vital Records of Rhode Island, 19:251) He is listed in the 1790 census of Newport with a household consisting of one male over 16 years, one male under 16 and one female.

He married at Billerica (VR) 8 Nov. 1748 ALICE TOTMAN. Little is known about her, Henry Hazen, on page 164 of History of Billerica, Massachusetts [1883] speculates that she was a daughter of John Totman whose name is found in the Billerica records, we believe she was ALICE TOTTINGHAM who was born at Woburn (VR) 6 May 1727, daughter of Henry and Eunice (Wyman) Tottingham, it is noted that some branches of this family in Woburn are known to have used the Totman name. Alice, consort of John Wilson, died (GS) 11 Feb. 1809 in her 82nd year, buried in Old Cemetery on Highland St., Townsend, MA.

Sometime after 1785 John removed from Billerica to Westford where his name is found in the 1790 census, living with one female. In 1806 in his son's probate he was noted as living in Townsend.

6-5 v. JOSEPH, born 9 Sept. 1759, died at Billerica (VR) 14 Dec. 1806. Although he was not yet sixteen years of age at the time Joseph accompanied his older brother to the Battle of Lexington and like him served in the Continental Army during much of the war. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:543) He married at Billerica (VR) 10 May 1791 REBECCA SPRAKE who was born there (VR) 14 Apr. 1768 daughter of Nicholas and Margaret (Livingston) Sprake. He may have had an earlier marriage, the 1790 census of Billerica lists Joseph Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age and three females. Joseph apparently left no children, his will signed at Billerica 23 Nov. 1806 mentions his wife Rebecca and his father, John Wilson of Townsend. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25164)

6-6 vi. JEMIMA, born 17 Jan. 1763. She married at Westford (VR) 18 Mar. 1788 JONATHAN SWALLOW, born at Dunstable (VR) 22 June 1757, son of John and Sarah (Nutting) Swallow. They had seven (Swallow) children, the first two recorded at Groton, the others at Dunst-

Hannah died at Acton, MA (VR) 21 Jan. 1825 ae. 95 years. (Ezra S. Stearns, Early Generations of the Founders of Old Dunstable, Massachusetts [1911] p. 69)

Samuel was termed "of Concord" for his marriage and two of his children were married there. However it appears that he resided for most of his life in that part of Chelmsford which in 1790 was set-off as the new town of Carlisle. The 1790 census lists him there heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females.

Children of Samuel and Hannah (Swallow) Wilson, all births recorded at Chelmsford:

He married first, intention filed at Shirley on 4 Feb. 1780 and at Westminster, MA on 20 Feb. 1780 SARAH BOLTON who was born at Reading, MA in 1755, daughter of Aaron and Dorcas (Winship) Bolton. (Ethel S. Bolton, Shirley Uplands and Intervales [1914] p. 326)

The intention for his second marriage was recorded at Shirley on 21 Mar. 1784 to MARTHA PAGE, born at Shirley 15 Dec. 1750, daughter of Daniel and Ruth (-----) Page. (Seth Chandler, History of Shirley, Massachusetts [1883] p. 566) The death of David Wilson's wife on 8 June 1800 is recorded at Shirley.

David was one of the eighty men from Shirley who answered the alarm at Lexington on 18 Apr. 1775. He enlisted in the Continental establishment, held the rank of Corporal and served for a total of seven years and eight months, almost continuously for the duration of the war. In 1780 he was described as; age 35 years, stature 5 ft. 8-1/2 in., complexion dark, hair dark, eyes dark, occupation farmer, engaged from the town of Shirley. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:533 and 560)

He owned land in the center of town, shown on the early tax records as the Wilson lot, in 1784 he sold this property to James Parker, in later days it was known as Parker Grove. (Chandler, op. cit., p. 688) The 1790 census lists David Wilson in Shirley heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and two females.

In his later days this old soldier appears to have been somewhat of a problem for the town. In his pension application, dated 3 Apr. 1818, he deposed that eighteen years earlier the town overseer of the poor took charge of his family. In 1820 he stated he had no family and in 1821 the selectmen of Shirley petitioned the court to appoint a guardian for David Wilson due to his excessive drinking and other imprudence. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S33930)(Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25130)

No record of the children of David Wilson has been found. Chandler says that he had several children by his second wife and the census listing would tend to support this, however, we find only:

6-22+ i. DAVID, born 10 Mar. 1785, died at Sharon, NH 5 May 1878.

6-23+ ii. ABEL, born about 1795.

J05-021 JACOB WILSON (Jacob, John, John, John) born at Bedford, MA (VR) 19 Sept. 1734, first of the twelve children of Jacob and Hannah (Bowers?) Wilson. He is presumed to have died at Merrimack, NH about 1774, he is not mentioned in his father's will made in 1776.

History of the Town of Merrimack, New Hampshire [1976], which is a somewhat inaccurate source, says he married PRUDENCE ----- and had a child baptized there in 1773 and served the town as Surveyor of Highways and as Tythingman.

We have found nothing in either the town vital records of Merrimack or in the land records to show that in addition to Jacob Wilson the father there was another Jacob Wilson resident in that town.

Child of Jacob and Prudence (-----) Wilson:

6-24 i. ABIGAIL, baptized at Merrimack 24 Oct. 1773.

J05-022 JONATHAN WILSON (Jacob, John, John, John) baptized at Groton, MA (VR) 28 Mar. 1735/6, second of the twelve children of Jacob and Hannah (Bowers?) Wilson. He died at Merrimack, NH (GS) 8 June 1814, buried in the old burying ground on Turkey Hill.

He married, probably at Carlisle, MA MERCY ----- who died at Merrimack (GS) 24 Feb. 1831, buried with her husband.

Jonathan was residing in Billerica, MA in August of 1765 when he and his brother Jacob sold land in Merrimack. (New Hampshire Provincial Deeds) He was in Merrimack by 1767 when he was elected Constable. In 1769 Jonathan, Jacob and Jesse Wilson, all of Merrimack, signed a petition. Jonathan was elected Surveyor of Highways in 1772 and had frequent land dealings, the invariable designation on the deeds being "Jonathan Wilson, yeoman, of Merrimack." His homestead was located on the town line, the land being partly in Merrimack and partly in Amherst. On 26 July 1777 Jonathan quitclaimed to Solomon Hutchinson "all right, title and interest in a certain saw mill on the Souhegan River, said mill being owned in partnership with Thomas Cowan, Daniel Stearns and Zachariah Stearns." (Hillsboro Deeds, 17:456)

The status of Jonathan and his brother Jesse during the Revolutionary War is puzzling. Their names are conspicuously absent from the rolls of Revolutionary soldiers, neither are they listed as signing the Association Test. Jonathan Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Merrimack heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and four females.

Children of Jonathan and Mercy (-----) Wilson, all baptized at Merrimack, the first seven on 6 Nov. 1776:

6-25+ i. JONATHAN, born circa 1759, possibly at Billerica, died at Amherst, NH 24 May 1824.

6-27 iii. HANNAH, born 9 Feb. 1763, probably at Billerica, died at Lowell, MA 11 Apr. 1846. She married at Merrimack on 21 Dec. 1786 EBENEZER HILLS, who was born there 13 Dec. 1756, died there 29 Oct. 1834, son of Ebenezer and Elizabeth (Hassell) Hills. They had three (Hills) children born at Merrimack; Joseph 1787, Mary 1791 and Hannah born 1798. (William S. and Thomas Hills, Hills Family in America [1906] p. 307)

6-28 iv. SARAH, born circa 1767, possibly the one whose marriage to JONATHAN HILLS of Nottingham West was recorded at both Nashua, NH and Dunstable, MA on 2 Dec. 1790.

6-29 v. MARY, born circa 1769, probably at Merrimack. She married 1 Feb. 1791 JAMES GILMORE, JR. of Amherst. (History of the Town of Merrimack, NH [1976] p. 336) He is possibly the son of James and Molly (Wilson) Gilmore, the mother not related to this Wilson family.

6-30 vi. PRUDENCE, born circa 1773. She married at Amherst (VR) 21 Nov. 1793 TIMOTHY CLARK who was born there (VR) 10 June 1772, died 13 June 1805, son of Timothy and Lucy (Butterfield) Clark. (Daniel F. Secomb, History of Amherst, New Hampshire [1883] pp. 534, 538) Prudence possibly had a second marriage to her brother-in-law, EBENEZER CLARK.

6-31 vii. LOIS, born circa 1776. She married at Merrimakc (VR) 15 Sept. 1791 EBENEZER CLARK, who was baptized at Amherst in 1777, son of Lydia Clark.

(Truel) children born at Amherst: Amos 1800, Jacob 1802, Elizabeth 1804, Sophia 1806, Martha 1808, Eli 1810, Mary Jane 1812, Jacob 1815, Elizabeth 1818, and Mary Jane born 1821. (Secomb, op. cit. p. 796)

6-33+ ix. JACOB, born 1781, baptized 26 Aug. 1782, died at Merrimack 29 Feb. 1831.

6-36 xii. DANIEL, born circa 1789, baptized 26 Jan. 1789.

J05-023 REUBEN WILSON (Jacob, John, John, John) born at Billerica, MA (VR) 14 Dec. 1737, third of the twelve children of Jacob and Hannah (Bowers?) Wilson. He died before 27 Nov. 1761 when his posthumous child was born.

He married at Woburn, MA (VR) 21 Feb. 1760 SARAH MANN who was born at Lexington, MA (VR) 17 Aug. 1743, daughter of James and Mary (Simonds) Mann. Sarah married second, at Woburn (VR) 2 Sept. 1762 SIMON EAMES, they removed to Mason, NH. (Charles Henderson, History of Lexington, Massachusetts, [1913] 2:406)

Child of Reuben and Sarah (Mann) Wilson:

6-37 i. REUBEN, born 27 Nov. 1761 at Burlington, MA, baptized there 4 Apr. 1762 "son of widow Sarah Wilson" and died at Mason, NH 30 Jan. 1765.

J05-032 JESSE WILSON (Jacob, John, John, John) born probably at Billerica, MA circa 1754, youngest of the twelve children of Jacob and Hannah (Bowers?) Wilson. He died at Amherst, NH early in 1786. (Daniel F. Secomb, History of Amherst, New Hampshire [1883] p. 788)

He married at Merrimack, NH 19 Sept. 1774 HANNAH STILES, probably the Hannah born at Amherst, NH 26 May 1746, daughter of Caleb and Sarah (-----) Stiles. The widow Hannah Wilson died at Amherst about New Years Day 1799.

Jesse was elected Hog Reive at Merrimack in 1771. On 29 Oct. 1783 Jesse Wilson, yeoman of Merrimack, purchased fifty acres of land in Amherst on which he settled his family. His probate dated 23 Feb. 1786 gave administration on the estate of Jesse Wilson, late of Amherst, deceased, intestate, to the widow Hannah Wilson, Ephraim Abbott and John Mills posted surety. Although Jesse left children they are not named in this file. (Hillsborough Probate Court Records, file 09458)

The 1790 census of Amherst lists the widow Hannah Wilson heading a household comprised of three males under 16 years of age and five females. On 9 Jan. 1799 Ephraim Abbott was appointed administrator on the estate of Hannah Wilson, widow, late of Amherst, deceased, intestate. Cited by the court were Hannah Wilson, the oldest heir, Sally Wilson, Samuel Duncklee and Jonathan Smith, Esq. who was guardian for Jesse and Caleb, minor over 14 years of age, sons of Jesse Wilson, late of Amherst, deceased. (Hillsborough Probate Court Records, file 09536)

Children of Jesse and Hannah (Stiles) Wilson, births as listed on page 180, History of Merrimack, New Hampshire [1976]:

6-39 ii. ELIZABETH (Betsey), born 20 June 1778, died (GS) 1798, buried in Amherst Public Burying Ground. She married SAMUEL DUNCKLEE who in 1799 was cited as an heir in the probate of her mother. He is possibly the Samuel Duncklee who was born at Amherst 4 Aug. 1772, died there 23 Mar. 1859, son of Joseph and Hannah (-----) Duncklee. (Secomb, op. cit. p. 572)

6-40 iii. SARAH (Sally), born 29 Aug. 1779, living, unmarried 1799.

J05-042 SETH WILSON (Seth, John, John, John) born at Billerica, MA (VR) 13 Aug. 1768, youngest of the ten children of Seth and Mary (----) Wilson. He died at Charlestown, MA before April 1814.

He married at Bedford, MA (VR) 8 May 1794 MARY (Polly) PAGE who was born at Westford, MA 1 Apr. 1775. This marriage was also recorded at Billerica. Mary married as her second husband, on 1 Feb. 1816, at Bedford (VR) as his third wife, Lt. WILEY RICHARDSON baptized at Bedford MA

J05-044 BENJAMIN WILSON (Benjamin, John, John, John) born at Groton, MA (VR) 26 Dec. 1740, second of the fourteen children of Benjamin Wilson, the second by his first wife, Ruth (Bush). He died (GS) 3 Jan. 1805, ae. 64 years and 24 days (sic!) buried in Old Cemetery at Corinth, Saratoga Co., NY.

During November of 1769 he married at Townsend, MA DINAH BALDWIN who was born there 17 June 1742 (calculated) daughter of Jacob Baldwin. (Charles C. Baldwin, Baldwin Genealogy [1881] p. 692) She died (GS) 28 Sept. 1807 ae. 65 years, 3 months and 11 days, buried with her husband.

In 1760 Benjamin Wilson, Jr., age 19 years, born at Groton, resident of Townsend, enlisted in His Majesty's Service for the campaign for the total reduction of Canada. He had Revolutionary War service in Capt. Samuel Douglas' company in Col. James Prescott's regiment of Massachusetts militia which marched from Townsend on 19 Apr. 1775 in response to the Lexington Alarm and served for five days until they were ordered back "to take care of the Tories in said Townsend." (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:532)

He was residing on Musequassick Hill in Townsend on 5 July 1774 when he was named to be administrator on his father's estate. He removed to Halifax, VT where the birth of a child was recorded in 1781, not listed there in the 1791 census.

6-56 iv. MARY (Polly)(Molly), born 24 Nov. 1779.

J05-047 OLIVER WILSON (Benjamin, John, John, John) born at Townsend, MA 27 Mar. 1749, fifth of the fourteen children of Benjamin Wilson, the first by his second wife, Sarah (Whitney). He died at Starks, ME on 27 Nov. 1812, ae. 63 years and 8 months, buried in Pierce Cemetery, Solon, ME.

He married at Winslow, ME (VR) 13 Nov. 1773 SARAH HEYWOOD who was born at Concord, MA on 8 Feb. 1757, daughter of Peter and Sarah (Weston) Heywood, the record of this marriage terms both bride and groom "of Canaan."

Sarah survived her husband and died at Milan, Ripley Co., Indiana on 5 Jan. 1832 ae. 74 years and 11 months.

Oliver and his younger brother Joseph were termed "of Canaan" on 16 July 1773 when they each purchased a parcel of 200 acres of land from the Kennebec Proprietors. The deeds which recorded their purchases are the most complete and comprehensive I have ever seen, they are of considerable historic interest, a complete copy is given in the appendix. Oliver was still in Canaan on 5 Aug. 1778 when he and his wife Sarah sold their parcel. (Lincoln County Deeds, 2:247, 21:25, 31:138)

On 2 Aug. 1777 Oliver Wilson and five others enlisted at Hallowell, ME in the service of Massachusetts Bay, under Lt. Col. William Howard "to be employed in scouting up the Kennebeck river from that date until the first day of December, for which they were to receive forty shillings per calendar month, also six shillings per week for subsistence." (William Allen, History of Norridgewock, Maine [1849] p. 81) The name of Oliver Wilson is not found in Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution as having served from the District of Maine. The D.A.R. while overlooking his actual service, has admitted descendants to membership based upon his "furnishing personal aid to the soldiers, by furnishing food and shelter, also transportation or supplies for the Army." (D.A.R. no. 130486)

Oliver was living in Norridgewock, ME in 1776 and was in Starks by 1780. The 1790 census of Sandy River (now Starks) lists him heading a household comprised of one adult male, four males under 16 years of age and five females. For several years he was the only Justice of the Peace in Norridgewock. He imposed fines for "Sabbath breaking, defamation words, trespass and probably solemnized more marriages than any other magistrate has since done in the county." (Allen, op. cit.)

After the death of Oliver his widow Sarah, with her entire family of children, the youngest fifteen, with the exception of Rev. Obed, left Maine and moved to the "far west," Milan, Indiana. Family tradition says that the reason for the migration was the very cold summer in Maine, no crops were raised and there were freezing spells and even snow, consequently the people were compelled to live on fish caught in the Kennebec river. This apparently refers to the notorious year of 1816, known in New England as eighteen hundred and froze to death, which destroyed a large percentage of the region's crops and triggered widespread migration from the area.

Children of Oliver and Sarah (Heywood) Wilson:

6-58 i. SOPHIA, born at Starks (VR) 25 Aug. 1774, died at Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., OH on 11 Oct. 1831. His obit says; "he was a native of the State of Maine and emigrated to Mississippi early in the year 1828. On 4 Sept. 1832 (VR) he was married to a widow, SARAH (KNOX) NEWTON, formerly of Tennessee." She was born in Claiborne Co., Mississippi in March of 1809, daughter of John and Mary (Caffrey) Knox and widow of Benjamin Newton of Tennessee. Her father was a cousin of President James K. Polk and her mother was a niece of President Andrew Jackson. The widow Sarah married, as her third husband, Dr. GEORGE W. SEIVIER of Tennessee and had six (Seivier) children; George P., Mary Katherine, Jennie, Andrew Jackson, Eliza and William Knox.

J05-048 EPHRAIM WILSON (Benjamin, John, John, John) born about 1750 probably at Townsend, MA, baptized at Pepperell, MA (VR) 21 Oct. 1750, sixth of the fourteen children of Benjamin Wilson, the second by his second wife, Sarah (Whitney). He died at Winslow, ME (VR) 3 Mar. 1838, he and his wife were buried in a private cemetery on their farm.

He married at Hallowell, ME (VR) 26 Feb. 1772 EUNICE SPENCER, possibly daughter of Moses and Lois (Preble) Spencer. Eunice died at Winslow, (VR) 13 Oct. 1850 ae. 100 years!

The column "Talk About Winslow" published in the Waterville, Maine Eastern Mail for 7 Apr. 1864 says that Ephriam Wilson settled on the Kennebec River as early as 1778 and was in Winslow prior to its town organization. He built a sawmill, which was still being used, on a stream that is the outlet of Wilson's bog. Mr. Wilson was always engaged in pine lumbering and accumulated large property. Mr. Stephen Abbott settled about the time the town was organized and married the daughter of Ephraim Wilson.

The 1790 census of Winslow lists Ephraim Wilson heading a household consisting of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and four females. The 1800 census of Kennebec County shows Ephraim Wilson heading a household comprised of two males 10-16 years of age, 1 male 16-26 years and one male over 45 years also one female under 10 years and one female 26-45 years of age.

On 12 Sept. 1814 Ephraim's three oldest sons marched with Capt. James L. Child's company of Winslow militia in Lt. Col. Herbert Moore's regiment and served at Wiscassett for fifteen days.

In 1850 Eunice Wilson, then 99 years of age, with her daughters Mary Hamlin, age 56 years and Hannah Richardson, age 70 years was living with her son Samuel Wilson.

Ephraim and Eunice (Spencer) Wilson had nine children, all births are recorded at Winslow:

6-69 i. SARAH, born 27 July 1776. She married 29 May 1796 STEPHEN ABBOTT, Jr. who was born in 1774, died 1841, son of Stephen and Elizabeth (Scruton) Abbott. J05-053 JOHN WILSON (Benjamin, John, John, John) born at Townsend, MA (VR) 16 Oct. 1761, eleventh of the fourteen children of Benjamin Wilson, the seventh by his second wife Sarah (Whitney). He died at Embden, ME (GS) 30 June 1842, ae. 80 years, buried at North Anson, ME.

He married CATHERINE LAW who was born 22 July 1762. According to s short obit appearing in the Brunswick and Topsham [Maine] Advertiser on 23 Nov. 1833 Catherine Wilson died recently at Embden.

Ernest G. Walker in Embden, Town of Yore [1929] says that John Wilson was in residence at Embden prior to the incorporation of the town. From the beginning he interested himself in the town's business, he was the first constable and tax collector and subsequently held various town offices. His sawmill at the foot of Fahi pond was one of the earliest sawmills in town supplying beams and boards for houses and barns over a wide area, as far as the Kennebec river road. John was an early convert to Methodism and was a strong supporter of that organization. His son Jesse Lee, named after a Methodist pioneer became a Methodist minister, his son Reuben is noted in the town records as being "clerk of the Methodists."

We do not find him listed as heading a household in the 1790 census. In 1800 John Wilson is listed in Kennebec County with a household consisting of three males under 16 years of age, one male 10-16 years, one male 16-26 and one male 26-45 years old, also one female under 10 years, one female 10-16 years and one female 26-45 years old.

On 23 Apr. 1818 John Wilson, age 56 years, a resident of Embden, submitted a deposition to support his application for a pension based upon his service in the Revolutionary War. He stated that he was born at Townsend, MA and that in June 1778 at that place he enlisted upon the Continental establishment for the term of six months in Capt. Hunt's company of Col. Gerrish's regiment of Massachusetts line and was honorable discharged at West Point in December 1778; that he enlisted again in July 1779 for the term of nine months and served in Capt. Hugh Maxwell's company of Col. Bailey's regiment until he was discharged at West Point in April 1780; that he enlisted a third time in July 1780 and served in Capt. Porter's company of Col. How's regiment until he was discharged at Butts Hill, RI on the last day of October 1780. All of this service is verified in volume 17 of Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution which adds that he was 5 ft. 3 in. tall with a light complexion. On 27 June 1820 John Wilson, age 58 years supplied an additional deposition to support his claim for a continued pension. At that time his family consisted of his wife Catherine, age 57 years, his daughter Susanna, age 17 years and in very poor health, and his sons Elijah, age 13 years and Jesse, age 11 years. A note in his file says he died 30 June 1842. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, file S35135)

John Wilson died intestate, on 5 Feb. 1844 Dennis Moore of Embden was appointed to be administrator on his estate. The only heirs mentioned in his probate were the sons Elijah and Jesse. L. (Somerset Probate Court Records, 16:190, 323)

J05-056 REUBEN WILSON (Benjamin, John, John, John) born at Townsend, MA (VR) on 4 July 1769, youngest of the fourteen children of Benjamin Wilson, tenth by his second wife Sarah (Whitney).

He married at Halifax, VT (VR) on 27 Dec. 1798 LUCY EVERETT who was born there (VR) 9 June 1770, daughter of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Warren) Everett.

At the age of five years Reuben was an orphan. He remained in Townsend for several years as shown by Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25126 dated 24 Aug. 1785 which notes that Andrew Sparks of Townsend was appointed guardian for Reuben Wilson, a minor in his fifteenth year, son of Benjamin Wilson, late of Townsend, deceased. Surety was posted by Isaac Wallis and Israel Hobart.

After his coming of age Reuben moved at frequent intervals. He was with his half-brother Benjamin in Halifax, VT when he married. He was in Maine with other siblings in 1808. The last record we have found is his letter, furnished by a descendant, dated 11 Aug. 1834 when he wrote from Java, Wyoming Co., NY that "his wife is getting feeble and of his children Lucy is married and lives within two miles, Samuel expects to go to Elinor, Everett married in [New] York and moved to Canedy, Orvilla and Mary live with us and are not rugged."

Children of Reuben and Lucy (Everett) Wilson, there probably were others:

6-88 i. LUCY, born circa 1802, she married and was living in Java 1834.

6-89 ii. EVERETT, born circa 1802. By 1834 he had married and removed to Canada.

6-90 iii. SAMUEL, born circa 1805, living 1834.

6-91 iv. LOUISA, born at Fairfield, ME (VR) 27 Mar. 1808, not mentioned by her father in 1834.

6-92 v. ELEANOR, born circa 1810.

6-93 vi. ORVILLA, born circa 1813.

6-94 vii. MARY, born circa 1818, died 1 May 1852. She married at Allegan, Allegan Co., MI in July of 1843 Rev. ELIZUR ANDREWS who was born at Stafford, NY 27 Feb. 1819, son of Arthur and Mary (Ingram) Andrews. They had a son, Alfred E. Andrews, born 1846. (Alfred Andrews, Genealogy of John and Mary Andrews [1872] p. 453)

J05-057 Maj. FRANCIS WILSON (Francis, Francis, John, John) born about 1741, probably at Billerica, MA, possibly a son of Francis Wilson. We have no clue to his ancestry, he is placed here, after some hesitation, solely because his marriage record calls him Francis Wilson, Jr.

He married at Bedford (VR) 11 May 1762 MARY HARTWELL who was born there 19 Dec. 1742, daughter of Stephen Hartwell and his first wife, Mary (Raymond). (Abram E. Brown, History of Town of Bedford, Massachusetts [1891] 2:15)

On 4 Dec. 1764 Francis Wilson of Bedford, husbandman, for £60. purchased one hundred acres of land in Holden, with the dwelling house thereon standing. It was not until the following summer that he moved his family, on 20 Aug. 1765 Francis Wilson, his wife Mary and their son Francis, who came from Bedford on 9 Aug. 1765 were warned out of the town of Holden. He prospered in Holden, on 24 May 1774 Francis Wilson of Holden, miller, purchased one hundred twenty acres of land on the east end of Holden on the north side of the Rutland road, adjoining the mill pond, including the house and barn thereon. Subsequent conveyances referred to him as Francis Wilson, gentleman. Worcester Deeds, 52:387, 75:210)

Francis Wilson of Holden applied for a veterans pension based upon his service during the Revolutionary war. His deposition, dated 18 Apr. 1818 states that he was then aged 76 years; that he served for eight months in 1775 as ensign under Capt. Jones in the regiment of Col. Ephraim Doolittle; that he also served for nine months in 1777 as captain in the regiment commanded by Col. Danforth Keep; that he further served nine months in 1778 as major under Col. Nathaniel Wade; that again in 1779 he served for six months as lieutenant under Capt. Lovel in the regiment headed by Col. Clapp; finally he served for two months in 1779 as captain under Col. Samuel Denney. Despite this extensive service, which included much campaigning as documented in Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, volume 17, pages 536 and 563, his application was disallowed because these were all Massachusetts state regiments and he had no federal service. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications, S34546)

The 1790 census lists Francis Wilson in Holden heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females. The 1800 census shows him with a family of one male and one female in the 16-26 year age bracket also one male and one female over 45 years of age.

Children of Maj. Francis and Mary (Hartwell) Wilson, all births recorded at Holden:

6-95+ i. FRANCIS, born in Bedford 2 Jan. 1764.

They had six (Lovering) children, the first at Holden, the others at Phillipston; We find only Francis Willson 1797, Polly 1800, Sally 1803, Jesse 1806, and Rusina born 1810. Winifred Lovering Holman, Lovering Lineage [1932] ms. at NEHG Society, p. 30)

6-98+ iv. JAMES, born 8 Jan. 1771.

J05-062 JAMES WILSON (James, Francis, John, John) born at Bedford, MA (VR) 14 Dec. 1752, youngest of the five children of James and Lydia (Fiske) Wilson. He died at Bedford 30 Jan. 1826 ae. 73 years.

His wife was ABIGAIL WHEELER.

On 22 Sept. 1766 Timothy Wilson of Woburn, yeoman, was appointed guardian for James Wilson of Bedford. Less than one year later Hugh Maxwell of Bedford, gentleman, was appointed guardian for James Wilson of Bedford, a minor in his fourteenth year. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25141)

This man appears to have been quite poor, his name appears infrequently on the records. Possibly he was not physically up to par, we find no record of Revolutionary War service for him even though the bonus available for such service must have been attractive to a man in reduced circumstances. He is listed in the 1790 census of Bedford heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years, five males under 16 and three females.

Children of James and Abigail (Wheeler) Wilson, probably all born at Bedford, there may have been others:

6-99 i. ABIGAIL, born about 1773, died 1859 ae. 86 years. She married 21 Sept. 1795 AMOS BUTTERS who was born at Wilmington, MA in 1762, died 1850, son of William and Elizabeth (Boutwell) Butters. (George O. and Georgetta Jacquith, The Jacquith Family in America [1982] p. 109)

J05-068 JOSEPH WILSON (Joseph, Samuel, John, John) born about 1754, probably at Bedford, MA, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Putnam) Wilson. Rev. Henry H. Sanderson, on page 630 of Vol. 2 in his History of Charlestown, New Hampshire [1876] says he was born in 1752 at Woburn, MA. Joseph died (GS) 17 Oct. 1815 ae. 61 years and was buried in the cemetery adjoining his land in a remote part of North Charlestown.

He married, probably at Charlestown about 1774 ANNES HOLDEN who was born at Groton, MA 6 July 1758, daughter of Capt. William and Annes (Nutting) Holden. (Eben Putnam, Holden Genealogy [1923] p. 190) Annes survived her husband by many years and died at the home of her son in Vergennes, VT (VR)(GS) 23 Feb. 1838 ae. 79 years, buried there in the Old Burial Yard.

Left without his father when he was less than ten years of age Joseph was raised by his mother and her Putnam relatives who took him from Massachusetts to No. 4 (now Charlestown) New Hampshire. His name first appears in Cheshire Deeds, 2:507 when on 9 Sept. 1774 he purchased 50 acres of land in North Charlestown. The last mention of him therein is 3 Nov. 1815 when David Wilson of Crown Point, Essex Co., NY and Deborah, his wife, together with Roswell Hubbard of Charlestown and Sophia his wife, in the right of said Deborah and Sophia, heirs-at-law of Joseph Wilson, late of Charlestown, deceased, for $100. quitclaimed to their brother, Samuel Wilson of Charlestown, all of their right, title and interest in the real estate of their late father, being 43 acres of land in North Charlestown bounded in part east on the burying ground and south by Little Sugar River. (Cheshire Deeds, 72:121) This land was situated close to the point where the river flows from Unity into Charlestown.

Joseph had Revolutionary War service as private in the company commanded by his father-in-law, Capt. William Holden in Col. Timothy Bedell's regiment of volunteers for the Canadian expedition in May of 1778. (New Hampshire State Papers, 116:311)

Joseph Wilson was a well educated man who was particularly concerned with schooling. On 13 Mar. 1781 we find him on a committee to investigate the apportionment of funds raised by the town for support of the schools and on 11 Mar. 1806 and again in 1807 he was appointed to serve on the school committee. (Charlestown Town Records, 2:332, 3:209, 221) Joseph and Annes did not always reside in Charlestown, a child was born in Dunstable, NH in 1785 while two years later one was born in Springfield, VT. They were in Charlestown for the 1790 census which shows their household as one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and four females. From 10 July 1794 until 25 Jan. 1797 Joseph served as Town Clerk in Middlesex, Vermont, the first entry he made was to record the births of his five children who were living at that time. (Middlesex Town Records, 1:127)

Children of Joseph and Annes (Holden) Wilson as given by Sanderson, op. cit:

6-106 i. SAMUEL, born 3 July 1775, died young.

6-107 ii. DEBORAH (Debby), born at Charlestown (VR) 24 May 1777. In 1815 Debby, wife of DAVID WILSON of Crown Point, Essex Co., NY quitclaimed her interest in her father's land in Charlestown. Sanderson says she married JOSEPH WILSON by whom she had five (Wilson) children; William, Sophia, Joseph, Matilda and Hannah.

6-108 iii. CYRUS, born 16 Apr. 1783, died young.

They had five (Hubbard) children; Samuel Wilson 1807, Josiah Humphrey 1809, William Holden 1812, Luman Farnsworth 1815 and Annes Melinda born 1819. (Edward W. Day, Hubbard History and Genealogy [1895] p. 225) Sophia (Wilson) Hubbard married second at Vergennes (VR) 22 Feb. 1826 Dea. JOHN WHITE of Panton, VT.

It is said that Jonathan, who would have been about seventeen years of age at that time, served in the Revolutionary army for three months during the Rhode Island Campaign of 1780. (D.A.R., file 69930) We find nothing in the Massachusetts Archives to verify this statement.

Jonathan for a time resided in Lexington where at least one of his children was born. He is listed there in the 1790 census heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and two females.

Jonathan Wilson of Bedford died intestate. On 10 Oct. 1797 his widow Rebecca was appointed administrix of his estate, surety was posted by John Webber and Benjamin Bacon, both of Bedford. On the same date Thompson Bacon was appointed guardian for Levi Wilson, Susanna Wilson and Nancy Wilson, minors under the age of fourteen years, children of Jonathan Wilson, late of Bedford, deceased. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, files 25156 and 25157)

Archelaus was less than four years of age when his father died. Initially his mother served as his guardian, then on 10 Dec. 1763 his father-in-law, Simeon Spaulding of Chelmsford was charged with the responsibility for his affairs. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25184)

Archelaus and his younger brother Supply were residing in New Ipswich, NH when on 17 Dec. 1770 he sold his land there. On 16 Aug. 1771 and again on 26 Feb. 1773 Archelaus Wilson, housewright purchased land in the adjoining town of Temple. (Hillsborough County Land Records, 3:441, 4:302, 304)

The name of Archelaus Wilson is on the list of those men who marched from Temple to Cambridge on the alarm of 19 Apr. 1775, he received credit for fourteen days service. (New Hampshire State Papers, 14:35) A week after his return from this service he was married, he is listed with his wife in the census taken at Temple on 28 Oct. 1775, he signed the Association Test there in 1776.

Archelaus Wilson of Temple on 18 Oct. 1777, for £20 sold his 73 acres of land in that town, the conveyance being endorsed by his wife Sarah Wilson who thereby relinquished her dower rights in the homestead. (Hillsborough County Land Records, 7:25) The following spring he settled in Packersfield where he spent the remainder of his days, an active participant in town affairs. (Parke H. Struthers, History of Nelson, New Hampshire [1968] p. 290)

As a young man Samuel settled in Monadnock, No. 6 (now Nelson, NH) where in 1772 he purchased 104 acres of land. He soon sold this parcel and removed to Fitzwilliam, NH where he first purchased land on 29 Sept. 1774. From time to time he purchased additional land in that town including a purchase from his future father-in-law on 25 Nov. 1778 of a relatively large parcel with a sawmill standing thereon. Following the custom of the times Samuel, as the eldest son, about the time of his father's decease returned to Spencer where he took over the homestead. On 27 Jan. 1783 Samuel Wilson and Lavinia his wife sold to his brother Azariah Wilson of Spencer a farm in Fitzwilliam together with the dwelling house and barn situated thereon also the farming tools. (Cheshire Deeds, 6:98, 6:214, 7:77 and 7:418)

While a resident of Fitzwilliam Samuel took an active part in town affairs. He was chosen hog reeve in March of 1780. His wife was admitted to the church in Fitzwilliam on 8 Dec. 1782 and on 1 Feb. 1784 she was dismissed to the church in Spencer. (Rev. John F. He married at Tioga, now Newark Valley, on 9 Dec. 1799 ELECTA St. JOHN SLOSSON who was born at Stockbridge 3 Mar. 1772, daughter of Enoch and Sarah (St. John) Slosson. Electa died 19 Nov. 1862, ae. over 90 years, and is buried with her husband in the Old Brown Cemetery in Berkshire, Tioga Co., NY.

Elisha Wilson first visited Tioga County as a surveyor in 1790. He started again from Stockbridge on 23 Feb. 1791 with four other men and spent thirty-seven days on the way, bringing their tools and provisions on two sleds drawn by ox-teams. Elisha remained behind at the new settlement while his comrades went back to bring the remainder of their goods. It is said that during the eleven days they were gone he made one hundred and fifty pounds of maple sugar for use during the summer, he had to cut his wood, make his troughs, tap the trees and gather the sap by hand then boil it down without help.

Later he built a log house, with a shingle roof of bark, near the bank of the creek and west of the road. This house, which some years later had a better roof, was standing and sometimes occupied as a dwelling until 1830. After spending two more winters at his old home in Stockbridge this became his permanent home which he occupied alone until January 1797 when his mother and two sisters came to live with him. He also appears to have constructed a mill on the creek which bears his name. (Historical Gazetteer of Tioga County, New York [1888] p. 201-204)

Elisha Wilson is listed in the 1800 census of Tioga County heading a household consisting of one male 16-26 years of age, two males 26-45 years of age and one female in the 26-45 year bracket.

He married at Brown's Settlement (now Berkshire) on 28 Feb. 1802 LYDIA SALTMARSH who was born at Richmond, MA 26 Nov. 1775, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Patterson) Saltmarsh. Lydia survived her husband by less than one year and died 9 Mar. 1846.

A brief biography of Peter Wilson appears on page 209 of Historical Gazetteer of Tioga County, New York [1888]. It relates that he came to Brown's Settlement in the spring of 1793 and made his home on lot No. 217, west of the creek. At the first town meeting of Berkshire, held 1 Mar. 1808 he was elected collector and poundmaster. In 1824 he was overseer of the poor. He and his wife joined the church on 7 Jan. 1816, Peter being baptized the same day. He was elected as one of the deacons on 16 Oct. 1817 and served in this capacity until his death. The 1800 census of Tioga County lists Peter Wilson, age in the 26-45 year bracket, with one female who was over 45 years of age.

Peter Wilson signed his will on 12 Mar. 1844. He named his wife Lydia and his daughter Elizabeth to be executors with Eben Pierce. Also listed were his daughter-in-law, Clarissa Wilson and her daughter Elizabeth, his grandson Edwin Relyea and his other grandsons, Frederick, Franklyn and Willson Westfall. (New York Genealogical and Biographical Register, 58 [July 1927]:284 and 286)

Because of the ten year gap between this man and his youngest sibling we suspect that he was the child of William, who was then 48 years of age, by a second wife.

He married first, at Lebanon, NH (VR) 18 Sept. 1817 MEHITABLE (FOSTER)(LEACH) SMITH who was born at Salisbury, NH 25 Mar. 1783, died at Norwich, VT 17 June 1828, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Greeley) Foster, widow of Silas Leach and widow of Dr. Alpheus Smith. Isaac probably had a third wife, RHODA ----- who was born in New Hampshire about 1800, living with him 1860.

Greeley says that Isaac resided at Hartford, removed to Lebanon and then to Norwich. He is indexed in the 1830 census of Norwich and was in Middlesex for both the 1840 and the 1850 census which shows Isaac Wilson, age 66 years, born in Massachusetts with his wife Mary, age 72 years, born in Vermont. This listing appears in the Montpelier copy of the census but not in the microfilm copy. The 1860 census also shows him in Middlesex, a shoemaker, age 75 years, living with Rhoda Wilson, age 60 years, born in New Hampshire.

She married at Hartford (VR) 16 Nov. 1806 REUBEN HAZEN who was born there 13 Feb. 1783, died 1 Apr. 1850, son of Solomon and Theodora (Pease) Hazen. They had twelve (Hazen) children; Myron 1808, Melvin 1809, Sanford 1811, Edmund 1813, Minerva 1815, Willard 1817, Celinda 1819, Orvis Wilson 1821, Sophia 1824, Simon Peter 1826, Parethena 1828 and Charles Richard born in 1833. 6-172 vii. JOSIAH, born 1 Oct. 1796.

J05-133 ZOLVAH WILSON (Isaac, Ebenezer, James, John) born at Ashford, CT (VR) 24 Feb. 1767, second of the ten children of Isaac and Abigail (-----) Wilson. He died at Manchester, CT in the spring of 1856 ae. 89 years.

The only mention found of his wife ANN ----- comes in two conveyances dated 14 Aug. 1809 whereby Zolva Wilson and Ann his wife, both of Coventry, CT quitclaimed their interest in two small parcels of land in East Hartford, CT. The first, to George Griswold covered a one-third part of a half acre lot with dwelling house thereon. The other, to Jared Spencer was for a five acre lot. (East Hartford Deeds, 9:532 and 14:459) The records of the Congregational Church located in that part of East Hartford which in 1823 became Manchester note that the wife of Zaduah B. Wilson (sic!) died in 1821 aged between 50 and 60 years.

He is probably the Zilpha Wilson listed in the 1790 census of East Hartford heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females.

Zolvah appears to have been quite poor. There are no gravestones for him or his wife nor for most of their children and there is no record of him purchasing land in Coventry, East Hartford or Manchester. He is listed in the 1850 census of Manchester, a farmer aged 83 years, residing with John and Elizabeth Wyllys.

Children of Solva (sic!) Wilson, all baptized at East Hartford on 13 Oct. 1802:

6-173+ i. DAVID, born circa 1785, died at Manchester 1830.
6-174 ii. CHESTER, born circa 1790.
6-175+ iii. SELAH, born about 1793, died at Manchester 25 Nov. 1837.
6-176 iv. MARY (Polly), born circa 1796.
6-177 v. CHARLES, born circa 1799. The Manchester Church records note that Charles died in 1824, aged between 20 and 30 years.

J05-134 ELIAS WILSON (Isaac, Ebenezer, James, John) born at Ashford, CT (VR) 28 May 1769, third of the ten children of Isaac and Abigail (-----) Wilson.

He married at Ashford (VR) 1 Oct. 1789 (also recorded at Hartford, VT) ZERVIAH BEMIS, probably daughter of Ephraim and Lydia (Thomas) Bemis of Ashford. On 27 Mar. 1793 Zerviah Wilson, along with her brothers Jonathan, Alexander and Simeon Bemis, quitclaimed to Ebenezer Byles of Ashford their interest in a 100 acre parcel of land. (Ashford Deeds, Vol. 12)

Elias is listed in the 1790 census of Ashford heading a household consisting of one male over 16 years of age and two females.

According to William H. Tucker on page 125 of History of Hartford, Vermont [1889] Elias Wilson in 1791 owned a lot of land in Centerville section of Hartford, VT and on 17 Aug. 1798 he sold a seventeen acre site for a mill. He is listed in the 1800 census of Hartford heading a household comprised of one male under 10 years of age, one male in the 10-16 year age bracket and two males in the 26-45 year bracket also three females under 10 years and one female in the 26-45 year age bracket.

Children of Elias and Zerviah (Bemis) Wilson:

6-179 ii. ISAAC BEMIS, born at Hartford (VR) 15 Dec. 1791. He died there (VR) 13 Jan. 1792.

6-180 iii. MARY, born 31 July 1793, birth recorded at both Ashford and Hartford.
6-181 iv. ABIAL, born at Hartford (VR) 2 Sept. 1795.
6-182 v. SANFORD BEMIS, born at Hartford (VR) 27 Mar. 1798.

J05-137 PARLEY WILSON (Isaac, Ebenezer, James, John) born at Hartford, VT about 1777, sixth of the ten children of Isaac and Abigail (-----) Wilson. He died at Fall River, MA in October 1849, age 72 years, his death there is listed in the mortality tables of the 1850 census.

He married first, probably at Hampton, CT HANNAH BILL who was born there 26 July 1784, daughter of Capt. Roswell and Rebecca (Burgess) Bill. (Ledyard Bill, The Bill Family [1867] p. 186) Hannah, wife of Parley Wilson was admitted to the Congregational Church in Hampton on 6 Nov. 1815, her three sons were baptized there the same day. On 18 May 1818 she was dismissed to the church in Williamstown, VT where she died 21 Oct. 1826.

Parley was residing in Dorchester, MA when he married at New Bedford, MA (VR) 1 Jan. 1828 SARAH HATHAWAY, born at New Bedford 22 Feb. 1789, daughter of Richard and Sarah (Hathaway) Hathaway. (Elizabeth Starr Versailles, The Hathaways of America [1965] p. 55)

His third wife, who he married at Fall River on 14 Dec. 1837 was ANN (READ) READ, daughter of Oliver and Patience (Brayton) Read and widow of George Read. (Clifford R. Brayton, The Brayton Family History [1978] p. 55) Ann Wilson, age 56 years, was listed in the 1850 census of Fall River, living with Nancy Martin, age 23 years and Hannah Martin, age 1 year. Anna signed her will at Fall River on 8 July 1876, it was probated 16 Nov. 1876. Mentioned therein was George Read, a grandson by George Read, deceased, also several other Read children. (Bristol Probate Court Records, 187:172, 191:336 and 122:534)

Parley was "of Williamstown, Vermont" on 17 Mar. 1818 when he first purchased land there. He made several additional purchases of small parcels, most of them were soon encumbered with mortgages. Shortly after the death of his first wife he quitclaimed to John Campbell of Williamstown, who already held the mortgages, "all of the land I hold in Williamstown." (Williamstown Deeds, 6:265, 293, 8:168, 9:398, etc.)

He died intestate, administration on the estate of Parley Wilson, deceased, was given to the widow, Anna Wilson of Fall River on 4 Dec. 1849. Chauncey Wilson was a creditor of the estate for services rendered during the last sickness. (Bristol Probate Court Records, 94:363, 368 and 371)

Children of Parley and Hannah (Bill) Wilson, all but the last recorded at Williamstown:

6-184+ ii. RUFUS BURGESS, born 8 Oct. 1809 at Orange, VT, baptized at Hampton 6 Nov. 1815.

6-187+ v. CHAUNCEY, born about 1824.

J05-142 JACOB WILSON (William, James, James, John) born at Coventry, CT 20 Mar. 1750, (calculated) first of the eleven children of Capt. William Wilson by his wife Sarah (Rust). He died at Brooklyn, Susquehanna Co., PA (GS) 30 Sept. 1826 ae. 76 years, 6 months and 10 days. He is buried there in Old Cemetery.

He married first, at Coventry (VR) 12 Dec. 1771 HANNAH DIMMOCK, one of the twin daughters of Shubal and Lydia (Stearns) Dimmock, born at Tolland, CT (VR) 22 July 1752. Hannah died 29 Sept. 1780, ae. 27 years, just five days after the birth of her fourth child, and is buried in North Burial Yard, Tolland, CT. (Jacob Turner, Descendants of Humphrey Turner [1925] p. 54)

Jacob married second, in the First Congregational Church, Scotland, Connecticut on 23 Sept. 1790 DESIRE PALMER who was born at Windham, CT (VR) 5 Nov. 1761 daughter of Joseph and Abiah (Robinson) Palmer. On 4 Dec. 1826 Desire Wilson was given administration on the estate of Jacob Wilson, late of Brooklyn, deceased. (Susquehanna Wills and Administrations, 1:56) She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Copeland, in Ulster County, NY, on 5 Mar. 1848. (E. A. Weston, A History of Brooklyn, Pennsylvania [1889] p. 31)

Jacob probably had service during the Revolutionary War. His father was a captain, his brothers John and William are known to have served, however we have been unable to establish that the service credited to men named Jacob Wilson was applicable to this man.

Jacob Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Tolland with a household consisting of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and three females. Desire was admitted to membership in the church in North Coventry in 1801. In 1818 Jacob and Desire removed from Tolland to join their two sons who a few years earlier had settled in Pennsylvania. On 10 Mar. 1819 Desire was dismissed from her membership in the North Coventry church.

Children of Jacob Wilson by his first wife:

6-188 i. HANNAH, born at Coventry (VR) 13 July 1772.
6-189 ii. RACHEL, born at Coventry (VR) 8 Jan. 1778.
6-190+ iii. JACOB, born at Coventry (VR) 6 June 1784, died at Brooklyn (GS) 26 Feb. 1868, ae. 84 years.
6-191+ iv. DIMMOCK, born at Tolland (VR) 24 Sept. 1789, died at Clifford, PA 14 Aug. 1849.

Child of Jacob Wilson by his second wife, Desire (Palmer).

6-192 v. DESIRE, born at Coventry (VR) 23 May 1796. Apparently she did not go to Pennsylvania, she married DANIEL COPELAND who in 1848 resided in Ulster Co., NY. (Weston, op. cit.)

J05-144 Lt. WILLIAM WILSON (William, James, James, John) born at Coventry, CT (VR) 1 July 1754, one of the twin children of Capt. William and Sarah (Rust) Wilson. He died (GS) 31 Mar. 1807, ae. 52 years, in Orford Parish, that part of East Hartford, CT which in 1823 became the new town of Manchester, buried there in East Cemetery with his wife, his son William and two grandchildren.

His marriage to LAVINIA HOUSE on 22 Oct. 1777 is recorded at Columbia, CT. She was born probably at Lebanon, CT daughter of John and Deborah (Guile) House, the will of John House dated 5 Aug. 1797 mentions his daughter Lavinia Wilson. (Jacobus and Waterman, Hale, House and Related Families [1952] p. 429/431) Lavinia married second Lt. THOMAS BINGHAM, widower of her sister Marcia. Thomas was born in Windham, CT (VR) 3 July 1742, died at Royalton, VT 23 Sept. 1823, son of Gideon and Mary (Cleary) Bingham, no children by this marriage. (Theodore A. Bingham, The Bingham Family [1927] p. 405) Lydia died (GS) 8 Aug. 1848, ae. 93 years, buried with her husband.

William had Revolutionary War service from Coventry. On 23 Sept. 1837 Lavinia Bingham of Manchester applied for a widow's pension, deposing; that she was the widow of William Wilson, late of East Hartford who was an officer and soldier in the Revolutionary War; that he first served two months under Capt. Putnam at Cambridge in February and March of 1776; that he enlisted as sergeant in the company of Capt. Sharp in Col. Mott's regiment and served six months at Ticonderoga starting in May 1776; that he also enlisted for two months duty at New London during November and December of 1777; that she married William Wilson on 22 Oct. 1777 and her husband died 31 Mar. 1807; that he died at East Hartford and his occupation was a blacksmith; that she afterwards married Thomas Bingham who died 10 Sept. 1823 and she was a widow on 4 July 1836 and still remains a widow; that her husband resided at the time of his enlistment in Tolland. (Revolutionary War Pension Application W17300) The fact that none of this military service is documented in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848 [1889] provides a good commentary on just how few of the Revolutionary War records have been preserved.

Both William Wilson and his father were speculators in real estate, the name appears frequently in deeds at Coventry, Bolton, East Hartford and Manchester. On none is the term senior or junior used, hence it is impossible to determine whether any specific transaction was made by the father, the son or the grandson William Wilson.

The 1790 census of Bolton lists William Wilson with a household consisting of himself, four males under 16 years of age and five females.

On 12 May 1807 Lavinia Wilson of East Hartford was appointed administrix on the estate of Lt. William Wilson of East Hartford, blacksmith, deceased, intestate. Surety was provided by Samuel Peck of East Hartford. Distribution of the assets was made on 8 Jan. 1812 to William Wilson, Elijah Wilson, Fanny Bissell, Electa Wilson, Clarissa Wilson and Linda Wilson. (Hartford District Probate Court Records)

6-196 iv. SARAH (Sally), bapt. 7 July 1782, admitted to membership in the Bolton Church 23 Feb. 1800. Sarah, wife of Abner Bingham died (GS) 10 Jan. 1850 ae. 68 years, buried in East Cemetery, Manchester. She was "of Orford" on 16 May 1802 when she married in Manchester (ch. rec.) ABNER BINGHAM born at Bolton (VR) 1 Oct. 1779, son of Asa and Elizabeth (-----) Bingham. Sally is not mentioned in her father's probate. On 29 Aug. 1822 her brother William executed a judgement against Abner Bingham of Monson, Hampshire Co., MA in the amount of $26.04. (Bolton Deeds, 10:300) They had a son Francis Wilson Bingham born 1806.

They had six (Bissell) children; Cornelius 1811, Lewis 1812, Anson M. 1814, Marvin Dexter 1818, Frederick R. 1823 and George Francis born 1827. (Edward P. They had two (Cone) children; Henry born 1816 and Ralph in 1818. (William W. They had seven (Fuller) children; Daniel Ward 1819, Clarissa 1820, Lavinia 1823, Addison 1826, Abby 1829, Ella 1832 and Emma in 1836. (William H. Fuller, Descendants of Edward Fuller [1908] 1:156)

J05-147 JOHN WILSON (William, James, James, John) born at Coventry, CT (VR) 24 Apr. 1760, sixth of the eleven children of Capt. William and Sarah (Rust) Wilson. He died between 1837 and 1849.

Although he married and had children born in Coventry we find no such records.

Just about all of our information on the man comes from the pension application submitted on 23 Feb. 1833 by John Wilson, aged seventy-six years, a resident of LaColle (sometimes Odell Town) in the province of Lower Canada in which he deposed; that he entered the service of the United States about the beginning of August 1776; that he was then residing in the North Parish of the town of Coventry; that he enlisted in the company of his father, Capt. William Wilson in Col. Storr's regiment of militia and served until they were discharged late in November; that in the spring of 1777 he volunteered for service in Capt. Paul Bingham's company in Col. John Chandler's regiment of Continental troops; that he was born in North Parish of Coventry in April of 1760; that he lived there until 1796 when he moved to LaColle where he has ever since resided; that he is now a cripple and unable to work. Depositions to support this application were provided by his sister Lucy Fuller of Dorset, VT and by his brother Rust Wilson, also of Dorset. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S16296) His service in the Continental Army is also documented in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848 [1889].

Later notes found in this file indicate that on 26 Oct. 1837 the pensioner was residing in Chazy, Clinton Co., NY. A letter from S. J. Wilcox of Campbelton, St. Clair Co., MI dated 7 Mar. 1848 stated that two children of John Wilson, deceased, a Revolutionary War pensioner, were then living, one in Canada and the other, the writer's mother-in-law, in Michigan.

Children of John Wilson:

6-204+ i. JOHN, born at Coventry 17 Apr. 1786.
6-205 ii. Daughter, residing in Michigan 1849.
6-206 iii. Son, in 1849 living in Canada.

J05-150 ZEBULON RUST WILSON (William, James, James, John) usually known as "RUST" he was born at Coventry, CT (VR) 26 Feb. 1767, ninth of the eleven children of Capt. William and Sarah (Rust) Wilson. He is last noted in the 1840 census of Dorset, VT.

There is no record in Coventry of his marriage nor of the birth of any children. His daughter's death record shows she was born at Coventry, daughter of Zebulon and JOANNA (-----).

The 1790 census of Coventry lists Rust Wilson heading a household with himself, one male under 16 years of age and two females.

On 1 Oct. 1793 Rust Wilson of Coventry purchased a parcel of 150 acres of land in Dorset. He settled on this land soon thereafter, he was of Dorset when he sold a portion of this parcel in April 1795. (Dorset Deeds, 2:80, 345) The 1800 census shows him there heading a household comprised of one male in the 10-16 year age bracket, one male 26-45 years of age, one female under 10 years, two females 10-16 years and one female in the 26-45 year bracket. He is listed in the Dorset census through 1840, not there 1850.

On 9 Oct. 1837 Rust Wilson of Dorset, of the age of seventy years in February last, signed a deposition testifying to the Revolutionary War service of his brother John in the company commanded by their father, Capt. William Wilson. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S16296)

Children of Rust and Deborah (-----) Wilson:

6-207 i. ZERVIAH, born at Coventry about 1787, died at Canton, St. Lawrence Co., NY 3 Dec. 1869 in her 82nd year. She married at Dorset (VR) 12 Feb. 1809 DAVID C. BALDWIN who was born there 7 July 1783, son of Silas and Priscilla (Carey) Baldwin. They had eight (Baldwin) children; Aurora P. 1811, Mosely W. 1812, Almira 1815, Louisa 1817, Lorain 1822, Henry D. 1824, Clark 1826 and Harriet born 1831. (Charles C. Baldwin, Baldwin Genealogy [1881] p. 712)

6-208 ii. Probably ELISHA, born circa 1788. Elisha Wilson witnessed a deed between his presumed father, Rust Wilson and brother-in-law, William Stewart, dated at Dorset 26 June 1812.

6-209 iii. Daughter, born circa 1790, possibly LOIS, wife of WILLIAM STEWART who had several real estate transactions with Rust Wilson.

6-210 iv. ALMIRA, born at Coventry during October of 1792 (calculated), died at Dorset (VR) 3 Mar. 1879 ae. 86 years and 5 months. She married ----- WRIGHT.

J05-156 Dr. FRANCIS WILSON (Francis, John, James, John) born at Coventry, CT (VR) 11 Jan. 1763, fourth of the six children of Francis and Abigail (Fellows) Wilson. He died at Lancaster, NH on 9 June 1811.

He married in December of 1788 TEMPERANCE GIDDINGS. (Rev. A. N. Somers, History of Lancaster, New Hampshire [1898] p. 190) Temperance was born at Hartland, CT (VR) 10 Jan. 1770, daughter of Dr. Thomas and Mary (Colt) Giddings. This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 16 July 1793 whereby Francis Wilson of Lyme, Grafton Co., NH, physician, and Temperance his wife, quitclaimed all right, title and interest in land belonging to the estate of Dea. Thomas Giddings, late of Hartland, deceased, that was set off to Francis and Temperance Wilson as heirs of said Thomas Giddings. (Hartland Deeds, 4:268) Temperance died at Lancaster on 31 Aug. 1811.

An interesting sidelight, the birth date of Temperance Giddings, together with those of her siblings, is inscribed on a stone set in the top of an antique chest which is on display in the Webb Gallery at the museum in Shelburne, Vermont.

Francis was residing in Brattleboro, VT on 16 Apr. 1784 when he sold to his uncle, William Wilson of Coventry, all land that was set out to said Francis from the estate of his father, Francis Wilson, deceased, including his interest in the dower set off to his mother, now Abigail Kingsbury, also the land which was set off to the said Francis from the estate of his grand-father, John Wilson, deceased, including his interest in the dower set out to his grandmother, Dorothy Wilson, now widow to said John Wilson. (Coventry Deeds, Vol. 7)

Dr. Francis Wilson was the first physician to settle in Lancaster where on 17 May 1788 he signed a petition protesting against excessive fishing of salmon in the lower part of the Connecticut River. (Somers, op. cit., pp. 101, 176 and 476) He is listed in the 1790 census of Lancaster heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age and two females.

Francis apparently moved frequently before finally settling in Lancaster. He was in Brattleboro in 1784, he was in Lancaster from June of 1788 through August of 1792, he was in Lyme in 1793 and in April of 1797 the records show him residing in Lunenburg, VT. He was still in Lunenburg on 10 Jan. 1798 when he and Nathaniel White of Lancaster purchased the ferry privilege across the Connecticut River. He was back in Lancaster by 23 Nov. 1799. (Coos Deeds, G4:18, G5:336, etc.) The 1800 census of Lancaster lists his household as one male age 26-45 years, one male 16-26 years and one male under 10 years, also one female 26-45 years, one female 10-16 years and two females under 10 years of age. He later removed to Northumberland, NH where the births of his two youngest children is recorded. Francis Wilson was the first Judge of Probate in Coos County serving from 1805 to the year of his death. (History of Coos County, New Hampshire [1888] W. A. Fergueson Co., publishers, p. 557) His work was lost in 1875 when a fire in the courthouse destroyed all the probate records.

The dates for the death of Francis and his wife, and much of the information on their family comes from page 23 of Report to the Wilson Association, U. S. A. [1866] by H. O. Smith. All but the first of their children were baptized in First Church, Lancaster:

6-211 i. MARY C. (Polly), most likely born in April 1790 probably at Brattleboro, died at Lunenburg (VR) 30 Oct. 1793 ae. 8 years and 6 months, buried in Lunenburg Corner Cemetery. This death record, found in Montpelier, can not be correct, Temperance was only fifteen years of age in 1785, further we do not believe she had a child, was married three years later and then started to raise a family. We believe a number has been incorrectly copied and the child either died in 1793, age 3 years and 6 months, or died in 1798, age 8 years and 6 months.

6-212 ii. ABIGAIL FELLOWS, named for her paternal grandmother she was born circa 1793, baptized 30 June 1799.

6-213+ iii. HARVEY, born at Lancaster 31 May 1795, baptized 30 June 1799, died at Auburn, NY on 2 Mar. 1870.

They had a son Wrightman Chapman who died 14 July 1820.

She married at Middlebury (VR) 14 July 1818 JOHN VALLETTE who was born about 1787, died at Middlebury 3 Oct. 1880, son of James and Alma (Greene) Vallette. They had three (Vallette) children; Francis 1823, James 1825 and Edwin in 1828.

She married 17 June 1830 DAVID BELDING DRAKE who was born at Weybridge (VR) 22 May 1804, died there 10 Aug. 1869, son of Asaph and Louisa (Belding) Drake. They had a son, Asaph Drake born 1821.

J05-157 Col. STEPHEN WILSON (Francis, John, James, John) born at Coventry, CT (VR) 14 Nov. 1764, fifth of the six children of Francis and Abigail (Fellows) Wilson. He died at Lancaster, NH 27 Feb. 1846 ae. 81 years.

He married first, at Walpole, NH (VR) 10 Jan. 1786 MARY (Polly) GLIDDEN daughter of Richard and Abigail (Hubbard) Glidden of Charlestown, NH. (Rev. Henry H. Saunderson, History of Charlestown, New Hampshire [1876] p. 373) Mary, wife of Stephen Wilson was baptized with three of her children in First Church, Lancaster, on 28 Dec. 1814. Mary, wife of Col. Stephen Wilson, died at Lancaster (GS) in 1811, age 45 years.

We find no record of his second marriage, to JANE McGREGOR. She survived him and was residing in Manchester, NH on 31 Oct. 1852 when she had the sheriff execute a judgement she had obtained against John Wilson of Charlestown, MA, gentleman, and seized his land in Lancaster together with all right and equity of the debtor in the Wilson and Richardson store and in a perlash in Northumberland, NH. She was residing in Lowell, MA on 25 Apr. 1856 when she sold this land in Lancaster, the deed being witnessed by her son Hubbard and his wife Lydia Wilson. (Coos Deeds, B26:174, etc.)

Stephen was residing in Hanover, NH on 25 Sept. 1786 when he sold to his uncle, William Wilson of Coventry, "all lands in Coventry that fell to me by the death of my honored father, Francis Wilson, late of Coventry, deceased, and likewise all right, title and interest in my share of the land and buildings that my honored grandfather, John Wilson, late of Coventry, deceased." (Coventry Deeds, Vol. 8)

Soon after his marriage Stephen settled in Lancaster where he erected a log house on the intervale. He is listed there in the 1790 census heading a household comprised of himself, two males under 16 years of age and two females. He soon removed to the village where he erected a building on the north end of Main Street, in the center of the business portion of the village, near the courthouse and jail, operating therein a hotel, a tavern and a general store. Rev. A. N. Somers, on page 112 of his History of Lancaster, New Hampshire [1898] provides an interesting insight to the operation of a store during early times in New Hampshire. He observes that Stephen sold dry goods, groceries, hardware, rum and all sorts of things needed in a new country. In payment he took lumber, hay, butter, cheese, poultry, pork, furs, yarn, socks, flax and the labor of both male and female customers.

Stephen Wilson became a prominent citizen of Lancaster serving as the first postmaster, town moderator and selectman. His name appears frequently in the land records where his economic progress is reflected by the successive designations of yeoman, cordwainer, trader and gentleman. His grave bears a Revolutionary War marker but we find no record of such service, his military title came from post-war service with the 24th regiment of New Hampshire militia. The 1800 census of Lancaster lists his household as one male age 26-45 years, two males 16-26 years, two males 10-16 years and three males under 10 years of age, also one female 26-45 years, one female 16-26 years and one female under 10 years. He was listed in the census of Lancaster taken in 1810, 1830 and 1840, in 1820 he was residing in Northumberland, NH. On 19 Dec. 1831 Stephen and his wife Jane were residing in Whitefield, NH where they operated a tavern which they sold to theirs sons Francis and John Wilson. (Coos Deeds)

Children of Col. Stephen Wilson by his first wife, Mary (Glidden), all births but the ninth and eleventh are recorded at Lancaster:

HUTCHINS who was born there 8 Sept. 1799, died at Newton, MA (VR) 12 June 1870 ae. 70 years and 9 months, daughter of Samuel and Rosa A. (Child) Hutchins. (Edwin C. Infantry, he was later active in the militia at Lancaster rising from the rank of Captain to Major-General in only ten years. John, like his father, was active in town affairs, the first bank was organized in his dwelling house, he was a partner in the local newspaper, on the church building committee and from 1823 to 1825 served as the town's representative to the General Court in Concord. He was last noted in Lancaster in 1844. (Rev. Andrew N. John Wilson had frequent land transactions in Tyringham, many of them with his brother Oliver. He is usually termed "gentleman" in these deeds an indication of his high status in the community. The last transaction on which his name appears was on 18 Jan. 1826 when John Wilson of Lee, "house joiner" sold land in Tyringham.

His intention of marriage to ELIZABETH HENRY was filed at Richmond, MA on 16 Oct. 1785. We find nothing to verify the report that the widow removed with her nine children to Mendon, Monroe Co., NY.

The 1790 census of West Stockbridge lists Shubal Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and two females.

The 1790 census of Stockbridge, MA lists Fairing Wilson heading a household comprised of himself, one male under 16 years of age and one female. He his thought to have removed across the state line from Stockbridge to Canaan, Columbia Co., NY about 1807.

This relationship is proven by the will of her aunt Lucretia (J05-197) Wilson, dated 19 Sept. 1849 which mentions her niece Laura M. Penny. Living two houses from his was a presumed son, Cyrus W. Wilson.

The record of the children of Otis and Mary (Parkhurst) Wilson is difficult to follow:

6-398+ i. Probably CYRUS W., born about 1816. We are ambivalent about listing this man here. In addition to his proximity to Otis in 1850 we believe that Otis and Mary must have had children during the first eight years of their marriage. On the other hand there is nothing else to suggest that Otis ever resided in Massachusetts where this man is said to have been born.

6-399 ii. SARAH P. born at Stockbridge, VT (VR) 13 Nov. 1809, died 5 Feb. 1901. She married at Royalton, VT (VR) 4 May 1837 ANCIL CHAPMAN BABBITT who was born at Greensboro, VT 30 Nov. 1809, died at Waterbury, Vermont 27 Mar. 1896, son of Elisha and Sally (Haines) Babbitt. J05-224 JAMES WILSON (Jonathan, Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA (VR) 29 Aug. 1765, eldest of the twelve children of Jonathan and Lucy (Blanding) Wilson, died at Shoreham, VT (GS) 30 Nov. 1841 ae. 76 years.

He married, intention recorded at Warwick, MA on 31 May 1788, MARY (Molly) RICH who was born there on 31 Mar. 1770, daughter of Nathaniel Rich and his first wife, Phebe (Putnam). She was a sister of Matilda Rich who married his brother Jonathan and of Sarah Rich who married his brother William B. (W. H. Eldridge, The Rich Family [1950] ms. at NEHG Society) Molly died at Shoreham 3 Apr. 1833 and is buried with her husband.

The 1790 census of Shoreham lists James Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and two females. He is not listed as heading a household in the 1800 census of Shoreham, it is not clear as to whether he was living with someone else or whether he had temporarily removed from Shoreham sometime after 1795 when last he had the birth of a child recorded in that town.

6-409 iii. EBENEZER, born (VR) 21 Oct. 1793. He married at Shoreham (VR) 7 Feb. 1813 ABIGAIL WATTS. He is probably the Ebenezer Wilson who had service from Shoreham in the War of 1812. Burt says; "He had children, but I have not been able to find out about them. I think one of them was a farmer who in 1870 resided on a farm four or five miles from Springfield, Illinois, towards Riverton."

6-410 iv. ROXANNA, born (VR) 5 Nov. 1795, died 28 Nov. 1875. 6-412 vi. PHEBE, born circa 1799. She married at Shoreham (VR) 12 Feb. 1821 (or 22) LEMUEL CULVER who was born at Shoreham (VR) 15 Dec. 1798, son of Eliakim and Theodosia (Belden) Culver. They had five (Culver) children; Willson, Phebe, Chauncey, James Willson and George M.

6-413 vii. HARRISON, born circa 1801, died without issue probably at Canton about 1838. Burt says he married MARY PAUL who survived him and married second ----- BUTLER. Another source says he married ----- POND, daughter of Monson Pond of Shoreham.

J05-225 JONATHAN WILSON (Jonathan, Benjamin, Benjamin, John) born at Rehoboth, MA on 8 Feb. 1767, second of the twelve children of Jonathan and Lucy (Blanding) Wilson. Burt says he was born 8 Feb. 1766 but this is impossible if we consider the dates in the Rehoboth records for the marriage of his parents and the birth of his older brother. He died at Shoreham, VT (GS) 26 Aug. 1838 ae. 72 years, buried in East Shoreham Cemetery.

He married first, at Shoreham (VR) on 23 May 1791 MATILDA RICH who was born at Warwick, MA on 2 Apr. 1768, daughter of Nathaniel Rich and his first wife, Phebe (Putnam). She was a sister of Mary Rich who married his older brother James and of Sarah Rich who married his younger brother William B. (W. H. Eldridge, The Rich Family [1950] ms. at NEHG Society) Matilda died at Shoreham (VR) on 8 Sept. 1818 ae. 46 years and is buried with her husband.

Jonathan married second, also at Shoreham (VR) on 16 July 1820 SARAH CADY who survived him and died at Shoreham (VR) 7 Nov. 1843 ae. 60 years.

Jonathan and his wife are listed in the 1790 census which in Shoreham was taken shortly after their marriage in 1791. The census shows that by 1800 the household consisted of Jonathan, his wife and five males, all under ten years of age. One account says that he served in the War of 1812 but we believe this is confused with the service of his son Jonathan, Jr.

It appears that Jonathan and Matilda did not reside continuously in Shoreham in the interval between the two censuses, rather they seem to have been in Warwick for the birth of their third child who repeatedly stated he was born in Massachusetts.

On 8 June 1839 the heirs of Jonathan Wilson, late of Shoreham, deceased, quitclaimed all their rights in his property to William Wilson and Ebenezer Wilson, both of Shoreham. The grantees were Nathaniel Wilson and Susan his wife, Jonathan Wilson and Betsey his wife, William Wilson and Lucy his wife, all of Shoreham, Harvey Wilson and Lucy his wife of Potsdam, St. Lawrence Co., NY, Josephus Briggs and Sophronia his wife and Asa Briggs and Matilda his wife, all of Pierrepont, St. Lawrence Co., NY. (Shoreham, Vermont Land Records, 9:281)

Polly died at Shoreham (VR) 14 May 1872 ae. 95 years, 2 months and 14 days.

William was obviously named for his maternal grandfather William Blanding, however this name is consistently spelled Blandin by William and his descendants. He was a farmer at Shoreham and for a time served the town as first selectman. The 1800 census shows him there with a household comprised of one male 26-45 years of age, one male under 10 years, one female 26-45 years and three females under 10. He is listed in the 1850 census of Shoreham, age 82 years, with his wife Polly age 75 years, both born in Massachusetts, also James Ormsby, age 20 years and Sarah Claflin, age 21 years, both born in Vermont.

Very few carried any name thereon. Nowadays it is abandoned deep in the woods, the five remaining stones, dwarfed by the surrounding trees, are for Fairing, his brother Abel, Able's wife Betsey and two infant children of their brother Wheaton.

Henry entered military service from Westford on 25 July 1794. (Rev. Edwin R. Hodgman, History of Westford, Massachusetts [1883] p. 153) From the births of their children we find that Henry and Hannah were in Groton, MA in 1797 and in Littleton, MA 1801-1803. We find no other records, we suspect that several of the individuals listed in the appendix are descendants of this couple.

Children of Henry and Hannah (Spalding) Wilson, all births are recorded at Westford:

7-1 i. JOHN, born 16 Feb. 1795, died at Westford (VR), 5 Sept. 1840.

7-2 ii. SOPHIA, born at Groton, 12 Feb. 1797, died at Framingham, MA (GS), 2 Aug. 1884. (J. H. Temple, History of Framingham, Massachusetts [1887] p. 748) She never married, the 1850 census of Framingham lists Sophia Wilson, age 52 years, living in the household of her sister Sarah Boynton.

J06-011 Sgt. EPHRAIM WILSON (Samuel, John, John, John, John) born at Chelmsford, MA (VR), 20 Dec. 1759, fourth of the eight children of Samuel and Hannah (Swallow) Wilson.

On 13 Apr. 1780 Ephraim married at Concord, MA (VR), ESTHER HODGMAN, born at Concord, 13 Apr. 1780, daughter of John and Lois (Parlin) Hodgman and sister of John Hodgman who married Ephraim's sister Mary. (Fred C. Hodgman, A Partial Genealogy of the Hodgman Family [1916] p. 11) This marriage is also recorded on the same date at Chelmsford where the groom's name is incorrectly given as Ebenezer Wesson.

In 1820 Ephraim, with his wife ALICE (-----), age 48 years, was residing in Carlisle, MA.

Ephraim Wilson enlisted in the Continental Army soon after his eighteenth birthday, many of the details of his service are listed on pages 535 and 562 of volume 17, Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution. On 28 Jan. 1781, while in the army, he was described: rank, sergeant; age, 21 years; stature, 5 ft. 6 in; complexion, light; hair, light; occupation, blacksmith; residence, Chelmsford; engaged, 1 Jan. 1780; term, during war.

Francis Blake, on page 297 of part 2, History of Princeton, Massachusetts [1915] says that Ephraim Wilson and his wife Esther, with their children Ephraim, Samuel, and Polly, came to that town from Chelmsford on 11 Mar. 1788. Ephraim is listed there in the 1790 census heading a household comprised of himself, two males under 16 years of age and three females. They are easily confused with Dr. Ephraim and Persis (Gaschet) Wilson who were also residing in Princeton for the 1790 census.

On 20 April 1818 Ephraim Wilson of Carlisle, aged 58 years, in his application for a veteran's pension, deposed: that he enlisted in May or June 1778 in the Continental establishment under Capt. Joseph Fox in Col. Henry Jackson's regiment for two years and six months. That he was mustered in at Boston before proceeding to Rhode Island to join his regiment at Pawtucket; that he later proceeded to Morristown, New Jersey where he was honorably discharged at the expiration of his term. In a supplementary affidavit dated June 1820 he added that his family consisted of himself, aged 59 years, his wife Alice, aged 48 years and that he had no means of supporting his family excepting his occupation of blacksmith, that his health was such that he was unable to work and last year was in part maintained by the town of Carlisle. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, file S33931)

His first marriage, to LUCY WHEELER, on 1 Jan. 1793 is recorded at Carlisle, MA. She may be the one born at Marlborough, MA, on 17 Nov. 1762, daughter of Silas and Abigail (Bowker) Wheeler, the relationship has not been proven. (Albert G. Wheeler, History of the Wheeler Family in America [1914] p. 39)

Jonathan married second, at Chelmsford (VR), on 28 Nov. 1805, SARAH (Sally) TUTTLE, who died there (VR) "suddenly, of childbirth" on 24 May 1809, age 40 years.

His third marriage, to LUCY A. DIX, was recorded at Billerica, on 26 Oct. 1823. Lucy is listed in the 1850 census of Stockbridge, VT, age 63 years, born in Massachusetts, living with John and Irene Brown. She died at Stockbridge (VR), 12 Oct. 1859, ae. 73 years and 1 month, buried there in South Hill Cemetery.

Jonathan Wilson of Billerica signed his will on 23 June 1835, it was proven 12 Jan. 1836. He mentioned therein his wife Lucy, his son Jonas Wilson of Bedford and his daughter Sarah Ann, wife of Benjamin Kidder of Antrim, NH. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25158)

Children of Jonathan Wilson by his first wife, Lucy (Wheeler):

7-12 i. Probably SWALLOW, born circa 1795, believed to have been named for his paternal grandmother. He had service from Antrim in the War of 1812. (Rev. W. R. Cochrane, History of the Town of Antrim, New Hampshire [1880] p. 206)

7-13+ ii. JONAS, born about 1799.

7-14 iii. SARAH ANN, born circa 1802. Sarah A. Wilson married at Chelmsford (VR), also recorded at Weare, NH, on 3 June 1829, her first cousin, BENJAMIN KIDDER, who was born at Antrim, 19 Oct. 1801, died there, 18 Feb. 1886, son of Ebenezer and Esther (Wilson J06-014) Kidder, and brother of Lydia Kidder who married her brother Jonas. They had two (Kidder) children: Lucy A. born in 1831 and Benjamin F. in 1834. (Morgan S. Kidder, A Genealogy of the Kidder Family [1941] p. 1011)

J06-017 JOSEPH WILSON (Leonard, John, John, John, John) born at Billerica, MA, (VR) 2 July 1763, second of the six children of Leonard and Rachel (Durant) Wilson. He died at Billerica (VR) 29 Dec. 1829, aged 68 years.

There is a problem with the date of birth for this man. According to the Billerica records his parents were married 17 Dec. 1761, had a child born 15 Apr. 1762 then Joseph was born 2 July 1763, however, the age given at the time of his death indicates that was born in 1761. His pension application dated 8 Apr. 1818 gives his age as 53 years indicating he was born in 1765 but then goes on to say that he enlisted in 1777 when he would have been 12 years of age, 14 years of age, or 16 years of age depending upon just when he was born. The army records, dated 28 Jan. 1781 give his age as 17 years, thus he would have turned 18 on 2 July 1781. This takes us back to the 1763 birth date in the Billerica records and shows that he was only 14 years and 3 months of age when he enlisted for the duration of the war on 8 Oct. 1777!

He married at Billerica (VR), 15 Feb. 1785, ELIZABETH BONNER.

Joseph served from Billerica in Capt. Joseph Frie's company in Col. Henry Jackson's regiment of Continental troops. On 31 Dec. 1779 he was listed: rank, drummer; residence, Billerica; engaged, 8 Oct. 1777; term, during war. On 28 Jan. 1781 he was described; age, 17 years; stature, 5 ft. 4 in; complexion, dark; hair, dark; occupation, yeoman; residence, Billerica; enlisted, 5 Jan. 1780; term, during war. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:543 and 572) Joseph is listed in the 1790 census of Billerica heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age and three females.

On 8 Apr. 1818 Joseph Wilson of Bedford, age 53 years, applied for a veteran's pension deposing; that he entered and was engaged in the Continental establishment in which he served from 1777 until the year 1782 without any interruption or absence, as a soldier in Capt. Joseph Frie's company in Col. Henry Jackson's regiment. In June of 1820 he deposed that his family then residing with him consisted of himself, his wife aged 54 years, his son Leonard, aged 14 years and his daughter, aged 11 years; that he is a laborer and shoemaker; that his wife is frequently subject to apoplectic fits; that the whole amount of said declarant's property would not exceed the sum of twenty dollars. On 15 Sept. 1838 Elizabeth Wilson of Bedford, aged 74 years deposed; that she was the widow of Joseph Wilson; that she married said Joseph Wilson on 15 Feb. 1785; that her husband, Joseph Wilson died 29 Dec. 1829. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, file W14157)

Joseph Wilson of Bedford died intestate. Administration on his estate was given on 2 Mar. 1830 to Joel Fitch. Heirs-at-law were listed as Elizabeth Wilson, widow; Joseph Wilson, son; Leonard Wilson, son; Rachel, daughter, wife of Stephen Hooker, and Laurinda, daughter, wife of Charles Stearns. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25166)

Sally survived her husband and married second, at Chelmsford, MA (VR) 30 Jan. 1823, as his third wife, Capt. BENJAMIN FLETCHER who was born at Chelmsford 18 Sept. 1746, died 25 Aug. 1823, son of Josiah and Mary (Chamberlain) Fletcher. (Edward H. Fletcher, Descendants of Robert Fletcher of Concord, Massachusetts [1881] p. 212) Sarah married third DANIEL LAWRENCE of Hollis, NH who died during February of 1844. Sarah died in February 1843.

In June 1780 Isaac had to stretch his age by several months when he enlisted for six months service in Capt. John Fletcher's company of Col. William Shepard's regiment of Continental troops. At that time he was described as age 16 years, stature 5 ft. 6 in., complexion light, enlisted from Billerica. He again enlisted, in the same company, on 2 Apr. 1781 for a period of three years. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:537)

Isaac is listed in the 1790 census of Billerica heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and one female. Henry A. Hazen, on page 164 of History of Billerica, Massachusetts [1883] says that Isaac removed to Westford, MA. He was living in Bedford, MA on 9 Apr. 1818 when he applied for a veterans pension. He was still there 24 May 1820 when he deposed that he was 54 years of age; a laborer; that his wife was

The 1800 census of Williamstown lists Reuben Wilson heading a household comprised of one male and one female in the 26-45 year age bracket, also three males and one female under 10 years of age. His name is frequently encountered in the land records of Williamstown.

Reuben Wilson died intestate, administration was given to the widow Polly, on 3 Sept. 1824, she posted surety by her son Clark. The estate was declared insolvent, Reuben having previously deeded his land to his sons Daniel H. and Clark. The widow Polly died intestate, Samuel Bean was appointed administrator on her estate, 9 Feb. 1842, surety was posted by Chester Howard. (Chelsea District Probate Court Records, 9:200 and 16:566)

The births of his first two children are recorded at Putney, the others on page 78, book 1 Williamstown Town Records "offspring of Reuben Wilson and his wife Polly." He died (GS) 5 May 1878, ae. 93 years and 2 months, buried with his wife and two young daughters in Sharon. It is said that David was so concerned that his grave be marked with a slate headstone that he prepared one before his death with only the dates left blank.

He married 27 Sept. 1815, at Peterborough, NH (VR), HANNAH CARLTON, who was born at Sharon, on 1 May 1791, daughter of Moses and Sybil (Bullard)(Shed) Carlton. (Mary L. Holman, Ancestry of Charles S. and John S. Pillsbury [1938] page 371) Hannah died at Sharon, on 25 Feb. 1877, ae. 85 years and 10 months. She is buried with her husband in the Old Graveyard on Jarmany Hill in Sharon.

A long, rambling account of the progeny of this family, including several photographs, is found on pages 110 through 115 of Sliptown; The History of Sharon, New Hampshire [1965] by H. Thorn King. It relates that David Wilson, when only a boy was bound out to Col. John and Mary (Wilson) Steele of Peterborough, NH. He lived with the Steeles for many years and they developed a strong affection for David which reflected in his feelings for them. David served under Col. Steele in the War of 1812 when men from Peterborough marched to Portsmouth in response to an alarm that the British planned to attack that town.

In 1813 John Steele sold to David Wilson of Peterborough, yeoman, 120 acres of land located in the town of Sharon. (Hillsborough County Land Records, 100:222) David did not build upon this lot immediately but rather, after his marriage he moved in with his widowed mother-in-law, Sybil Carlton whose husband had died several years earlier. After her death David's wife inherited the Carlton homestead, seven of their nine children were born there, only the two youngest were born in the new house, which David built sometime between 1814 and 1831. In 1965 it was is still standing and occupied by a Wilson. (H. Thorn King, op. cit.)

The 1850 census lists David Wilson, age 64 years, a farmer with his wife Hannah, age 60 years and their children Martha, aged 24 years, Louisa 21, Sybil 19, and Daniel 13 years of age.

David Wilson made his will at Sharon on 13 Nov. 1869, it was proven 31 May 1878. He mentioned therein his wife Hannah, his sons John S., George, and David, Jr., also his daughters Louisa, wife of Nelson R. Patterson, Sybil, wife of Charles W. Royce, and Martha, wife of William H. Hardy. Also receiving bequests were two grandsons, Benjamin G. Wilson and Charles Wilson, sons of Daniel P. Wilson, late of Sharon, deceased. (Hillsborough County Probate Court Records, file 6591)

Abel Wilson had service from Shirley in the War of 1812, he was stationed at Ft. Warren in Boston harbor from 13 September to 7 November with Capt. Noah Shattuck's company of Lt. Jonathan Pope's regiment.

This man has been listed here because of his age, because he resided in Shirley where David is known to have children and because he removed from there to Westminster where his presumed father had married, in all a rather weak connection. The 1850 census of Westminster, MA lists Abel Wilson, age 55 years, no wife, with children Maria, age 15 years and George, age 11 years all born in Massachusetts.

For his third wife Jesse married, on 3 Mar. 1812, PHEBE LOCKE, of Rome, ME who was born 1 Feb. 1781, died 31 Dec. 1816, probably daughter of Edward Locke.

Finally, on 15 July 1817, at Pittston, Me (VR), Jesse married CATHERINE A. He married at Pittston, ME, intention recorded 10 Jan. 1806, ELIZABETH (Betsey) COLBURN, who was born 31 Jan. 1786, probably in Pittston, daughter of Benjamin and Joanna (Tibbets) Colburn. (Silas R. Coburn, Genealogy of Colburn-Coburn Families [1913] p. 99) Betsey died at Augusta 7 Feb. 1843 ae. 57 years.

Caleb was less than one year old when his father died, his birth was not recorded. Proof to his ancestry is found in his mother's probate file wherein Jonathan Smith, Esq. was named to be guardian for Jesse and Caleb Wilson, minors over fourteen years of age, sons of Jesse Wilson, late of Amherst, deceased.

This is the first time that the name Caleb appears in this family. Apparently he was named for Caleb Stevens, husband of his aunt, Elizabeth (J05-029) Wilson who resided in Randolph, Maine. When the 1850 census was taken Jesse, together with his son William, was living in Augusta with the family of his son Jesse.

Children of Caleb and Betsey (Colburn) Wilson, the first eight births were recorded at Pittston, the younger ones born probably in Augusta:

His wife, MARY ----- was born in New York, about 1799.

On 2 Apr. 1881 Solomon Wilson of Soguel, Santa Cruz Co., CA applied for a veteran's pension deposing; that in June 1814, while he was a resident of Billerica, MA he enrolled in the company of Capt. John Baldwin in the regiment of Massachusetts militia commanded by Col. Silas Richardson; that since his discharge he resided in Schoharie, Schoharie Co., NY for three years, in White Creek, Washington Co., NY for twenty-two years, in Elkhart, Elkhart Co., IN for thirty-one years and Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz Co., CA for eight years; that at the time of his enlistment he was 5 ft. 10-1/2 in. tall, black eyes, black hair and dark complexion. (War of 1812 Pension Application, SO 34656) This application was attested by W. R. Wilson based upon his long personal acquaintance.

It is noteworthy that both times we find this man in the census he was living near but not at the location given in his deposition. The 1825 census of Cambridge, Washington Co., NY lists Solomon Wilson heading a household comprised of himself, his wife and three females under 16 years of age. The 1850 census of Jefferson Township, Elkhart Co., IN lists Solomon Wilson, a farmer age 54 years, born in Massachusetts with his wife Mary, age 51 years, born in New York and their two daughters, Lucy, age 26 years and Clarissa, age 13 years, both born in New York.

The 1850 census of Corinth lists Elisha Wilson, a farmer, age 73 years with his wife Eleanor, age 70 years, both born in Massachusetts and their son Halsey, age 30 years, born in New York. Also living in the household was Eliza McIntosh, age 65 years, born in Massachusetts, she was possibly Elisha's sister Betsey who was born 22 July 1776.

Elisha made his will at Corinth on 28 Oct. 1861, it was proven 14 May 1869. Heirs-at-law were listed as Hiram Wilson of Ticonderoga, NY, Henry Wilson of Rochester, NY, Harvey Wilson of Stillwater, MN, and Halsey Wilson, also of Stillwater, who was named to be executor. (Saratoga Surrogates Court Records, Box 80:45)

He married first, 13 Nov. 1799, seventeen year old CHRISTIANA GRAY, who was born at Wiscassett, ME, on 18 May 1782, daughter of Capt. John and Hannah (Boynton) Gray. (Casimer P. Stevens, Gray Family Records [1915] p. 19) Christiana died 13 Nov. 1834, ae. 52 years, 5 months and 24 days, probably at Bingham, ME.

The Rev. Obed married second, at Hallowell, ME (VR), on 2 Mar. 1837, MARTHA (-----) COX, widow of Capt. Charles Cox of Hallowell. Martha survived her husband and died at Chelsea, MA on 12 Sept. 1864, ae. 87 years and 5 months, her death record says she was born in Gardiner, ME.

Obed resided in Starks until 1802 when he removed to Bingham where he remained for thirty-five years before settling in Skowhegan. He was a member of the Territorial Convention which framed the constitution for the State of Maine and was representative to the first session of the legislature after Maine was admitted to the union. Subsequently he was re-elected to the house and later to the senate, a testimony to the esteem in which he was held by his constituents.

It is likely that Artis accompanied other members of this family from Maine to Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., OH before he settled in Indiana. He first recorded ownership in Ripley Co. on 11 Sept. 1833, it is probable that he had resided there for several years before this transaction. After the death of her husband Hannah returned to Maine and was married second, at Bingham (VR), 20 July 1828, by Rev. Joseph left his home in Maine about 1819 and went to Cincinnati where he was a commission merchant. In 1829 he removed to Madison to enter the wholesale liquor and rectifying business. He was very prosperous and soon was considered wealthy. He was generous to a fault, for a friend he cosigned a note for a large amount of money, when his friend disappeared Joseph suffered financial ruin. His family never forgave him feeling that he had placed his friendship above their welfare. To support themselves three of his daughters took up teaching, Joseph served three terms as City Treasurer. The 1850 census of Madison lists him in the sixth ward, a merchant, age 61 years, born in Maine with his wife Elizabeth, age 56 years, born in Maryland and their children; Elizabeth age 20 years, Susan 18, Mary 16, Sarah A. 14, and Joseph H. age 12 years, all born in Ohio.

In his last years Joseph and his wife went to live with their son in Cincinnati. After his death their daughters frequently visited the mother, they eventually persuaded her to return to Madison where they resided in the Fairmount settlement on the cliff above the town.

Elijah gradually acquired a large amount of land in Embden, close by the Anson line. He owned almost continuously from the Kennebec river to about a half mile west of the outlet from Fahi pond. Just north of Elijah's land were several hundred acres belonging to his father and sisters so that by 1840 the entire southeast part of Embden was a Wilson neighborhood. (Ernest G. Walker, Embden, Town of Yore [1929] p. 207)

Elijah Wilson is listed in the 1850 census of North Anson, a farmer with his wife Sarah, both 44 years of age, with their children; Emily S. age 16 years, Flavilla T. 14, Joseph H. 9, Justus B. 7, John L. 4 and Augustus H. who was one year old. Late in life Elijah and Sarah removed to Solon to join his wife's family.

He owned a farm in North Anson where he was listed in the 1850 census as heading a household comprised of himself, age 41 years, his wife Lucy, age 33 years and their children; Philander, age 12 years, Alanson L. 5, and Allen who was only one month old. It is reported that he was not a tall man, rather heavy-set but very spry and quick in his movements.

It is said that no other Embden preacher left a deeper impression upon the community he served that did Rev. Jesse Lee Wilson. His name was more or less synonymous with the Methodist faith along the Canada Trail and in Embden and North Anson. He retired sometime before his death and lived on a little farm in Embden, the town line was its southern boundary. (Ernest G. Walker, Embden, Town of Yore [1929] pp. 207, 304)

J06-095 FRANCIS WILSON (Francis, Francis, Francis, John, John) born at Bedford, MA, 2 Jan. 1764, birth recorded at Holden, MA, oldest of the four known children of Francis and Mary (Hartwell) Wilson.

He married MARY FOSTER.

Aside from the record of his birth all of our information on this man comes from a very early D.A.R. listing, no. 000198. He is not listed as the head of a family in the 1790 or the 1800 census of Massachusetts.

Child of Francis and Mary (Foster) Wilson:

7-179 i. MARY HARTWELL, born circa 1789. She married MARTIN HOWE, and had a daughter, Sarah Maria Howe.

Stephen married first, at Westford, MA, (VR) on 13 Mar. 1791, RACHEL MANSFIELD. The wife of Stephen Wilson died at Tyngsboro (VR), on 7 Jan. 1805.

For his second wife, Stephen married at Tyngsboro (VR), 27 Aug. 1806, ABIGAIL (THOMPSON) WOOD, widow of Jonathan Wood.

On 20 Jan. 1794 Stephen Wilson and Rachel his wife, from Carlisle in the County of Middlesex, were warned out of Chelmsford, MA. (NEH&G Register, 83[April 1929]:167) This is difficult to reconcile with the report that Stephen Wilson from Chelmsford served under General Lincoln "in order to support constitutional government" during Shay's Rebellion in Massachusetts. (Rev. Wilson Waters, History of Chelmsford, Massachusetts [1917] p. 361)

The 1800 census of Tyngsboro lists Stephen Wilson heading a household comprised of one male in the 26-45 year age bracket, four females under 10 years of age, one female 10-16 years, one female 26-45 years and one female over 45 years old.

Children of Stephen Wilson by his first wife, Rachel (Mansfield), the spacing of their births and the census records both indicate that there were others:

7-180 i. Child, born circa 1793, died (VR) 6 Mar. 1796.

7-181 ii. HANNAH, born 8 Oct. 1801, died in the fall of 1866. She married at Danvers, MA (VR), 10

(Perley Derby, "The Hutchinsons of New England" in Essex Institute Historical Collections, 10:2[Oct. 1868]:52)

7-182 iii. Infant, born circa 1803, died (VR) 25 Oct. 1804.

7-183+ iv. STEPHEN, born, at Chelmsford, MA, probably 21 Oct. 1804, died at Manchester, 10 Jan. 1899.

7-184 v. ABIGAIL, born about 1805, died (VR) 1 Mar. 1817 ae. 12 years.

Child of Stephen Wilson by his second wife, Abigail (Thompson)(Wood), there may have been others:

7-185 vi. Child, born circa 1810, died 30 Mar. 1815.

J06-098 JAMES WILSON (Francis, Francis, Francis, John, John) born at Holden, MA (VR), 8 Jan. 1771, youngest of the four recorded children of Maj. Francis and Mary (Hartwell) Wilson. He probably died between 1804 and 1810, he is not found in the 1810 census.

He married at Holden (VR), 5 Nov. 1795, AMY (frequently AMA) WHEELER, who was born there (VR), 19 Aug. 1776 daughter of Jonathan and Freelove (-----) Wheeler. Amy Wilson, daughter of Jonathan Wheeler, died at the home of her son in Roxbury, VT (VR), 25 Jan. 1858, ae. 81 years.

He appears to be the James Wilson listed in the 1800 census of Pomfret, Vermont heading a family consisting of three males under 10 years of age, with one male and one female in the 26-45 year age bracket.

Children of James and Amy (Wheeler) Wilson:

7-188 iii. AMY, born circa 1802. She married at Brookfield (VR), 9 Nov. 1823, as his second wife, MOODY JOHNSON. They had four (Johnson)

He married at Charlestown (VR), where the intention was filed 4 Feb. 1816, a year before the ceremony was performed in February 1817, to SARAH PARKER who was born there, 9 Mar. 1797, daughter of Elijah and Elizabeth (Farwell) Parker. (Descendants of Henry Farwell of Concord, Massachusetts [1876]) Sarah died at Vergennes (VR)(GS) 2 Oct. 1842 ae. 45 years, buried in the Old Burial Yard.

For his second wife Samuel returned to Charlestown where he married, intention recorded 17 Dec. 1843, FANNY JONES PARKER, who was born there, 3 Dec. 1812, daughter of Col. David and Fanny (Jones) Parker, a niece of his first wife. Fanny died at Vergennes (VR)(GS), 27 Dec. 1882, buried with her husband.

Samuel was active in town affairs at Charlestown. He was elected to the school committee in 1818 and again in 1819, elected hogreive 1822, petit juror 1826 and moderator in 1826. He served as selectman for three years starting in 1826, the last report he signed, before moving to Vermont, was dated 25 Feb. 1828. (Charlestown Town Records, 3:491) He resided in North Charlestown and should not be confused with Samuel (F06----) Wilson, born 4 May 1787 who, with his wife Sally (Nesmith), resided for a time in the southern part of that town.

The records show that Samuel continued to be active in civic affairs after his move to Vergennes. He served is several minor town offices, as city clerk and as one of the three city aldermen. He resided in "the only brick house facing the common" a building which is still standing and in good repair over 150 years after it was first occupied by Samuel. An illustrated account of this house, not particularly accurate in regards to Samuel's occupancy, appeared in Vermont Life. The 1850 census of Vergennes lists Samuel Wilson, age 59 years, a cabinet maker with his wife Hannah J., age 48 years (sic!), both born in New Hampshire, and his daughter Sarah E., age 11 years, who was born in Vermont. Some years before his death Samuel sold the brick house and moved into the adjoining smaller, frame building which had earlier been his cabinet making shop.

The will of Fanny J. P. Wilson is dated 28 Jan. 1867, it was presented to the court 2 Jan. 1883. Fanny left many bequests, first to her mother Fanny Parker to have the use of her entire estate during her lifetime after which her husband Samuel Wilson was to have the use of the income

Further, if Jane C. Dana should not survive the testator her share should go to Caroline M. Richards, if Mary C. B. Jones should not survive her share was to go to her sister Catherine Fletcher; in case Caroline Maxwell should not survive her share was to go the her niece, Harriet N. J. Dodd. It was also stated that no property which shall come from the estate of my husband shall be considered a part of my estate for the purpose of paying the legacies above named, all such property was to go to Caroline M. Richards or her heirs. The executor was to be her friend, Milo R. Fisher. (New Haven District Probate Court Records, 23:493)

A codicil to this will, dated 28 Aug. 1880, revoked the bequests to Mary G. Wilson of 1/20 part, to Sarah E. Wines of 1/20 part and to the library in Vergennes, a 5/20 part and added Ada Fisher and Ruth Fisher, children of Milo R. and Kate Fisher, a 1/20 part each; to Nellie F. Richards a 1/20 part and to Caroline M. Richards a 2/10 part. Jane E. Dana was to receive the income from the remaining 2/20ths for her lifetime after which it was to go to Caroline M. Richards. The inventory of the estate, taken 17 Mar. 1883 shows $9,413.50 all in government bonds. On 1 Nov. 1883 Emerson Holland and Nelson Richards, both of Panton, VT were named as executors de bonis non in place of Milo R. Fisher, deceased. Distribution of the assets was not made until 9 Feb. 1887 when the following items were paid; Jane E. Dana a 2/20 part, also the income from a 2/20 part with reversion to Caroline M. Richards; Caroline M. Richards 4/20 plus the reversion; Nellie F. Richards a 2/20 part; Katie M. Richards, now Fisher, a 1/20 part; Jennie M. Richards, now Booth, a 1/20 part; Estate of Caroline E. Callender, formerly Caroline E. Richards, now deceased, a 1/20 part; Frank D. Richards, a 1/20 part; William N. Richards, a 1/20 part; Charles W. Richards, a 1/20 part; Ada Fisher a 1/20 part;

Ruth Fisher a 1/20 part; Caroline Maxwell, a 1/20 part and Catherine Fletcher, a 1/20 part.

Samuel died intestate, administration on his estate was granted to William N. Richards, of Panton, on 18 Jan. 1887 with surety by Nelson Richards, also of Panton. His real estate, consisting of the house and lot near the park, a barn and lot adjoining F. W. Woodbridge and ten acres of meadow land was valued at $1,350.00. His personal estate, after paying the executors expenses, came to $103.27 which was divided between Jane E. Dana and Caroline M. Wilson, his only heirs. The real estate was conveyed to them in common and undivided, each to have an equal one half. (New Haven District Probate Court Records 25:148)

We find little record of this John Wilson, he should not be confused with the John Wilson, long a steamboat pilot on Lake Champlain, who died at Vergennes, on 28 Feb. 1832, leaving a widow Sophia J. Wilson and two sons.

Only known child of John and Martha (-----) Wilson:

7-213 i. MARY C., born about 1830, probably at Vergennes.

They resided on Prospect Hill in Nelson until about 1825 when they moved to a sawmill located north of the town where Asa spent the remainder of his days. He was Fife Major of the 12th New Hampshire Regiment and played the bass viol in church. As well as being a carpenter and lumberman he served the town as selectman and as captain of the militia. (Native Ministers of New Hampshire [1906] p. 531)

J06-121 ARCHELAUS WILSON (Archelaus, Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, John) born at Nelson, NH (VR), 16 Apr. 1781, third of the eight children of Archelaus and Sarah (Morse) Wilson.

He married, intention recorded at Salem, MA, on 9 Oct. 1812, CHARLOTTE FARNUM, who was born in 1786. The Columbian Centinel, for 16 Aug. 1820, says Mrs. Charlotte Wilson, wife of Archelaus Wilson, died at Charlestown, MA, age 34 years.

Archelaus appears to have been an itinerant carpenter residing in Salem and Charlestown, MA and in Dublin, NH. The 1850 census shows Archelaus Wilson, age 72 years, a carpenter, living in Dublin, with Albin and Sarah Bancroft. Sarah was born in Massachusetts about 1819, possibly this was a first marriage for his younger daughter. Archelaus' brother Abijah was residing nearby.

Children of Archelaus and Charlotte (Farnum) Wilson, there may have been others:

According to Leonard and Seward on page 665 of History of Dublin, New Hampshire [1920], Thaddeus O. Wilson operated a blacksmith shop in the village of Harrisville. The father took over this business when his son moved away, we find in the 1850 census of Dublin, Abijah Wilson, age 64 years, a blacksmith, with his wife Betsey, age 60 years. It is probable that they died shortly thereafter, their son Maynard shortly moved from Nelson back to Harrisville, to take over the blacksmith business, there is no mention of the parents when Maynard died in 1855.

Children of Abijah and Betsey (Maynard) Wilson, all births recorded at Nelson:

This account relates that Samuel, Abigail and their two eldest children moved from Spencer to Castleton, Rensselaer Co., NY where his third child was born in 1821. They went from Spencer to Albany, and then by the Erie canal to Buffalo, and thence by the steamer CHARLES TOWNSEND to Detroit, where they purchased three teams of horses with which they made the overland journey in ten days time, arriving in Berrien on 13 June 1835.

Samuel lived on the farm of his son-in-law Henry Tudor in Berrien until 1837, when he purchased a farm in the southeast part of the township, where he started a brickyard which continued until 1845. He married SELDINA BROWN, of Luzerne County, Pennsylvania who was born about 1792 (calculated). Seldina died at Brooklyn (GS), 14 Feb. 1867, ae. 75 years, buried with her husband.

Jacob was the first of his family to remove from Connecticut to Susquehanna county. He settled first at Kingsley where he taught school for several terms. By 1811 he was in Brooklyn where initially he taught school in his log house which was located about four miles from Montrose. (Emily C. Blackman, History of Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania [1873] pp. 131, 136) Jacob was chosen deacon of the Congregational Church of Brooklyn in 1815 and at the change of government to Presbyterian in 1823 he was a ruling elder. (E. A. Weston, A History of Brooklyn, Pennsylvania [1889] p. 32)

He is listed in the 1830 census of Brooklyn heading a household comprised of one male in the 5-10 year age group, one male in the 10-15 year bracket, and one in the 40-50 year group, also one female under 5 years of age, one female 5-10 years, one female 15-20, and one female in the 30-40 year group.

The marble stone in the Old Cemetery at Brooklyn, which marks the resting place of Jacob and his family is so badly weathered and eroded that it is now practically illegible. The inscriptions which we list come from readings made by others many years ago.

Dimmock died at Clifford, Susquehanna Co., PA, on 14 Aug. 1849, ae. 60 years, buried in Elkdale Cemetery.

Melia married second, as his third wife, JOSEPH JACKSON, who is said to have been born in Londonderry, NH on 25 February 1787, died at Brooklyn, Susquehanna Co., PA, 22 Aug. 1864. Melia died 3 Apr. 1867, and was buried with her first husband. (E. A. Weston, A History of Brooklyn, Pennsylvania [1889] p. 114)

Dimock came from Coventry, Connecticut in June of 1817, his brother having come several years before him and their father coming the year after. He removed to Clifford about 1834. (Weston, op. cit., p. 31) His name is spelled Dimmock in Connecticut and Dimock in Pennsylvania. He should not be confused with Dimock D. Wilson, no relation, who was born at Montrose, PA, on 7 June 1815, son of Samuel and Susanna (Hoar) Wilson.

The 1830 census of Brooklyn lists Dimock Wilson heading a household comprised on one male in the 10-15 year age group, one male 30-40 years of age, one female 5-10 years, one female 40-50 years, and one female, probably his widowed step-mother, in the 50-60 year age bracket.

(Frank B. Kingsbury, History of the Town of Langdon, New Hampshire [1932] p. 741) William died at Langdon (GS), 18 Feb. 1842, in the 66th year of his age, buried there in West Cemetery.

He married first, at Langdon (VR), 30 Dec. 1799, ELIZABETH (Betsey) PEABODY. Kingsbury, op. cit., on page 611 gives the date for this marriage as 30 Dec. 1798. Betsey died (VR) 11 Sept. 1810.

William married second, also at Langdon (VR), 17 Aug. 1813 MELINDA (Minda) PROUTY, who was born there, 6 Dec. 1788, daughter of Daniel and Catherine (Palmer) Prouty. (Kingsbury, p. 633) She is listed in the 1850 census of Langdon, age 61 years, born in New Hampshire, with her twin daughters Ellen and Elizabeth, aged 21 years. Minda died 4 Nov. 1878, ae. 90 years, buried with her husband.

About the year 1784 William, with his mother Martha Rockwell and her father, Amariah Rockwell came to Langdon from Coventry, Connecticut. About 1800 he inherited forty acres of land and a one-half interest in the mill from his maternal grandfather and soon erected a log house in which he resided until about 1816 when he erected a two-story dwelling. He lost this house to a fire about 1825 and on the site erected a duplicate of his former house in which four generations of the Wilson family resided over a period of 130 years. (Kingsbury, pp. 28, 154, 180, 227)

William and Lavinia (House) Wilson. He died 6 Mar. 1848 (GS), ae. 59 years, and is buried in East Cemetery, Manchester, CT in the same plot as his parents.

We can find nothing regarding the origins of his wife HANNAH -----, who died 24 Mar. 1844, and is buried with her husband.

The land records in Bolton do not differentiate between William the father and William his son, however the elder died in 1807, just about the time the son, came of age so we can reasonably assume that any transactions prior to that date were by the father and those afterwards were by the son who gradually acquired the shares in the father's estate held by his siblings. William later resided in Orford Parish, East Hartford which in 1823 became Manchester, the homestead of 115 acres was located partly in Bolton and partly in Manchester.

William attended the First Congregational Church in Manchester where the death of his child was noted in 1813. He later became active in the financing of the Methodist Episcopal Church in that town, at one time he had loaned that organization so much money that he held legal title to the meeting house and the land on which it stood. (Manchester Deeds, 3:18, 83, 219, etc.) For a time William served as selectman of Manchester.

On 23 Mar. 1810 Elijah Wilson, of East Hartford, CT, quitclaimed to his brother William, all of his rights in the estate of their father, William Wilson, late of East Hartford, deceased. (East Hartford Deeds, 10:415) This is the last record found of him in Connecticut.

Wilson, a plow-maker, age 26 years, born in New York. The 1855 census shows that Elijah had resided in Vernon for 39 years, Chloe was in Oneida County for 45 years, and Henry had a wife Mary, age 23 years, and a son, age 9/12 years. He owned and operated a foundry for the manufacture of farm implements. (NEH&G Register, 94[October 1940]:382)

The first wife of Hiram Wilson was SARAH MURRAY, daughter of William Murray of Luzerne, Warren Co., NY as shown by a quitclaim deed dated 16 Jan. 1829 whereby Hiram Wilson of Schroon, one of the heirs-at-law in the estate of William Murray, late of Luzerne, deceased, having married his daughter Sarah, also now deceased, relinquished his interest in said estate. (Warren Land Records, E:237)

Hiram married third DEBORAH ----- who was born in New York about 1801.

His fourth wife, ISABELL WRIGHT was born about 1819 and died at Ticonderoga on 1 June 1882.

Hiram was in the timber business and resided in the Essex county towns of Schroon and Ticonderoga. An interesting transaction occurred on 26 Nov. 1834 when Lyman B. Langworth, Sheriff of the County of Saratoga, executed a writ obtained by Hiram Wilson of Schroon, plaintiff, against James W. Hickcock, defendant. The lands of the defendant consisting of 600 acres along the Hudson river and another parcel of 100 acres, all in the town of Corinth, were sold at public auction to the high bidder, Hiram Wilson for the sum of thirty dollars! Even for those times this price seems to be incredible, however the conveyance is recorded on page 98 of Book Z, Saratoga County Land Records.

In addition to his timber business Hiram for many years operated a general store in Ticonderoga. The 1850 census lists him there, age 48 years, a merchant with his wife Deborah, age 49 years and their daughter Amanda, age 15 years, all born in New York. Also living with them was Mason Stone, age 28 years. Hiram's presumed sister, Martha Wilson, age 30 years, was listed in the adjoining household. The 1855 census of Schroon lists Hiram Wilson, age 53 years, born in Washington county, a resident of Essex county for 14 years, owning 17 acres of improved land and 1350 acres of unimproved land, also his wife Isabell, age 36 years, a resident of the county for 1 year, and his children; Deborah, age 24 years, a 4 year resident; Amanda, age 20, a 1 year resident; Caroline, age 9 years, a 1 year resident and Willard, age 5/12 years.

On 1 Mar. 1882 Isabell Wilson of Ticonderoga petitioned for administration on the estate of her late husband who died there on 10 Oct. 1881, intestate. The heirs-at-law were listed as Harriet Wilson of Ticonderoga, Isabell Morton, wife of Frank C. Morton of Hollis, NH, Deborah Wilson of Glens Falls, Warren Co., NY, Willard W. Wilson of Cheyanne, Wyoming Territory and Eunice Stewart, wife of Sylvanus Stewart of Moriah, Essex Co., NY. (Essex Surrogates Court Records)

Thomas B. Wright, the executor named in the will of his sister, the widow Isabell Wilson, who died at Ticonderoga on 1 June 1882, applied on 21 July 1882 to have the will proven. Her surviving children were then listed as Harriet R. Wilson of Ticonderoga, Isabell Morton, wife of Frank Morton of Hollister, CA, Willard L. Wilson of Cheyanne, Wyoming Territory and Eunice Stewart whose residence was unknown. (Essex Surrogates Court Records)

Daniel's second marriage was solemnized by his father, Rev. Obed Wilson, at Bingham on 27 Jan. 1829 to MARY (Polly) GOODRICH, born there 12 Jan. 1804, daughter of Levi and Mary (Jewett) Goodrich. Mary died (GS) 4 Apr. 1898, ae. 94 years, 2 months, buried with her husband.

"Polly was a premature baby who weighed less than two pounds at birth, and was carried on a pillow for many weeks, no one thinking she would live. The story has been told that the midwife who assisted at the birth took her wedding ring and slipped it over the baby's arm to the shoulder. When she took a teacup and turned it over the child's head, it touched her shoulders. It is said that the baby was kept in a shoebox filled with lambswool, and placed for warmth on the mantelpiece." Family traditions are fine but one must wonder about the availability of shoeboxes in a rural farmhouse early in the nineteenth century. Despite her inauspicious start Polly died at a ripe old age, outliving her husband and seven of their thirteen children.

The 1850 census of Bingham lists Daniel Wilson, age 48 years, a farmer born in Maine living to the house adjacent to that of his brother, Joshua Wilson. With him was his wife Mary, age 46 years and his daughter Amanda with her husband, Ezra Richardson. Also in the household were his unmarried children; Mary N., age 25 years; Prudence, age 20; Sarah H., age 13; Levi G., age 15 years; Obed G. also 15 years old; Daniel, Jr., 14 years; Melvin C., age 13; Marinda S. 11 years of age; Albina C. 10 years old; John H. 6 years and finally Eugene G. who was aged 2 years. It is probable that all of these children were born in Bingham.

[The material which follows regarding descendants of Daniel Wilson is from family records initially collected by Clive E. (J09-095) Wilson and greatly augmented by his two sons and their wives who, during the 1970's spent many summers in New England researching reference material and visiting with people to review family relationships.]

"It was in 1835 that Mr. Wilson came to the town and bought his lot, one of the last to be taken from the Nicholas purchase. In the fall he put up a log house. In February the following year he was married. There were no roads and he went by marked trees. One side of his house was shingled, and when, later, he wished to shingle the other side, so deep was the snow he was able to carry the shingles up the roof, stepping from the banks. Snow lay three feet deep upon the level. The house was built like a cob pile, and the places for doors and windows were cut out afterward. The doors were boards simply, and the windows were not over numerous. There was no fireplace, and for three or four weeks cooking was done by a stump fire. A well was dug, and for curbing or wall Mr. Wilson went to the woods and cut two lengths of buttonwood, hollow, and set them in. A crotched stick was set up for a sweep, and the thing was complete. During the entire summer he was fixing his house. Boards for the floor were obtained from Solomon Allen's saw-mill, just south. Partitions and windows followed, having used blankets before. Finally, having obtained some brick, Silas Munsell built a chimney and brick oven. The first farm work was to plant potatoes. His first lot of fifty-eight acres cost him five dollars per acre. The Winchell lot to the west, which he next bought, was the last remnant of the Nicholas tract." (Alfred S. Roe, History of Rose, New York [1893] p. 267) The same volume reports that Ephriam B. He became one of the earliest commercial florists in New England, at one time his greenhouses were among the largest in the region. He also raised sub-tropical fruits which he sold at retail. A short account of his life is found on page 1690 of Representative Men and Old Families of Rhode Island [1908].

GRANDMOTHER MIGHILL'S STORY

[The original for this manuscript can no longer be found, it was last known about fifty years ago when it was in private hands in Iowa. This version was recreated using the sources listed under Bibliography, and attempting to retain the language and melodramatic flavor of the original.]

Mrs. Margaret (Wilson) Mighill of Danby, near Wallingford, Vermont, better known among her descendants as grandmother Mighill, died in 1820, aged ninety-one years and some months. She was a woman of vigorous mind and strong memory and had the good fortune to retain these mental gifts unimpaired to the close of her long life. Six years previous to her death she became totally blind, yet age and blindness did not subdue her firm and cheerful spirit. Her memory running back through nearly a century gave her conversation an interest, felt by all who were privileged as listeners. About a year previous to her death she related the history of her ancestors, which she had heard during the fifteen years she lived with her grand-parents, to her grand-daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ives Fox, who wrote it down from her own lips.

JOHN WILSON, the great-grandfather of grandmother Mighill, served in the cavalry of the English Army. He was distinguished for courage and enterprise, of which a memorable instance is given. The English army was at the time opposed to the forces of Scotland which were encamped near them. It was the practice of the Scots to send forth a champion every morning to dare the Southerners to combat. This could not be tamely endured by the English, and when one morning this Scottish Goliath made his appearance riding along the lines insolently challenging any one to come forth and fight, the English general stepped before his men and asked which one of them would bring him the rebel's head. Wilson instantly proffered his services, which were as readily accepted, and he rode forth in sight of the army to meet the Scottish champion. After several encounters in which neither gained decisive advantage Wilson sought the opportunity of close combat to place his foot under that of his adversary and by sudden exertion of strength hurled the Scot from his saddle. Instantly springing from his horse Wilson pinned his foe to the earth, then cutting off his head he placed it upon the point of his sword and returned in triumph to the army. Riding up to the general he presented the head of the champion and received the praise due to so gallant an action.

An engagement took place soon after the combat just narrated in which the English were victorious and returned home, but Wilson was made prisoner. Fortunately, being acquainted with his captor, Wilson, through this influence, obtained his release on parole, the condition being that he should not again serve against the Scots.

An interval of peace succeeded, during which Wilson married a lady of large fortune named Hannah James. Little more than a year had elapsed from the time of this marriage when the young husband, now a father, received the dreaded summons to join the army against his former captors. The danger of again being taken prisoner and the violation of his promise forbade his compliance, yet he could not with safety remain at home and avoid military service. In this dilemma he disclosed to his wife the dangers that surrounded him and told her that the only honorable course that remained for him was to make his home in America until these wars should be concluded. He spoke of the sorrow he should feel at leaving his wife and child but said he could not ask her to part with her friends and native land to accompany him on a voyage so full of danger.

America was at that time an almost unbroken wilderness. A few small towns scattered along the coast were the only points occupied by civilized inhabitants. The privations, hardships and perils endured by these early settlers were represented to Mrs. Wilson in the strongest colors. She listened calmly to the exaggerated reports of dangers, but with the devotion of a true woman chose to follow the fortunes of her husband.

Having disposed of their possessions in England and provided themselves with everything necessary for their voyage they sailed from their native land in 1634. The vessel they sailed upon was commanded by a captain who had formerly paid his addresses to Mrs. Wilson but had been rejected because she feared to cross the ocean with him. "Well", said he, "I have the honor to take you as a passenger though you refused to marry me."

The voyage was not marked by any important incident until they arrived within sight of Boston. Here the vessel was run upon a rock and the two hundred persons on board who a moment before had thought the dangers of the voyage at an end seemed likely to perish in sight of port. The long boat was instantly launched and the women and children crowded into it. Hurried, confused and frightened, Mrs. Wilson forgot her child that lay sleeping in the cabin. One of the sailors happening to see it, caught it up and rushing to the side of the vessel just as they were cutting the boat loose, "Woman" said he, "don't you want your little son?" Recalled to herself by his words she responded joyfully "yes" and holding out her apron the kind-hearted sailor tossed the child safely into it. The boat cast off and reached the shore in safety. Those left on board, by means of fragments of the wreck, all came safe to land and not a single life was lost.

Boston at that time differed widely from the present metropolis of New England which has usurped its place. A single bakery supplied the seamen and its inhabitants with bread. In this little town the couple whose fortunes we have been trying to trace found themselves reduced from affluence to poverty. A small trunk containing the child's clothes was all they ever recovered from the wreck. Wilson hired himself out as a truckman, his whole outfit being a wheelbarrow. Mrs. Wilson, though entirely unused to any kind of work resolved not to be a useless burden. In "Merrie England" she had never washed an article of clothing even for herself but washing was the easiest trade to learn so she became a washer-woman. "Many, many were the tears", said she, "that I then shed over the wash-tub."

Two or three years passed in this manner when the Governor of the Colony ordered a new township laid out eleven miles northwest of Boston. This new town was called Woburn and the Governor offered several hundred acres of land to each of those who would venture out and settle on the new tract. It is not surprising that the man who had won the applause of an army should prefer the dangers of a life in the wilderness to the peaceful security of the city where he filled the position of a truck horse. Accepting therefore the Governor's offer he removed to the new town and found himself amply provided with land but destitute of the means usually considered necessary for clearing and cultivating it. The settlers of this new tract were without teams and nearly destitute of farming tools, but under all these disadvantages they managed to clear some of their land and cultivate it with the hoe. Mrs. Wilson would often work nearly all night with her husband picking up and burning brush.

Many years passed and the wants of a numerous family were supplied by their industry. They had five sons and five daughters. Their names so far as can be remembered were John, James, Samuel, Francis, Benjamin, Sarah, Abigail and Hannah. (sic!) One little girl was killed by lightning. Mr. Wilson was killed in the fifty-second year of his age while engaged in tearing down a barn, one of the timbers fell and broke his scull. Mrs. Wilson afterwards married a man named Fuller but of her subsequent life we have no records.

James Wilson, the grandfather of Grandmother Mighill married a girl in Woburn named Deborah Pearce. They had twelve children, ten sons and two daughters, all of whom died in infancy or youth though several of them were living at the time of Mrs. Wilson's death which happened at Lexington where they were then residing. Mr. Wilson married for his second wife a widow by the name of Peters. Her maiden name was Margaret Russ, daughter of John Russ, a respectable citizen of Andover. Previous to this second marriage Margaret had suffered many of the hardships and dangers to which the early settlers were exposed.

ANDREW PETERS, an Englishman came from Holland and landed at Boston while it was a village, the streets being merely country roads. He was hopping from stone to stone through the streets to avoid the mud holes when he looked up and saw a young lady standing at the window of one of the village homes. He thought to himself I will marry her if possible. She was also looking with an eye of partiality on the young Englishman, as he nimbly skipped along the street. Not long after a favorable opportunity offering, he became acquainted with the amiable young lady, Miss Mercy Beamsley, and married her. They then moved to Andover where he established a distillery, becoming quite rich and raised a family of five sons and three daughters.

The settlers were so much annoyed by the Indians at this time that they could with difficulty support their families. Their houses were burned, their crops destroyed and their cattle driven away. During a period of more than thirty years they were compelled to spend more or less of each year at the garrison. When they went out to work in the fields each man armed himself in readiness to repel an attack. Notwithstanding these precautions many of the inhabitants were killed; among others the sons of Mr. Peters.

A couple of Indians had been looking around the settlements and had taken one prisoner and were cautiously retiring when they saw two young men, John and Andrew Peters, approaching. They had been at work in the field and were returning to the garrison. The Indians immediately hid behind a log fence, and told their captive, John Singletary, if he stirred or made any noise they would instantly kill him. They suffered the brothers to pass and then they both fired. One of the young men fell dead from his horse, the other was mortally wounded, the ball passing through his body and the neck of his horse. The wounded animal dashed off at full speed, carrying the unfortunate rider to a considerable distance from the spot where his brother fell.

William shared the fate of his brothers. It was in the month of August, 1696 and they were living at the garrison, Mrs. Peters had that morning ventured to go back to the house to gather some vegetables from the garden for dinner. It appears that after her return to the garrison, the Indians came to the house and hid themselves in a neighboring corn field. After dinner, Mr. Peters concluded to go and take care of a lame horse that was in the pasture near the house. Mrs. Peters wished to accompany him, but as it began to rain he thought it would not be prudent for her to do so, their young son was a babe ten months old. She felt an uncommon anxiety to go with him, and following him out, said she could go, the rain would not hurt her. Noticing her extreme agitation he turned and in a tender manner replied, "No, my dear, it will make you sick, the grass will be very wet, you will wet your feet and take cold." He told her he would go to his father's who lived at the distance of about a mile from there and bring a fat lamb. He would also lead the horse to the fort so that she might see it. He then left her and she watched him as long as he remained in sight.

He went to the pasture, led the horse up to the house, and stood examining his foot when the Indians rushed upon him, seized and carried him into the house where a man by the name of Hoyt was making ropes. They instantly knocked Hoyt down and scalped him. They then gave Peters a pair of moccasins, told him he must put them on and accompany them. He sat down and began to tie the moccasins, carefully watching an opportunity to make his escape. The Indians were very busy plundering the house, and when Peters saw the doorway clear, he sprang forward, knowing if he could get out he could outrun the Indians as he had previously on several occasions. Unfortunately the pole on which Hoyt had hung his hemp was so low that he hit his head against it and fell back. The Indians sprang upon him with their hatchets. He made a gallant defense, throwing down three of them, when the fourth struck him over the eye with the head of his hatchet and broke his skull. The Indians, from whom an account of this affair was afterwards obtained, said that they washed the scalps in rain water which had caught on the heads of some cider barrels that stood near the door.

Mrs. Peters became uneasy at the length of time that had elapsed since the departure of her husband. As hour after hour passed away her fears for his safety increased. Unable to control her feelings of apprehension, she spoke to the other women of the fort about her anxiety about him. They only laughed at her fears. About sunset one of the young men at the fort started to bring the cows from pasture. Mrs. Peters could bear the suspense no longer. As the path the young man would have to follow led him near her house, she said she would go with him. They walked along in silence until they came to the path which would separate them. She told him he must go with her, she durst not go alone. Without saying a word he stepped into the path before her and walked towards the house. When they came within sight of it, they were surprised to see the hogs (which usually ran in the woods and were very wild) around the house, and one of them appeared to be feeding upon something that lay in the doorway. As they came nearer the path led them in such a direction that they could not see the front part of the house.

When the young man, who was a few steps in advance came round the corner of the house, he turned suddenly with an exclamation of terror and fled. Mrs. Peters ran with him several rods, and then stopped and asked him what he saw. "I saw," said he, "blood on heads of the barrels and the hogs were eating Mr. Hoyt's head." Terrible as this description was, it afforded a gleam of hope. "Did you see anything else?" "I thought I saw a heap of cloth within." The hope that had sustained her fled, and she sank helpless upon the ground. The young man caught her up and carried her toward the fort. His approach was observed by the inmates of the garrison who came out to meet him and assist in conveying Mrs. Peters into their little fortress. Happily for her she was not restored to consciousness for any considerable length of time, during that night and for several succeeding days.

Three men armed themselves and went to the house. They found Mr. Hoyt lying partly out of the door with his head nearly gone. The body of Peters was lying on the floor where he fell. One of the men raised him in his arms and thought he felt the heart beat, but it soon ceased. They laid him down again and, being too few in number to carry the bodies to the fort, placed the remains of Mr. Hoyt within the house, closed the door and left them until morning when they were brought in and buried.

Margaret Peters thus early left a widow with one child, had several offers of marriage, but remained single for ten years. Mr. James Wilson, after the death of his wife, hired Mrs. Peters to take care of his family. Her kindness and agreeable manners secured the attachment of father and children. A similar attachment for them on her part, with the inconvenience of her present mode of life induced her to accept Mr. Wilson's proposal of marriage. (It was in 1819 when Grandmother Mighill related this and made the remark that it was 116 years that winter since they were married.) This union, though formed late in life, continued during a period of fifty years. They had six children - William, Margaret, Hannah, Thomas, Phoebe and Jonathan. Mr. Wilson removed to Killingly where he died in the ninety-first year of his age.

Mr. Thomas Wilson, the father of Grandmother Mighill, served two campaigns in the war between the colonies of England and France. While engaged in his second term of service he was sent as a scout with fourteen or fifteen men from Fort Edward to Williamstown to bring back a young man previously sent out and who had been unable, because of sickness, to return.

After traveling for eight miles they saw a bear. It being against the laws of the officers to fire in the woods, they at first hesitated, finally their lieutenant said, "It will let the enemy know that there is someone in the woods and that we are not afraid of them." Mr. Wilson advised the party of his concerns that there would be great danger for so small a party to fire in the woods. "There may be a large party of Indians near by, in which case we shall expose ourselves to imminent danger of being killed or taken by them." They fired and killed the bear, but a large scouting party of Indians happened to be in the woods, heard the report of the guns, and immediately bent their steps toward the place from which the sounds came. Not immediately locating them, and hearing no further sound they turned back on their course.

Our travelers, not suspecting the least danger, still pursued their march. They had not gone far before they saw a deer, which they also killed and dressed it off, loading it on a horse which they captured in the woods. They then marched on in apparent safety, but unfortunately the Indians heard the second shot, turned again in their course and lay in wait. The scouting party trudged along thinking of nothing but of a fine feast of roasted venison when they reached camp, when suddenly the Indians rose and fired upon them, killing eight and wounding two.

Wilson was one of the wounded, it brought him to his knees but he immediately recovered, brought his gun to his shoulder, but the smoke being so thick he could see nothing until it cleared when he saw two Indians running toward him; he shot one and wounded the second. However he was taken prisoner with five others, they then tied a rope around the neck of Wilson and led him around to see them strip and scalp the dead, which they hacked in a most shameful manner. They then took off Wilson's jacket which had several bullet holes through it, they looked with astonishment at each other, gabbling among themselves, then pointing upwards concluded that he had been preserved by some over-ruling providence, then came to him, patting him on the head and appeared very friendly.

He feared he must soon share the fate of his companions, sat with his head bowed dreading to see the hatchet raised above him, but the Indians concluding not to harm him set out with their captives for Crown Point. They waded through rivers and streams on their way and took cold in their wounds, which caused them to become almost unbearable. One of the captives became nearly exhausted and said he could not go any further; Wilson told him he must go as long as he could take a step, as the Indians would certainly kill him if he gave out, thus he was prevailed on to proceed.

After two days, when they arrived at Crown Point they found their wounds in a bad state of mortification, however a French doctor was at hand who dressed the wounds, removing the dead flesh, washing the wounds with brandy and applying salves. They stayed two or three days there, then set out for Caghnawaga with three other captives. On their arrival they were obliged to run the gauntlet while their captors threw stones at them, clubbed them with clubs and other weapons, knocking them down and bruising them in a shocking manner. Wilson suffered the most because they said he fired after he was surrounded. He was knocked down several times, he was badly bruised, his head and face had scarcely the appearance of a human being and he was unable to rise. They ordered him to get up and run, but he refused and told them if they intended to kill him they could finish him on the spot. A friar coming up told them he would never pardon their sins again if they did not desist from their cruelties then an Indian, Captain Peter, stepped up and took him by the hand leading him away. This was the same Indian who had captured him on the march. The other Indians followed cursing as they came but Peter and Wilson dodged from one hut to another until they were finally out of their reach and remained so until they were over their rage.

After Wilson had partly recovered from his injuries he was brought forward and seated on the ground while the Indians formed a ring about him. He was then given to an old squaw to make up for the loss of her only son, and their law was repeated to him; she was to treat him kindly, feed him well, cloth him warmly and not work him too hard. She was much pleased with him and conducted him to her wigwam, treated him with every mark of kindness, taking all the burdens upon herself. She always took him with her when she went after wood, for fear some straggling Indians would find and kill him. She would not let him carry but the small bundles while she loaded herself most heavily. She also took particular pains to furnish such kind of food as he liked, seasoned it with salt while for herself she made now and then a salt cake, eating the rest of her food fresh.

This tribe, which were called Christian Indians, sent for the tribe called Cold Indians to assist them in their enterprise of taking Fort Henry on Lake George. They met at this squaw's wigwam for their pow-wow; on this occasion she hid him for fear they would get drunk and kill him, improving every opportunity to run and see if he was safe, frequently crying over him, and expressing all the anxiety of a most tender mother. She would often tell him when the war was over he should return home, for his better safety she would accompany him as far as Albany. When he appeared sad she tried every means to comfort him and would never let him work if he sweat.

He stayed with this Indian mother thirteen months when a favorable opportunity presented itself for his escape; a young man who was taken captive came to stay with him one night. The young man kept talking in his sleep, he began asking him questions by which Wilson found out he intended to run away. When he awoke he inquired of him if that was not his intention, he at first denied it but finally acknowledged his plan. Wilson then told him if he did not promise to wait one week until he could get ready, he would divulge the whole plot to the Indians, so the young man agreed to wait.

Wilson then told his Indian mother he would go to Laparara to make shoes for the French settlers. She agreed that he might and furnished him with an axe and blanket. He also took a pair of moccasins and slipped them inside his shirt, then took his leave of the unsuspecting squaw who waited patiently for the return of her son. When the time had expired for his return she sent to Laparara, but could not hear of him. She then sent word to Montreal, but could gain no tidings of him. She was then persuaded that he had made his escape. The most tender mother could not have made greater lamentations than did this poor squaw for fear he would suffer or starve to death on his way to his family.

Fortune seemed to favor their escape. The four who were in the party made a friend of a Dutchman who had lived with the Indians from childhood and had married amongst them. He slyly carried all the provisions he could, with ammunition and gun, and a pocket compass and hid them in a hollow log. Being thus furnished with provisions they set out on their way, they lived in the most sparing manner upon this small stock of food which lasted but ten days, excepting a piece of bread which they saved. Eating roots when they grew too faint to walk they would then take one mouthful of bread and drink a little water. They travelled in this manner for three days after which the bread was consumed and they then travelled seven more days with nothing but roots and one partridge which they ate raw. They then killed two partridges which they roasted, up to this time they had not ventured to make a fire for fear the Indians would discover them.

They travelled on the west side of Lake Champlain which made the journey long and tedious. They at last came to a swamp, being unacquainted with the extent of it they concluded to go through it; it proved to be very fatiguing as the swamp was completely filled with grape-vines, they were obliged to crawl on their hands and knees a great part of the way. When they were about halfway through one of the men became so exhausted from fatigue and hunger that he gave up and laid down saying they would never get through, and might as well lay down and die as to try to go further, as he knew they must die in the swamp. Mr. Wilson was determined to persevere in their undertaking, and after resting awhile he prevailed upon the man to resume his journey. After travelling the greater part of the day in this manner they at length had the satisfaction of finding themselves free of the swamp.

They were still destitute of any kind of food except wild cucumbers, which were very plentiful. At last they came to an abandoned Indian hut where they found some pieces of stinking meat which they swallowed with the most greedy appetite, being a most delicious repast for them after having fasted so long. One of the men found also a piece of mouldy bread, which he proceeded to eat although warned that it would certainly make him sick, but he paid no attention to them and ate the bread; he was soon punished for his incredulity, he had scarcely swallowed it before he became so sick and distressed that he could hardly stand. They took him by the arm and led him about until he soon began to throw it up, which greatly relieved him. However, he was not able to travel until the next day.

They then resumed their journey and in two days reached Fort Edward, just as the troops were retiring to rest. It is impossible to describe the joy of our heroes or the surprise of the officers, when they entered the markee. They stayed for two or three days until they were partly recovered. Mr. Wilson then set out for Killingly where his family lived. When he came within a few miles of home, he sent a man ahead to inform his wife of his return, she being very much out of health, he thought the shock would be too great if he came in on her too suddenly, as she had considered him dead, not having heard from him since his capture. He lived nineteen years and five months after his return and died on his birthday, being sixty-six years of age, May 14, 1776.

Grandmother Mighill was the oldest child of Thomas Wilson. She lived with her grandparents from the age of two or three years until she was eighteen, after this she worked out. The first thing she purchased with her wages was a Bible which is now in possession of her granddaughter, Mrs. Abigail French.

At the age of twenty-four, while residing at home she was married to Ezekiel Mighill, his age being twenty-one. Grandfather Mighill served in the war of the Revolution and marched with the troops under Montgomery in the expedition against Quebec. Grandfather and Grandmother lived in Killingly seventeen years. About 1770 or 1771 they removed to Vermont settling first in the town of Danby from which they moved to Wallingford where they lived for more than forty years. They were members of the Baptist church. Grandfather died at the age of eighty-three, Grandmother lived with her son James from that time until her own death in 1820. She died in her 91st year, her children, grand-children and great grand-children born before her death numbered 102.

Thomas married Mary Yaw and had children; Samuel, John, Joseph, Sally, Philena, Thomas, Achsah and Mary.

Eleazer married Mary Terry and had thirteen children. Three died in infancy, the others are; Phoebe, Margaret, Eleazer, Betsey, Mary, Hannah, Abigail, Lyman, Thomas and David.

Mary married Lent Ives and had twelve children. Several died in infancy, others were; Hannah, Ezekiel, Fanny, Sarah, Nathaniel, John and Abigail.

James married Abigail Bishop and had Ezekiel and Mary. Abigail died and he married second Abigail Carr. They had five children; Nathan, Hannah, Abigail and Thomas (sic!).

DISCUSSION

Some of the details given, such as the date they sailed from England, are provably false. The early events in England and the account of the landing in Massachusetts can not be verified, they occurred almost two centuries before they were first recorded, thefore this portion of the manuscript must be considered to be in the relm of family tradition.

On the other hand, the events in New England, John's settlement in Woburn, the size of his family, the Indian attack on Andover, the death of the Peters brothers, and the capture of Thomas (J03-030) with his subsequent return to Killingly, all coordinate well with known facts and thereby lend credence to the entire manuscript.

Although it has undoubtedly been embellished to some extent, lacking evidence to the contrary we consider this document to be a reasonably accurate account of the early generations of this family.

HISTORY OF SOME DESCENDANTS OF ROGER WILSON

[In 1862 George Francis (J06-352) Wilson commissioned S. C. Newman, a prominent local historian, to investigate the ancestry of his branch of the Wilson family. Newman's original report is preserved at the Rhode Island Historical Society in Providence, this is a verbatim copy.]

"Roger Wilson was born in the Village of Scrooby, County of Nottingham, England in or about the year 1588. He was one of the members of Rev. John Robinson's Church and fled from persecution in 1608 and finally settled in Leyden. He was a prominent member of the church, and also of the secular organization or body known as pilgrim puritans. Nearly all of the members of this band were poor having been stripped of most of their substance before fleeing from England, but Roger appears to have been more fortunate than many of his associates and in Leyden was a Silk and Woolen Draper.

"He was one of the Joint Stock Company which fitted out the May Flower the good ship that landed the first band of Pilgrims on our shores. He did not embark with them but from allusions to him in the Leyden Records it may be inferred that he intended to follow them at some later period, as with the case with the Rev. Mr. Robinson. Mr. Robinson died March 1st 1624 and this sad event nearly caused the breaking up of their organization. (illegible) They were like sheep without a shepherd. They were weighed down with trials and troubles. They were appalled with the reports of all the sufferings of their friends the pilgrims whom had sought for a home in America. There they continued to drag out a few more years at Leyden and when active persecution had in a good measure died away in England a portion of them returned thither and the remainder became absorbed among the Dutch and were no more known as a distinct body.

"Whether Roger Wilson returned to England or not is not now known but from the fact that his youngest child (Lieut. John) at the age of twenty emigrated from England to America in 1651 it is conjectured that his father had returned to England and died there. There is no record of his death in Leyden.

"A great many families and individuals giving rise to families by the name of Wilson have at various periods in our Colonial and State history emigrated from England, Scotland and Ireland to America but the family here sketched and which so clearly traces its origins to its illustrious (illegible) is the only one of that name whose ancestors had any connection with the puritans at Leyden or assisted in fitting out that immortal band with the first Pilgrim ship, the May Flower in 1620 and whose arrival and settlement on these now New England Shores may at this time be referred to with pride as one of the first corner-stones in the foundations of the Great Western Empire.

"More than one hundred books and many old manuscript records have been examined in the search for accurate information concerning this family of Wilsons.

"No person not habitually familiar with genealogical research can form an adequate conception of the difficulty encountered in collecting and placing in proper relation to each other a class of facts widely separated and scattered through a period of two and a half centuries of family history or within the (illegible) of family history. From widely diversified sources the slightest inference, hints and allusions to the end sought must be carefully collected and compared weighed and (illegible) in order to discover to what each (illegible) ably points. In this research I have diligently labored many days together without gaining one item throwing any light on my inquiries, and when about discouraged some important fact would come up from the dark obscurity by which I was surrounded and so light up the pathway that I not only felt (illegible) the facts of which had (illegible) at first but encouraged to go on with assured vigor. These are however the trials and difficulties occasionally to be expected in a field like this when no guides or benchmarks have been set up in the separate pathways in which children born in two and a half centuries have chosen to travel.

"The light now thrown upon the origins of this family cannot fail to excite a deep and permanent interest in the present and coming generations thereof.

"The descendants of the venerable Roger Wilson are as indissoubly connected with the fitting out and sailing of the May Flower the first pilgrim ship that reached our shores as any of the descendants of her actual passengers now living in this country.

"Roger Wilson was bondsman for the only three persons who ever obtained the freedom of the city of Leyden, viz. Gov. Wm. Bradford, Isaac Allerton and Deggory Priest. His wife was the sister of Doct. Samuel Fuller, the physician and surgeon who came in the May Flower. He was a deacon in the Rev. Mr. Robinson's church before the May Flower sailed with a portion of the pilgrims to this country.

"From all that can now be gathered of the history of Roger Wilson the ancestor of this family and the connections of his wife it is fairly and historically inferable that he occupied a high position among the ever memorable band of pilgrims at Leyden and that had it not been for his advice and energetic cooperation and (illegible) the first ship of the pilgrims, the May Flower might never have landed on our shore.

"I trust that this humble tract may (illegible) around which may be gathered the results of future researchers and I will add now that the curtain of obscurity has been lifted from this history that the descendants of Roger Wilson may confer with a just and considerable pride to their common ancestor.

"Note: Dr. Fuller died at Plymouth in 1633 and his will is the first one on record in America and is the oldest will made this side of the Atlantic Ocean.

"This investigation was made under the patronage of George F. Wilson, Esq. of 1818 in the fifth generation and son of Benjamin Wilson of 1753 in the fourth generation, a resident of East Providence, R. I., formerly the ancient Seekonk, in the fall of 1862 by-"

DISCUSSION:

We compare Newman's statements with the Leyden records as translated from the Dutch by Henry M. Dexter and published in The England and Holland of the Pilgrims [1906]:

"Roger Wilson was born in the Village of Scrooby, County of Nottingham, England." In his application for citizenship in Leyden, Roger stated he was born in Sandwich, Kent, England. The records of St. Clement's church in Sandwich show that Roger Wilson was baptized there.

Roger was born "in or about the year 1588." Roger, in his application for citizenship, dated 1609, gave is age as twenty-five years, indicating birth during the year 1584. This is confirmed by the baptismal record at St. Clement's which is dated 1584.

"In Leyden he was a Silk and Woolen Draper." In his citizenship application Roger gave his occupation as baker. Later references term him weaver and camelot merchant.

"His wife was the sister of Doct. Samuel Fuller." The records in Leyden show that Roger Wilson married Elizabeth Williams on 26 Mar. 1616, she being accompanied by Elizabeth Spaulding and her brother Thomas Williams.

"His youngest child (Lieut. John) at the age of twenty emigrated from England to America in 1651." This statement is the heart of his entire report yet Newman offers nothing to establish "the fact" that Roger had a son named John or that he was twenty years of age in 1651. Equally important, he fails to show that, of all the men with this name who migrated to America, it was Roger's son who settled in Woburn. Lacking any sort of proof for either of these key statements the entire report becomes meaningless.

CONCLUSION:

Lacking any semblance of proof, and considering the numerous contradictions between his statements and the official records, it becomes evident that Newman disregarded factual integrity and used Roger Wilson's name, and his association with the Pilgrims, to establish a spurious MAYFLOWER ancestry for his wealthy client.

DID A WILSON MARRY ROYALTY?

[Several years ago a correspondent sent me a copy of the following letter, addressed to Mrs. Julia Stuart (Dodge) Huntington, a daughter of David Low Dodge, by Rev. Joshua Spalding [1760-1825], a grandson of Jacob and Hannah (Wilson) Spalding.]

South East, New York
December 26, 1822

Dear Madam:

"I have delayed answering your letter that I might first see my brother, Deacon Spaulding of Killingly, who has lately made me a visit, hoping that he might be able to answer some of your inquiries, particularly what was the Christian name of your ancestor Stuart, but he was not positive, however, any more than myself.

"On account of the political troubles in Scotland about the beginning of the last Century, there came from thence a number of respectable families and settled in Voluntown on the borders of Rhode Island, among whom were the Gordons, Gallups, Douglasses, Dorrances, and Dixons.

"A minister came over with them by the name of Dorrance, a man of learning and character.

"The first that is known of Stuart in the country, he was living in these families with guarded secrecy. How he came to this Country is not known, but there is no doubt that it was by means of the communication which that people had with their friends in Europe, by the way of Rhode Island. It is not probable that he ever resided or was known in Massachusetts. On account of the cry made against them as Papists, a Stuart would have found no harbor in Boston.

"Your Great-Grandmother who was my Grandmother Spaulding; at the age of twenty-eight years, was left a widow with three children, one son, who was my Father, and two daughters.

"Her husband was killed by the upsetting of a cart at a distance from home, near Black Hill, Plainfield. She was said to be a very fine person, of good accomplishments and engaging manners, and was left in affluent circumstances. Besides her thirds of a large landed property, which belonged to her children, she owned one good farm in her own right.

"Her residence was in a new Country and a very secluded situation in the town of Killingly, but contiguous to Voluntown. She was from the Old Plymouth Colony and at a distance from her own family. The man concerning whom we are inquiring, who was also a fine person, and undoubtedly of a first education, genteel in his dress, and courtly in his manners, made her overtures of marriage by the name of Stuart, one of the claiming families of Scotland and England - he had papers to show that appeared satisfactory, he had travelled and passed by the name of Girk. But the Spauldings who were a principal family in Plainfield - plain and homespun people, were opposed to the match, they doubted whether he was anything more than Girk, and if he was Stuart, they thought his future desperate; they liked him no better, for his gold-laced jacket, and his shirt so fine that he could draw it through his ring.

"They would have rather preferred such a man as was her former husband, their brother Jacob, they were afraid he would spend the property and ruin the family. The people of Voluntown assured her, however, that the overture was honorable and the Rev'd Wm. Dorrance, who, I presume, married them, told her there was no doubt of his being the man he professed to be. They were married at the Widow's house with much ceremony, and that became his home - it was the house in which I was born, and the place now owned by my mother.

"Of this marriage, there was only one child, she was born in the same place, (The homestead in Killingly.) Her father named her Mary, after Mary, Queen of Scotland, whose descendants were the legitimate heirs of the throne. She always went by the name of Mary Stuart.

"Stuart never put his hand to any labor, and he went armed night and day. He wore a sword of the most extraordinary strength and temper, and he would upon occasion show his strength and skill in the use of it.

"He was much from home - nobody knew where. Once he was absent about eighteen months, and it was believed he went to Europe - in which time there was a great commotion in Scotland. His situation was becoming more and more perilous. At length he sold the farm belonging to his wife to provide means for his expedition, his wife did consent to it and probably signed the deed. This circumstance turned the whole community against him.

"Mary was a beautiful child, and a great favorite, and this farm was considered as belonging to her. (The other estate was settled on the fatherless children by probate.)

"They felt that no speculation could warrant a parent to dispose of property so situated.

"Communities in our Country, at that time, interested themselves in what affected individuals as though they were one family, they were up in arms, threatened, and made attempts to apprehend him. He lost all his friends except his wife, and an few transient foreigners.

"In the meantime the health of this good woman was declining, her gentle spirit was poorly tempered for trials of this nature. She could not make her son love his Father. He would not be governed by him, and his Guardian took him far from home.

"For a short time before Stuart's last departure he was wholly concealed, while preparing for another voyage to Europe. He was afraid to embark in New England - and he went to the Chesapeake - from whence he sent back a letter, that reached his wife informing her that he was on the point of sailing for Europe, expressing the hope that his future would be better, and said that it would not be too good to share with her. Whether he was lost at sea, or perished in the battles that soon ensued, will probably never be known. He was never after heard from. His wife did not long survive him. All that I have noticed in History concerning the Stuarts, called Pretenders, is, that one of them, the man from whom Government had most to fear, mysteriously disappeared, and it was not known what became of him, and that he answered the description of this man.

"There is one branch of the family now in England, acknowledged of the Nobility, Great Government Folks, and another branch residing in Sardinia. Respecting the charge that they were Papists -- it was a political artifice. In their troubles, they were willing, however, to avail themselves of the French and papal interests. Stuart in the last extremity went to Maryland, undoubtedly to claim aid of the Papists there. There was a levity about all these men. They were vacillating in their counsels, and they too often forgot their friends. But all of this, does not fully explain their fatality. Excepting the present Queen of England, they were the most unfortunate beings in the world. I often heard my Father converse respecting Stuart - and relate many anecdotes respecting this extraordinary man - and also one of his sisters named Damaris who lived in the family the whole time.

"They entertained no doubt that he was one of those exiled Princes. I have not attempted to give the dates of these events for I have no library with me. I left my library at Salem - and there is no library that would assist me within my reach - and if I should trust my memory which is failing me - it might misguide you in your inquiries. I am however, very confident, that Stuart was married to my Grandmother about the year 1731, and that he finally disappeared about the year 1738.

"These dates are not much from the time, by the age of your Grandmother you may be very near the time. I think she was born very soon after the marriage, about one year.

"Stuart was tall, and stout - of light complexion and a commanding countenance, the sandy trait in your Grandmother's family was doubtless derived from him. He could speak French, his manners showed that he had had French masters. For amusement, he danced, fenced and played on the Violin.

"Respecting his Christian name, there is an impression in my mind, that he had two given names, but I will not be confident respecting one of the other. This, however, may be ascertained. The deed of the farm which I have alluded to, may likely be found in the Killingly Records, by searching these records for several years, between or near the dates given above. That deed may probably be found, and he undoubtedly executed the deed in the name by which he was married, or it would not be legal. The farm or a principal part of it, since my remembrance had been owned by a family of Dixon, but whether the conveyance was originally made to Dixon, I cannot say, but after you have obtained the Christian name, you will find another difficulty in applying to History, for the great folks in Europe are rarely known by their Christian name either in life or in History, but by their titular name, and their titular names are never known to Americans. When the health of my Grandmother became alarming to her friends, he son whose name was Simeon was sent for home. But he then saw Stuart but once, which was the night he took his departure for Maryland. He told me, though, his mother was pale as a sheet, she was up all night assisting him away - She loved him!

"From the circumstances I have related, Mary Stuart was left poor. She inherited nothing, but little personal property, just sufficient to carry her through her childhood. Simeon who was the oldest, and about seventeen years of age when their mother died, together with his sisters Spalding, continued the family and little Mary lived with them. She grew up in the family, was very industrious, would turn her hands to any employment within her reach. She had small means of education.

"She was married to a Mr. Earl while young. He had little property. On the breaking out of the last French War - he joined the English Army. I believe he was an ensign - he died on the borders of Canada. He left two sons.

"The youngest of the two was three years older than myself. I am sixty. The young Earls lived to grow up. They were tall - had red hair - much stouter than your Father but had much such an eye I remember to have heard the elderly people of Killingly say, they could see Stuart in them. They were naturally very wild. I mention these traits thinking they will convey some distant idea of that ancestry concerning which you so naturally and laudably inquire.

"On the breaking out the Revolutionary War, these young men at once joined the American army and shared the same fate of thousand American youth. I think neither of the survived beyond the third or fourth year.

"My Aunt Mary lived a widow eight or ten years when she married Mr. Dodge. He lived upon a herd-farm and brought up his family in hard times. The history of your Great Great Grandmother and your Great Grandmother as far as is known, is deeply tragical, and the History of Grandmother mars the deep shade of Providence. I sensibly feel a degree of melancholy coming over my mind by recalling them to recollection - and giving of them this sketch. I have not given you the full information, which you might expect, from the means which heretofore I have had of answering your inquiries. Never before would these questions have been asked me when I could not have answered them more satisfactorily - but what I have related you may receive as being substantially correct. For myself one half of the evidence, of which I have been possessed, would be more than sufficient to command belief that the person was a prominent branch of that Scottish family who became heirs of the British Throne by the Union. His conduct uniformly coincided with this declaration and upon no other hypothesis could it be explained.

"The knowledge I have of the Gordons, Dorrances and Dixons, and information and intercourse at that time with Europe, doe not admit the supposition that they could have been imposed upon for such a length of time.

"I am, dear Madam, Most affectionally,

Your Kinsman and Servant

Joshua Spalding

Ellen D. Larned, the historian of Windham County, her book Historic Gleanings in Windham County, Connecticut [1890], starting on page 62, devotes considerable space to this incident and furnishes names of those involved.

"Few lives have more of the element of tragic romance than that of the pioneer woman of South Killingly, Mrs. Hannah (Wilson) Spalding. Her husband, Jacob Spalding, of Plainfield, inherited a right to the Owaneco Purchase, and was the first to take possession of a Killingly section. His adventures and exploits in connection with the Indians are well known. Mrs. Spauling's prowess in routing a noisy band attempting to force their way through the window, by striking the leader on the mouth with an enormous beef-bone, is handed down by admiring descendants. Jacob Spalding was killed instantly--thrown from his cart on Black Hill-- leaving his widow and two children in comfortable circumstances. Mrs. Spalding was an unusually attractive person, of fine presence and character. To the great disgust of friends and relatives she gave her hand in a few years to an adventurer, who had figured among the Scotch settlers in Voluntown, under the name of Girk. To Mrs. Spalding he confided that his real name was Edward Stuart; that he was a lineal descendant of the royal line, sharing the exile of the banished King. His appearance and manners confirmed this story, which was also vouched for by Rev. Samuel Dorrance and other prominent settlers of Voluntown. Mr. Dorrance performed the marriage ceremony, and Edward Stuart reigned in the Spalding mansion. There was much talk among the neighbors of his fine clothes and lordly air. His linen was so fine that it could be drawn through a ring; his gilded rapier was of astonishing beauty and workmanship. He spoke French with great fluency, and had great skill in fencing. The only child of this marriage was a daughter, named Mary in honor of the ill-fated Queen. Soon after her birth, Stuart went abroad for a year, in which he was supposed to have taken a part in uprisings in England. After his return he persuaded his wife to sell the farm she held in her own right, and with the proceeds prepared for another venture. His proceedings were at the time considered so suspicious that he was forbidden by the town to harbor "one Sherrod," and for several days before his final departure he maintained "a guarded secrecy," and then stole away by night. From Baltimore he wrote his wife that he was about to make one more effort to retrieve his fortunes and whatever he might gain "it would not be too good to share with her." This was the last ever heard of Edward Stuart. The date of his disappearance tallies remarkably with that of the first concerted attempt by Charles Edward to regain the throne of Britain. Very extensive preparations had been made for this invasion, but a great storm scattered the fleet and wrought great destruction in life and property. If Edward Stuart was what he claimed to be, he met the fate of many of his associates.

"Mrs. Stuart survived but a few months. Her health had been greatly affected by the talk and suspicion of her kindred and neighbors, and the estrangement and opposition of her children. Mary Stuart grew up a beautiful girl, strongly resembling her father in manner and personal appearance, but the Stuart destiny pursued her. The farm that would have come to her having been preempted by her father, she was forced through life to struggle with poverty. Marrying when young, William Earl, of Brooklyn, their home and its contents were destroyed by fire in the middle of a winter night, the family barely escaping with their lives, wading barefoot through deep snow. Hoping to repair this loss, Mr. Earl enlisted in the unfortunate expedition to Havana, and died of yellow fever. Mary supported herself and her two sons till her marriage with a young carpenter, David Dodge, and then enjoyed a few years of comparative comfort and happiness. But with the Revolutionary War new trials came. Her two Earl boys, fine, spirited young men, were early induced to enlist, and both died of exposure and disease. Mr. Dodge sunk all his property in the manufacture of Continental wagons; Mary Stuart's health and nerves were completely shattered by all that she had passed through, and her remaining days were clouded by sickness and poverty. The children of her second marriage were a comfort and support. Her daughter, Mrs. Sprague, of Hampton, was a woman of unusual character and Piety, and her son, David L. Dodge, after a manly struggle, succeeding in founding that mercantile house in New York, still represented by his grandson, William E. Dodge."

In Genealogical History of Edward Spalding and His Descendants [1897], by Charles W. Spalding, we find but little to add to this story. It notes on page 77 that Jacob Spalding, son of Edward and Mary (Bracket) Spalding, was born in Chelmsford, Massachusetts, May 14, 1696. He emigrated in 1715 with the first settlers to the South Parish in Killingly, Connecticut where he died September 24, 1728. The name of his wife is given as Hannah Wilson. This volume lists their children as Simeon Spalding, born about 1719, Damaris Spalding, born about 1721 and Jacob Spalding, born 25 Oct. 1728. This list is difficult to reconcile with the statement by Rev. Joshua Spalding that his grandmother left three children, a son and two daughters.

The Killingly records do not show the marriage of Hannah Wilson to Jacob Spalding, nor do they list her second marriage, to Edward Stewart, which appears to have taken place either very late in 1734 or early in 1735. In either event it appears that Hannah was pregnant at time. We can find no record of her death, and there is no gravestone to mark her place of burial. The birth of Mary Stewart, daughter of Edward and Hannah, on 29 June 1735, is recorded in the vital records of Killingly.

On Dec. 2, 1734, Hannah Spaulding of Killingly, widow, for the sum of £30. quitclaimed to John (J03-032) Wilson, also of Killingly, husbandman, all her right, interest and title to a certain parcel of land in Killingly, containing one hundred acres, the said tract being laid out to heirs of Francis Barker, deceased, the said John being heir to two-thirds and the said Hannah being heir to one-third. (Killingly Land Records, Volume 4)

The same volume of the Killingly land records shows how Hannah's land was taken from her. On April 4, 1735, when Hannah was six months pregnant, Edward Stewart and Hannah his wife, both of Killingly, for the consideration of £600., conveyed to John Williams of Pomfret, Connecticut, a one-hundred acre lot in the South End of Killingly. The deed was signed both by Edward and by Hannah, using her mark, H. Three weeks later, on April 28, 1735, Stewart, for the consideration of £620., repurchased the land from Williams. On Dec. 19, 1735 Stewart, now the sole owner of the farm, mortgaged it to John Dixon of Voluntown. Finally, on May 10, 1736, Stewart, unable to pay off the mortgage, conveyed to Dixon one-hundred acres of land in Killingly, "being that which I purchased of John Williams."

The question arises, who was this unfortunate Hannah Wilson? Margaret Wilson suggests that she was Hannah (J03-029), who was born at Lexington, Massachusetts, 12 July 1708, daughter of James and Margaret (Russ) (Peters) Wilson. However, this can not be so, the church records in Killingly show that Hannah Wilson as living there with her parents in 1739.

There was a large family named Wilson, of Scotch origins, associated with Rev. Dorrance's church in Voluntown, Connecticut, but they did not appear in New England until well after the time of Hannah's marriage to Spalding.

Although proof is lacking, it is my belief that she was Hannah (J03-037), born at Rehoboth, Massachusetts, 7 Oct. 1702, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Wilson. Her parents and her sister Rebecca all died in eastern Connecticut. Although she does not conform to Rev. Joshua Spalding's statement that she was twenty-eight years old when her first husband died, she is the only one of this name who "was from the Old Plymouth Colony, and at a distance from her own family."

So there it is, the story is clear, Hannah (Wilson), widow of Jacob Spaulding, married Edward Stewart of Killingly, Connecticut and by him had a daughter Mary. Unfortunately, the record is not clear as to the identity of either Edward or Hannah.

We have no answer to the question, did a Wilson marry royalty?

THE WILSON FORTUNE

During the first half of the nineteenth century a strong and persistent rumor circulated regarding a large inheritance waiting in England to be claimed by the Wilson family in New England.

According to the most widely circulated version, Robert Wilson was the owner of certain estates in England comprised of farming lands situated at Stoneleigh, Warwickshire, and forty-six houses in Fryingpan Alley in London. He died in 1644, leaving two children, the younger, William was devised the estate at Stoneleigh while the elder, Benjamin was devised the reversion of the houses in London, which had been given by the same will to his wife for her lifetime use.

In 1665, Benjamin came to this country and settled at Charlestown, near Boston. In 1681, probably upon the death of his mother the widow of Robert Wilson, Benjamin went to England, and while there he died. William, the younger brother procured from Benjamin's widow the documents necessary for the settlement of his estate, and the confirmation of the rights of the widow and children. Benjamin's children died without heirs, save Jeremiah who left six sons and from whom are descended all the persons interested in this property.

William died without heirs about 1735. After the death of William a person pretending to be an agent of Lord Leigh of Stoneleigh came to this country and procured from Jeremiah and his eldest son a sixty year lease on the Stoneleigh property and a power of attorney to collect the rents of the London houses.

One copy of this lease and the power of attorney were taken by this pretended agent, the other copy of the lease, which was retained by the lessor, and was then the only evidence of title in their hands, was subsequently abstracted from their possession by a stranger who seemed to be an Englishman, and who took great pains to get the documents into his hands.

This tale was widely accepted by the potential Wilson heirs. Meetings were held and eventually an association was formed with the members, forty-eight in number, contributing funds to finance a trip to England by an individual who was to investigate the title to these properties and take whatever action was required to secure their inheritance. The account of his trip is found in a small booklet, Report to the Wilson Association, U. S. A. by H. O. Smith, published at Brandon, Vermont in 1866.

Insofar as the inheritance is concerned the investigator found that there was no estate at Stoneleigh, no houses and no such street as Fryingpan Alley in London and no record of a Robert Wilson who had left sons Benjamin and William. The entire matter was a hoax!

Most of the members of this association, whose names and many of their pedigrees are included in this booklet, traced their ancestry back to Benjamin (U01-001) Wilson of Charlestown, who was "lost at sea recently" in 1667, leaving a son Jeremiah as one of his heirs.

However, a number of the members traced their ancestry to Jonathan (J04-087) Wilson. When one considers that Jonathan had married Lucy Blanding, an aunt of James Blanding who was the Town Clerk in Rehoboth from 1812 to 1836, and who attested to the delayed Wilson entries in the town records, the identity of the instigator of these delayed, and incorrect, entries becomes apparent. Further, the rumored fortune awaiting the heirs of Benjamin Wilson who had migrated to America, provides a reason for the addition of the words "from England" in the record of the second marriage of Benjamin (J03-034).

It should be added that the Wilson's were not the only family to believe that, for one reason or another, a large fortune waited in England for the heirs to return from America and claim their inheritance. Similar accounts are found in the records of several New England colonial families, we have also come across the same tradition, with a silght variation in the circumstances, in an unrelated Wilson family.

OLIVER WILSON'S DEED

[This conveyance, which is recorded starting on page twenty-five of volume twenty-one in the Lincoln County Registry of Deeds, Wiscassett, Maine is probably one of the most comprehensive deeds ever recorded in New England. It traces the title to a plot of land in northern Maine from King James the First of England (1603-1625) down to Oliver (J05-047) Wilson, from Townsend, Massachusetts who settled on the land in 1787.]
